SAYS CORNS LIFT
RIGHT OUT NOW

You corn-pestered men and women need suffer no longer. Wear the shoes that nearly killed you before, says this Cincinnati authority, because a few drops of freezezone applied directly on a tender, aching corn or callus, stops soreness at once and soon the corn or hardened callus loosens so it can be lifted out, root and all, without pain.

A small bottle of freezezone costs very little at any drug store, but will positively take off every hard or soft corn or callus. This should be tried, as it is inexpensive and is said not to irritate the surrounding skin.

If your druggist hasn't any freezezone tell him to get a small bottle for you from his wholesale drug house. It is fine stuff and acts like a charm every time.

Rapid Evaporation of Water
Secret of Success of The Iceless Refrigerator

Milk and other perishable foods can be kept cool and so preserved for considerable periods, even where ice is unobtainable. This can be accomplished by the use of iceless refrigerators, which are dependent on the rapid evaporation of water for the creation of low temperatures. These devices have been perfected by woman demonstrators in extension work, South, of the United States department of agriculture.

The iceless refrigerator consists of a wooden frame covered with canton fannel, burlap or heavy duck. It is desirable that the frame be screened, although this is not necessary. Wicks, made of the same material as the covering, resting in a pan of water on top of the cooler, conduct the water over the sides and ends of the pan and allow it to seep down the sides of the box. The evaporation from this moistened covering causes a lower

I've Wished Time Away.

Since I can remember and all through my life, With its pleasures and sorrows, its troubles and strife, There's something we wanted. I must wait day by day, To come by it quickly, I've wished life away.

How in my schooldays I envied the men, And wished I were grown up, to be just like them. I was so impatient I could brook no delay; The time passed so slowly, I wished life away.

When I grew to a man, and I became married, With a family around me, and life's burden I carried, So hard did I labor, I scarcely could stay Till my day's work was done; I wished life away.

And now in my old age I look back with tears On the time that is past, fully three score of years. I'm growing quite feeble, my hair's turned to gray, My race's about run; I've wished life away.

—William E. Burke.

Some Observations.

The first shock the average bride gets is that which follows the discovery of a half-used plug of chewing tobacco in her husband's pocket.

A man has enough faults as it is without making himself disagreeable.

The people who enter matrimony with the idea that the divorce court will help them out if they happen to make a bad bargain usually land in the divorce court.

About the only time the average man doesn't pull his money out of his pocket with a flourish so that everybody can see the $20 bill that is being used as a wrapper is when his wife is in the room.

Spring seems to be having difficulty getting its big guns into action.

Says College Women Will Have Big Part in the Work
Of Rebuilding the World

Any young woman who neglects the opportunity in this war time to prepare for the rebuilding of the world will be a world slacker. In the opinion of Miss Ada Rice, secretary of the Kansas State Agricultural College Alumni association.

Miss Rice points out that at the close of the war there must be a rebuilding of national and international life. This will call for the best qualities of leadership and the best training, and in this work the college woman can play a part of great importance.

College women must not wait until the end of the war for service, however, states Miss Rice. "The time is now at hand," she declares, "when the world must depend upon woman for carrying forward progressive movements."

She urges college women to take an active interest and perform active service in the big movements now in progress.

Place the refrigerator in a shady place, where air will circulate around it freely. If buttons and buttonholes are used on the canton flannel instead of buggy hooks, the cost will be reduced.

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is grandmother's recipe, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage.

Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the mussy mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product, improved by the addition of other ingredients, called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" for about 50 cents a bottle. It is very popular because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply moisten your comb or a soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also produces that soft lustre and appearance of abundance which is so attractive. This ready-to-use preparation is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire a more youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

Cure for "Strawberry Nose"

Found in Simple Operation

That most distressing of facial deformities which doctors call rhinophyma, characterized by a much-swollen and reddened tip of the nose, making this look like a huge strawberry or a piece of cauliflower that has been dipped in beet juice, may be cured by a simple operation. Sir William Milligan of the Royal Infirmary, Manchester, describes this in the London Lancet.

The operation consists in cutting off all the hypertrophied tissue, while the nasal passages are kept extended with absorbent wool in order to preserve their contour. The raw surface is covered with two thin grafts of skin cut from the patient's thigh, over which a sheet of gold leaf is placed and a dry dressing fastened with adhesive plaster. It should be possible to remove the dressing in five days.

A tasty sandwich is made by mixing a few finely chopped olives with a little cottage cheese. The bread need not be buttered for these sandwiches.

Onion Sandwich.—Soak for an hour finely cut Bermudas in ice water which has been well sweetened and salted. Drain and mix with slightly seasoned mayonnaise. Serve on rounds of buttered bread.

Rhubarb Marmalade.

Allow three-quarters of a pound of sugar to each pound of rhubarb. Cut in short lengths without peeling, cook slowly, stirring often to keep it from sticking or burning. After an hour place in the jars in the usual way.

Women of Middle Age

Many distressing Ailments experienced by them are Alleviated by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Here is Proof by Women who Know.

Lowell, Mass.—"For the last three years I have been troubled with the Change of Life and the bad feelings common at that time. I was in a very nervous condition, with headaches and pain a good deal of the time so I was unfit to do my work. A friend asked me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which I did, and it has helped me in every way. I am not nearly so nervous, no headache or pain. I must say that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the best remedy any sick woman can take."—Mrs. MARGARET QUINN, Rear 259 Worthen St., Lowell, Mass.

She Tells Her Friends to Take Lydia E. Pinkham's Remedies.

North Haven, Conn.—"When I was 45 I had the Change of Life which is a trouble all women have. At first it didn't bother me but after a while I got bearing down pains. I called in doctors who told me to try different things but they did not cure my pains. One day my husband came home and said, 'Why don't you try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Sanative Wash?' Well, I got them and took about 10 bottles of Vegetable Compound and could feel myself regaining my health. I also used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash and it has done me a great deal of good. 'Any one coming to my house who suffers from female troubles or Change of Life, I tell them to take the Pinkham remedies. There are about 20 of us here who think the world of them.'"—Mrs. FLORENCE ISELLA, Box 197, North Haven, Conn.
