Jay Bunting, late of Woodburn, who has purchased a farm between Scoggin and Patton valleys, was in the city on business yesterday.

No other farm wagon gives you the service you get out of the Winona, with the iron-clad hubs. See this wagon at Gordon's hardware store.

Mrs. Anna E. Dixon, the Main street milliner, begs to announce that she will have on display on Tuesday and Wednesday, Sept. 11th and 12th, a nice line of fall hats. Come and see them. It

Mrs. Edgar Meresse of McMinnville stopped off in this city Sunday for a visit with the family of her brother, Archie Bryant, while on her way to Seaside for a visit with her husband's parents. Archie accompanied her as far as Portland.

Mrs. R. C. Hill Saturday evening entertained fifteen ladies in honor of Mrs. Lulu Ingersoll, who left yesterday for a visit of indefinite duration in Nebraska and Michigan. The evening was spent at various parlor games, music and refreshments.

B. F. Purdy and family returned Saturday from an extended auto trip through Southern Oregon. Mr. Purdy says he saw several deer, but the governor had closed the season so that he didn't feel like eating venison. One party hunting in the same district reported having counted 42 deer during their hunt.

While Wesley Goodin of Cornelius was examining a young bull at the Chris Jensen place, in the Thatcher district, last Sunday, the animal became peevish, broke its rope and began butting Goodin with its hornless head. The animal was subdued by W. G. Hare of Hillsboro, armed with a crowbar, after it had succeeded in fracturing two of Goodin's ribs.

Miss's Opal Hyde and Katherine Krafic, former teachers in the public schools here, were visiting Mrs. Frank Fleck in this city over Sunday. Miss Hyde will teach in Gresham, Ore., the coming year, and Miss Krafic goes to Ogden, Utah, where she has a position in the public schools. Miss Elsie Lathrop and Miss Nan Miller will also not return here, Miss Lathrop going to the Baker, Ore., schools and Miss Miller to the Redmond, Montana, schools.

Tractor Demonstration.

Quite a number of farmers and others interested in the traction question saw the Staudé Mak-a-Tractor attachment for Ford cars pull two plows on the P. U. campus last Friday afternoon. While the soil was very dry for plowing, the Staudé pulled the two plows with ease. The Stout Auto company is local agent for this attachment, as well as for the Universal Tractor, made by the Moline Plow Works.

While on a fishing trip to Skookum Lake, near Newberg, Saturday, Ed and Albert Ahlgren of this city and Irving Bailey of Thatcher ran across a steer which had fallen into an abandoned well. After working until 3 o'clock Sunday morning, the boys released the animal, which was almost dead from starvation.

SUMMONS

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for Washington County. Roy Hesseltine, and Dora M. Hesseltine, plaintiffs, vs.

B. R. Crafts, and Jane Doe, (first name unknown) Crafts, his wife, F. B. Crafts, and Jane Doe (first name unknown) Crafts, his wife, and John Swartz and Elsie Swartz, his wife, defendants.

To B. R. Crafts, and Jane Doe (first name unknown) Crafts, his wife, F. B. Crafts, and Jane Doe (first name unknown) Crafts, his wife, John Swartz and Elsie Swartz, his wife, the above-named defendants:

IN THE NAME OF THE STATE OF OREGON:

You are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled court and suit on or before the last day of the time prescribed in the order for publication of this summons, to-wit: On or before the expiration of six weeks from and after the date of the first publication of this summons, viz: the 6th day of September, 1917, and if you fail so to appear and answer the plaintiff, the plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief prayed for in his said complaint, to-wit: That the plaintiffs have judgment against the defendants, and each of them, for the sum of $1500.00, with interest thereon at the rate of eight per cent per annum from the 8th day of May, 1916, and for attorney's fees in the sum of $100.00 and for his costs and expenses incurred in this suit:

That the mortgage described in the plaintiffs' complaint herein executed by B. R. Crafts, F. B. Crafts, John Swartz and Elsie Swartz to A. H. Wolfard, and by said A. H. Wolfard assigned to these plaintiffs, conveying all of the southwest quarter and the west half of the northeast quarter, both in section 9, township 1, south of range 4, west of the Willamette Meridian and containing 240 acres, according to the government survey, in Washington County, Oregon, as security to their said note of even date therewith for the sum of $1500.00, with interest at 8 per cent per annum, be foreclosed and said real property sold in the manner prescribed by law to satisfy said judgment, attorney's fees and costs, and the proceeds of said sale be applied to the payment of the sums found due plaintiffs, and the costs and disbursements of said sale and of this suit.

That the defendants, and all persons claiming by, through and under them or any of them be forever debarred and precluded from any interest or title in or to said premises, and for such other and further relief as may seem just and equitable to the court.

This summons is served upon you by publication by order of the Honorable George R. Bagley, Judge of the above entitled Court, which order was made and entered at Hillsboro, Oregon, on the fifth day of September, 1917.
