Serial Numbers of Possible Soldiers

Following are the names and serial numbers of men who registered in this city on June 5th for military service. These numbers will next week be placed with numbers from all parts of the United States and as many numbers drawn by lot as soldiers are wanted. The drawing will be held at Washington, D. C., and the thousands of local exemption boards will be notified, by number, what men in their districts have been drafted. So many men have enlisted from Washington county that probably a small proportion of those registered will be called. Portland papers estimate that Washington county will have to furnish 36 men, which should let this city off with a dozen or less. Clip out the names and numbers and save them for future reference:

John Crook Called Home

After months of suffering from cancer, John Crook, aged 82, passed away at his home, one and a half miles east of this city, at 10:45 yesterday morning.

Deceased was born at Dukenfield, Cheshire, England, on August 15th, 1835, and came to America in 1854, locating in Rhode Island, where he remained until 1857, when he migrated to Illinois. In 1894, with his wife and daughter, he came to Washington county and purchased the place where he died. He was united in marriage with Miss Elizabeth Ashton in 1869 and to this union two children were born, a son, Edward, who died when six years of age, and Alice, who lived at home, keeping house for her father since the death of the mother, four years ago.

He leaves, besides his daughter, one brother, Peter Crook, of Illinois; two sisters, Mrs. Henry Bamford of Hillside, this county, and Mrs. James Astle of Portland. John Crook was esteemed by those who knew him as an honorable man, an accomodating neighbor and a patriotic citizen. Funeral services were held at the Congregational church at 2:30 this afternoon, Rev. A. B. Patten officiating, and the remains were interred in Forest View cemetery.

Closing Number Was Fine

One of the best musical numbers of the late Chautauqua was the concert given last Thursday night by the "Alpine Yodelers." There were four men and two women in the party and every one was a singer. Many people consider this the best number on the program. Four hundred dollars' worth of season tickets were pledged that evening for the 1918 Chautauqua, bringing the guaranty up to the required amount.

A. H. Needham and son, LeRoy, arrived Friday from Arnold, Neb., for a visit with the E. G. Mills family, they being father and brother, respectively, to Mrs. Mills. The elder Needham will remain indefinitely, but the son will leave shortly for home, via California, where he will visit friends.

Fred Lyda of Thatcher has purchased a farm in Linn county and is preparing to move to his new farm. Mrs. Lyda and children are visiting at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. D. Staley.

Canning the Kaiser

The following song was written by Upton Sinclair, who a dozen years ago wrote "The Jungle," a book dealing with canned meats and other packing house products. The song was sung for the first time in public at the National Educational convention, held in Portland last week, and made a big hit (slang and all) with the educators:

(Tune—"Marching Thru Georgia")

Bring the good old bugle, boys, we'll sing another song;
 Sing it with a spirit that will move the world along,
 Sing it as we need to sing it—half a million strong—
 While we are canning the kaiser.

CHORUS—

Oh, Bill! Oh, Bill! We're on the job today!
 Oh, Bill! Oh, Bill! We'll seal you so you'll stay!
 We'll put you up in ginger, in the good old
 Yankee way—

While we are canning the kaiser.

Hear the song we're singing on the shining roads of France;
 Hear the Tommies cheering and see the Poilous prance;
 Africanders and Canucks and Scots without their pants—
 While we are canning the kaiser.

Bring the guns from Bethlehem, by way of old New York;
 Bring the beans from Boston and don't leave out the pork;
 Bring a load of soda-pop and pull the grape-juice cork—
 While we are canning the kaiser.

Come, you men from Dixieland, you lumber-jacks of Maine;
 Come, you Texas cowboys, you farmers of the plain;
 From Florida to Oregon we boast the Yankee strain—
 While we are canning the kaiser.

Now we've started on the job, we mean to put it thru;
 Ship the kings and kaisers all, and make the world anew;
 Clear the way for common folk, for men like me and you—
 While we are canning the kaiser.

(Chorus)

Councilmen Order Sprinkling Stopped

At an adjourned meeting of the city council, held Tuesday evening, the water commissioner was instructed to find and remove the obstruction that is preventing water from flowing from the dam to the reservoir and in order to make the supply in the reservoir last until the intake pipe is fixed, all water users are urged to be as careful as possible in the use of water and the use of city water for the sprinkling of lawns and gardens is absolutely prohibited until Monday of next week.

Water Commissioner Watkins now has a force of men at work on the pipeline.

The state public service commission having ordered the city to maintain warning signs 300 feet from all railroad crossings in the city, Recorder Dyke was instructed to write for more specific instructions. He was also instructed to look up the telephone company franchise, which expires soon. Several councilmen intimated that said company had "a pretty soft snap" under the present arrangement.

The light and water committee was authorized to engage Ed. L. Sayres, on trial, as city electrician and lineman, at a salary of $75.00 per month.

Recorder was instructed to publish notice of intention to place an oil-bound macadam topping on Seventh street, between First avenue and the Baseline road.

It was reported by Mayor Patterson that the case brought by the Elliott Construction company to collect pay for an alleged sewer would probable be tried in Portland during September.

Council adjourned to Tuesday evening, July 31, at which time protests against improving Seventh street may be made.

Pretty Church Wedding

A beautiful and impressive wedding took place at the Methodist Episcopal church at 8 o'clock last evening, when Miss Ava Carlyle was united in marriage with Mr. George D. Garratt of Portland. The church was artistically decorated with ferns and Shasta daisies and the bride carried a bouquet of white sweet peas. Mr. Isaacs gave a sympathetic rendition of the beautiful and appropriate song, "O, Promise Me," and Mrs. Augustus Gardner played Lohengren's wedding march, Ruth Chalmers acting as flower girl and Paul Chalmers as ring-bearer. The impressive ceremony was performed by Rev. R. E. Dunlap. Mr. Willard Oakes of Portland acted as best man and Miss Mildred Carlyle was bridesmaid. After the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Carlyle, at which about forty relatives and friends were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Garratt left immediately for Newport, where they will spend their honeymoon. They will make their home in Portland, where the groom has a position with the O.-W. R. & N. company. The bride is a graduate of Pacific University and has many friends here. For the past two years she has been teaching in the high school of Bellefontaine, Benton county, where she did very successful work.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Garratt, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Dutcher, Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Saxon, Mrs. A. K. Higgs, and Miss Elizabeth Leonard, all of Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Garratt and Ruth and Willis Cady of Beaverton, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank R. Bennett of Bellefontaine.

Mrs. A. A. Hall has been quite ill during the past week.

Jacob A. Tupper Killed by Tree

While falling timber on the Charles Williams place, in Patton valley, at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning, Jacob A. Tupper of the Oak Hill section received injuries that ended in death in less than an hour. Jake and West Walters were falling a tree and both stepped out of the way of the falling tree, but when the tree top struck the ground, the heavy butt kicked back and fell upon Mr. Tupper, badly crushing his abdomen. As soon as a conveyance could be secured the injured man was hurried to the Forest Grove hospital, but breathed his last as he was being taken into the hospital.

Jacob Tupper was born on a farm near Dilley 35 years ago and has lived in Washington county practically all his life. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Tupper, for many years residents of this county and was highly esteemed by all who knew him. His untimely death will be mourned by a large circle of friends.

Deceased is survived by his father, wife and three children, as follows: Francis, aged 13; Roscoe, aged 11, and Earl Maurice Carlton, aged seven months; also a brother, Earl of St. John, and three sisters—Mrs. Mary Martin and Mrs. Maude Whittenburg of Yamhill and Mrs. A. E. McCoy of Piedmont, Calif.

Funeral services will be held at the Buxton Chapel at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon, Father J. R. Buck officiating, with interment in Forest View cemetery.
