Commercial Club Makes Report

The directors of the Commercial club desire to express to the citizens of Forest Grove and vicinity their deep appreciation of the spirit and fact of the hearty cooperation given by all in connection with the recent state encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic.

Organizations and individuals alike stood ready to give of their time, money, services and accommodations, to the end that Forest Grove might in no way fail in her hospitality to her honored guests.

So liberal was the response of those who would open their homes to entertain the visitors that, although more than a thousand people were thus cared for, entertainment could have been provided for the several hundred more members of the visiting organizations whom we hoped and expected to have with us. We regret that it was impossible for every home listed to share in the pleasure of this entertainment. All may justly feel, however, that they have contributed to the success of the occasion and know that through such a spirit of citizenship is the reputation of our city made and borne abroad.

We believe that all those interested in the Commercial Club of Forest Grove, and especially those who have contributed to its funds, should be apprised of the manner in which their money has been expended under the management of the board, and we herewith append a statement of the receipts and expenditures which pertain to the Encampment.

Prominent Lecturers at Chautauqua

WOOD BRIGGS.

LORENE W. WILSON.

W. L. MELLINGER.

W. A. BONE.

WOOD BRIGGS of Kentucky is coming to Chautauqua with his usual bubbling abundance of southern dialect and drollery. W. L. Mellinger, noted authority on Mexican affairs, past and present, gives a lecture in which his personal experiences with Villa, Carranza and Madera strongly figure. Mrs. Lorene Wiswell Wilson of Federated Woman's Clubs is to deliver her stirring community address, "The Adventure of Being Human."

W. A. Bone, Illinois' beloved poet-philosopher and humorist, will be heard in the greatest of all his platform addresses, "The House of Man."

Fourth of July Accidents

Wilbur Underhill, nine-year-old son of Harry Underhill, living northwest of town, celebrated the Fourth raking hay for his father, but when the horses ran away and dumped Wilbur where the teeth of the rake picked him up and rolled him along the ground for 200 yards the celebration became monotonous. One tooth went through the calf of the boy's leg and his head and face were badly bruised; otherwise he is all right.

While Chas. Buhman was learning to drive his new auto, he ran too far up a hillside and the car tipped over, penning Mr. and Mrs. Buhman, their seven-year-old son and Joe Wiles under the car. The fact that the top was up saved the occupants from being crushed, but, as it was, Harold, the Buhman boy, was slightly injured, but no bones were broken. The car went back home on its own power.

Mrs. Oscar Raines and two children were riding in a two-wheeled horsecart up Scoggin's valley, when the horse ran away through a slashing, throwing all three occupants out of the rig. Mrs. Raines' feet became entangled in the lines and she was dragged 200 yards, completely disrobed and badly skinned and bruised, but no bones were broken and she is not considered dangerously injured. Neither of the children were injured.

Two machines went off the grade at Dug Hill west of town, but neither the occupants nor machines were injured.

C. Wilder broke a rear wheel on his car at Hillside and when C. Macey tried to pull around the crippled car, he broke a front wheel on his car.

Miss Laura White of Chehalem Valley was accidentally shot through the leg by her sister, who was practicing with a target rifle, the accident occurring twelve miles south of Hillsboro.

George, the six-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Sandstrom of the Spring Hill section, passed away at the Forest Grove hospital Sunday, following an operation for appendicitis. Funeral services were held Tuesday at the Buxton chapel, Rev. Sandstedt of Portland officiating, the interment being in Forest View.

Yesterday was a quiet day in Forest Grove, there being no celebration. Many people went to Hillsboro, where there was a good program, including an aeroplane flight, baseball, speeches, music, etc. Quite a number of local people went to Balm Grove, to spend the day picnicking.

Mrs. Sadie Atkins of Portland is visiting relatives in the city.

Wife and Mother Called

After an illness of two years with Bright's disease of the kidneys, Mrs. Ora M. Nance passed away at 10 o'clock last Sunday morning at the family home, Second avenue south.

Deceased was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Gardner and a sister to Fred and Gus Gardner and Mrs. Bertha Howard of this city and was born in Lynn county, this state, on February 13th, 1881. She was married to T. A. Nance at Sheridan on March 19th, 1905. She had lived all her life in the Willamette valley, with the exception of about six months spent at Caldwell, Idaho. The family had resided in this city a few months.

Mrs. Nance is survived by her husband and four boys, aged from four to eleven years, and her death leaves a place impossible to fill in this family circle. She had many friends in this part of the state who will sincerely mourn her death, as she was a kind and affectionate wife and mother and a loyal friend and good neighbor.

Funeral services were held at the Buxton chapel at 3 o'clock Monday afternoon, Rev. R. E. Dunlap officiating, and interment was in Forest View cemetery.

Mrs. Clara Sage Dead

Mrs. George B. Sage, aged 65, passed away at the family home on South A street last Tuesday evening, after a long illness, and the funeral services were held at the family residence at 2:30 this afternoon, Rev. R. E. Dunlap officiating. Interment was in Forest View cemetery, where the husband is buried.

Clara E. Knight was born at Troy, N. Y., on Dec. 14, 1851, and was married to George B. Sage at Fillmore, Minn., on Aug. 15, 1875. The family came to Forest Grove from South Dakota in 1910 and the husband passed away shortly after that date.

Deceased is survived by six children—Mrs. F. E. Smith of Summit, this state, Guy D. Sage of Hartline, Wash., Mrs. L. E. Howard of Barnard, S. D., Misses Clara and Alma and Mr. Jesse Sage of this city; also four brothers, Frank Knight of this city, George L. Knight of Chatfield, Minn., Fred Knight of Edgemont, Ark., and Edwin Knight of Oklahoma City, Okl.

During her residence in this city Mrs. Sage had endeared herself to a large number of our citizens by her kindly disposition and neighborly spirit and there were many sincere mourners at her funeral outside the family circle.

All the children were at the funeral.

Queen Una the First

Miss Una Emerson was elected queen of the firemen's carnival held in this city last week and was crowned Thursday evening, City Recorder Dyke performing the ceremony for the mayor in the presence of hundreds of citizens. The queen was escorted through the carnival by an escort of armed Boy Scouts and carried a large key; emblematic of her ownership of the city during the week.

Ross Reder, vice president of the fire department, made a short address at the coronation, giving some statistics as to the benefit of a fire department like that possessed by Forest Grove. For the past two years the average loss per alarm, has been $134.00, but up to two years ago the average loss was a little more than $400.00. This is pretty conclusive evidence that Forest Grove has an efficient fire department. Much of the equipment has been purchased by the department out of funds raised by carnivals, dances, etc.

Three Firemen Resign

The members of the Forest Grove Fire department held a special meeting Tuesday evening to close up some business in connection with the carnival of last week. After all expenses were paid, there was a balance of $146.00 from the carnival and $29.25 from the department's share of the dances given in the Odd Fellows' building.

The voting contest to select a queen just about paid its own expenses, with probably a dollar profit.

While the firemen made a little out of the carnival, the owners of the show claim to have left $1,000 here that they made in Marshfield. Their total receipts in this city were $1,550.30 and the department got $378.50 of this amount. Transportation to the next stand is said to have cost the company $1380. When the wages of 100 men and women and other expenses for a week were considered, it is probable that the loss was not short of $1,000.

Three members of the fire department—W. C. and Ernest Tucker and Jesse Perry—turned in their uniforms and announced they were through with the department. Their resignations were accepted.

Miss Mildred Thomas, enroute to her home in Los Angeles from a term in an eastern college, is the guest of the Burlinghams.
