

SPOILS OF VICTOR IS DEMAND OF KAISER

Possible Peace Terms Declared by Chancellor Michaelis.

AMERICA IS SNUBBED

England Blamed for Causing War and for Making Use of Submarines Necessary—Food is Scarce.

Copenhagen—With the statement that Germany's wish is to conclude peace as combatants who have successfully accomplished their purpose, yet admitting the severity of the food situation, Dr. Georg Michaelis, the new imperial chancellor of Germany, Friday made his first address before the reichstag.

Dr. Michaelis declared adherence to the submarine campaign as a means of hastening the end of the war, and looked lightly upon the entry of the United States into the war, asserting the German fleet and the submarines would master that situation.

Meager reports of Dr. Michaelis' address, received Saturday, were supplemented Sunday with more complete versions.

"Although," said Chancellor Michaelis to the reichstag, "English statesmen knew, as shown by their bluebook, that Russian mobilization must lead to war with Germany, they addressed not a word of warning to Russia against military measures, while my predecessor, in instructions July 29, 1914, to the Ambassador at Vienna, directed him to say that we would willingly fulfill our duty as an ally, but must refuse to permit ourselves to be involved in a world war through Austria-Hungary disregarding our counsels. The man who wishes to kindle a world war does not write like this, but a man who is laboring and has labored for peace to the utmost.

"The concentration of the Russian army compelled Germany to seize the sword.

"There was no choice left to us, and what is true of the war itself is true also of our weapons, particularly the submarine. We deny the accusation that the submarine warfare is contrary to international law and violates the rights of humanity.

"England forced this weapon in our hands through a neutral blockade. England prevented neutral trade with Germany and proclaimed a war of starvation. Our faint hope that America, at the head of the neutrals, would check English illegality was vain and the final attempt we made by an honorably intended peace offer to avoid the last extremity, failed.

"Then Germany had to choose this last measure as a counter measure of self-defense. Now also it must carry it through for the purpose of shortening the war. The submarine war is accomplishing all and more than all it is expected to. It impairs England's economic life and the conduct of the war month to month in a growing degree, so that it will not be possible to oppose the necessity for peace much longer. We can look forward to the further labors of the brave submarine with complete confidence.

"We look without serious concern upon the optimistic sentiment in the entente countries caused by America's intervention. It is easy to reckon how much tonnage is necessary to transport an army from America to Europe, how much tonnage is required to feed such an army. France and England are scarcely able to feed and supply their own armies without influencing the economic situation still further. After our previous success we shall be able to master this situation also through our fleet, particularly the submarines. That is our firm conviction and assurance. We and our allies, therefore, can look forward to any further development of military events with calm security.

"The burning question in our hearts, however, is how much longer the war is to last. With this, I come to a matter which stands in the center of all our interest and all our proceedings today. Germany did not desire the war in order to make violent con-

Camp Gets First Animals.

Tacoma, Wash.—The first carload of 15,000 animals to be used at the army cantonment when the 46,000 men are in training arrived Saturday from Fort Keogh, not far from Miles City, Mont. The shipment had been on the road 12 days. The animals will be brought to the camp from many places in the United States, but the major share of them will be gathered at concentration points in the west, such as Miles City, Mont., and Twin Falls, Idaho.

quests, and therefore will not continue the war a day longer merely for the sake of such conquests if it could obtain an honorable peace.

"The Germans," he said, "wish to conclude peace as combatants who have successfully accomplished their purpose and proved themselves invincible. A condition of peace is the inviolability of Germany's territory. No parley is possible with the enemy demanding the cession of German soil.

"We must by means of understanding and in a spirit of give and take guarantee conditions of the existence of German empire upon the continent and overseas," continued the chancellor.

Dr. Michaelis' words on this point required a careful reading the are capable of various interpretations other than the surface one. His German indicates a willingness to make peace only as victors.

"It must," he continued, "prevent nations from being plunged into further enmity through economic blockades and provide a safeguard that the league in the arms of our opponents does not develop into an economic offensive alliance against us.

"We cannot again offer peace. We have loyally stretched out our hands once. It met no response, but with the entire nation and with Germany, the army and its leaders, in accord with this declaration, the government feels that if our enemies abandon their lust for conquest and their aims at subjugation and wish to enter into negotiations we shall listen honestly and readily for peace to what they have to say to us. Until then we must hold out calm and patiently.

"The present time in regard to food conditions is the most severe we have experienced and in the month of July has been the worst. Drought has delayed and want exists in many cases, but I can declare with glad confidence that relief will shortly set in and the population can then be supplied more adequately."

687,000 CALLED TO COLORS BY LOTTERY

Washington, D. C.—Selective conscription was put into effect Friday, when a national lottery fixed the order of military liability for the 10,000,000 young Americans registered for service.

To accomplish the result, 10,500 numbers had to be drawn, one at a time—a task which began in the morning and lasted far into the night.

The lottery was held in the public-hearing room of the senate office building, with War department officials in charge of the actual drawing and with members of the senate and house military committees as witnesses. Through the day there was a small crowd of spectators, but altogether probably less than 1000 people saw any part of the process.

As a result of drawing, every registered man receives a definite place in the liability-for-service list. Already 687,000 have been ordered to the colors to fill to war strength the regular army and national guard and to constitute the first increment of the national army.

To obtain that total 1,374,000 men will be called for examination within a few weeks, officials estimating that two registrants must be called for every soldier accepted. These 1,374,000 will be taken from the head of the liability list, every local district furnishing a fixed quota.

The drawing was conducted with ceremonies as democratic as the ideal citizenship it embodied.

It was shortly before 10 o'clock when Secretary Baker, entrusted by the President with the carrying out of the draft law, rapped for order. The congressional committees were in their seats, and on a small table stood the lottery jar, sealed with brown paper and showing through its transparent walls the heap of number-filled capsules that must be taken out, one, by one.

Secretary Baker briefly explained the purpose of the drawing, then stepped forward to be blindfolded and draw the first number.

It was No. 258. Then, in quick succession, other numbers were drawn, while cameras and motion picture machines recorded the scene.

England Sends Thanks.

London—On behalf of the government, Lord Robert Cecil, minister of blockade, asked the Associated Press to express to the American government and people the gratification and appreciation of the British government for the reception and assistance given to the British recruiting campaign in the United States. The results of the recruiting campaign in the United States have been a source of satisfaction to the British government.

Mrs. Roosevelt Greeted.

Paris—Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., arrived from New York Saturday, and was greeted by the prefect of the French government.

GOETHALS RESIGNS; DENMAN IS OUSTED

President Acts to End Shipping Board Controversy.

NEW MEN ARE CHOSEN

Rear Admiral Capps Takes Charge of Fleet Company—E. N. Hurley to Head Trade Commission.

Washington, D. C.—President Wilson Tuesday asked Chairman Denman, of the shipping board, to resign, and accepted the resignation of Major General Goethals as general manager of the Emergency Fleet corporation.

Official announcement of the acceptance of the resignations of Goethals and Captain John B. White was made with publication of a letter from President Wilson to Chairman Denman, asking for his resignation and giving the President's opinion that the only way to end the row which has delayed the shipbuilding program was for both Goethals and Denman to be removed.

In asking for Mr. Denman's resignation, President Wilson suggested that he would be glad to "take the same disinterested and self-forgetting course that General Goethals has taken."

"When you have done as he has done," the President wrote Mr. Denman, "I am sure that you may count with the utmost confidence upon the ultimate verdict of the people of the country with regard to your magnanimous and unselfish view of public duty and upon winning in the retrospect the same admiration and confidence that I have learned to feel for you."

President Wilson's action came as a surprise. Officials generally had thought he would make a further effort to patch up differences and divide specifically between Chairman Denman and General Goethals' power conferred on him by the shipping act.

Chairman Denman received the President's request for his resignation at noon and tendered it immediately.

"I want to help the President in every way possible," he said, "and never have questioned the wisdom of his decisions."

Edward N. Hurley, a Chicago business man and former chairman of the Federal Trade commission, will become chairman of the shipping board. Washington L. Capps, chief constructor of the navy, will succeed General Goethals as general manager of the Emergency Fleet corporation. Bainbridge Colby, of New York, will become a member of the shipping board in place of Captain John B. White.

SECOND ARMY PLANS MADE

Five Billions Added to War Expenses—Allies Will Need More.

Washington, D. C.—Plans worked out in congress for raising war revenue were overturned Wednesday by announcement of forthcoming additional estimates for war expenditures aggregating more than $5,000,000,000, principally in anticipation of assembling a second army of 500,000 men under the selective draft.

Secretary McAdoo, at a special meeting of the senate finance committee, revealed that the War department alone is preparing estimates to cover additional expenditures of nearly $5,000,000,000, and asked the committee of hold up the $16,70,000,000 war tax bill until the detailed estimates of all departments are submitted. The committee agreed to the request and pigeon-holed a report on the measure which it had planned to submit during the day.

The new estimates, including $500,000,000 additional for the Shipping board and $100,000,000 for the Navy department, are to be submitted to the committee late this week.

Besides the additional sums needed for the American war program, Secretary McAdoo told the senate committee that the $3,000,000,000 authorized for loan to the allies probably would last only until October and that about $2,000,000,000 for their further assistance would be needed.

Sinn Feiners Asking Aid.

Washington, D. C.—Two communications addressed to congress containing pleas by the Sinn Feiners in Ireland for American aid in their demand for absolute independence from England were left at the White House Wednesday by Irish representatives. One is signed by Patrick McCarten in behalf of the Irish republic. The other is an appeal signed by 26 officers "of forces formed independently in Ireland to secure liberation of the Irish nation."

TO POST DRAFT LIST

County Exemption Boards Will Notify Men Selected by First Call—Failure to Get Notice No Excuse.

(From Office of Adjutant General, O. N. G.)

Portland—Within a few days official lists of the draft serial numbers, showing the order in which they were drawn in the lottery at Washington, will reach the various county exemption boards. Following receipt of these lists, the boards will notify the men called up in the first draft.

Until then it will not be necessary for those subject to draft on the first call to report. But as soon as they receive notification from their boards, they must report promptly on the day designated.

The first step taken by each board will be to post in a conspicuous place a list containing the names of all the men registered in its county or district, in the exact order in which they will be called on the first and all succeeding drafts. A copy of this list also will be given the press for publication.

Let it be emphasized again that this list will have not only the names of the men to be called out on the first draft, but of every man registered, in the order in which he must be called. No person whatsoever has any authority to change this order.

Having posted this list and given copy to the press, the board will then notify by letter every man called up on the first draft. Each man will be directed to appear before the board for physical examination on a specified date, which will be within seven days of the mailing of the notice.

At the same time, failure to receive this notice will not be accepted as an excuse for not appearing on the day set. The burden of appearing when he is called is on the man himself, and it is up to him to find out when he must appear; there is a stiff penalty for failing to answer the call.

Remember, that regardless of whether a man intends to apply for exemption or discharge, he must appear for physical examination on the day set. He has seven days from the posting of the list and the mailing of the notice to him by the board in which to file application for exemption, and 10 more days in which to file proof.

And remember again, that no claims for exemption because of employment in necessary industries, including agriculture, can be considered by your county exemption board.

Such a claim must be made to one of the three district appeal boards, at Portland, Eugene or La Grande. It can only be made then after the man has passed his physical examination and been certified by the county board as called for military service and not exempt.

After you have appeared before your county exemption board and have passed the physical examination, it will still be some time before you will actually be called out to join the army. You will be notified when it is time for you to report for service.

RETAIL PRICES OF FOOD RISE

Statistics Show Some Staples Jump From 55 to 150 Per Cent in Year.

Washington, D. C.—Heavy increases in retail food prices in the United States within the last three years are shown in statistics compiled Tuesday by the department of Labor. The sharpest advance was in flour, which jumped 150 per cent in price. Potatoes increased 125 per cent, lard 82, sugar 79, corn meal 77, bacon 56, bread 55.

During the first year of the war many prices decreased slightly but by the summer of 1916 they were mounting rapidly. Most of the increase was during the last 12 months. Wholesale prices of many commodities have more than doubled since 1914.

RUSSIAN LOAN SHOWS FAITH

$75,000,000 Advanced by U. S. Makes Total of $175,000,000.

Washington, D. C.—The United States Tuesday emphasized its faith in the Russian government by extending it a further credit of $75,000,000.

This is the second Russian credit, the first, for $100,000,000, having been established soon after the United States entered the war. It is understood most of the $100,000,000 already has been spent for railroad supplies and that much of the $75,000,000 will be used in the same manner.

$350,000,000 in Gardens.

Washington, D. C.—The gardening campaign has resulted in the planting of more than three times the usual number of gardens in the United States, with the prospect that their products will reach the total value of $350,000,000, according to an estimate made by Charles Lathrop Pack, president of the National Emergency Food Garden commission.

In the Pacific states the gain is set at 185 per cent.
