The formal opening of Bernard's Book Store last Saturday took on the nature of a social function, with a music recital thrown in for good measure.

Between 4 and 6 o'clock there was a program, including violin and piano duet by Misses Harriet and Frances Benjamin; Mrs. Jennings sang, with her sister, Mrs. E. E. Williams, accompanying on the piano; Mrs. Hazel Carmack and Miss Faye Templeton also rendered piano music.

At 8 p. m. there was another program, with solos by Mrs. Jennings, accompanied by Mrs. Williams; one by Hazelteen Stockman, with Mrs. A. E. Gardner accompanying. Miss Hoffman also played several piano selections.

All comers were treated to punch and cookies and a good-sized audience listened to both programs. Courteous young ladies made visitors comfortable.

WEDDING BELLS

A Pretty Church Wedding

In the Congregational church on Thursday afternoon at three o'clock, in the midst of artistic arrangements of maiden hair fern and vine maple, Liola Mary House and William Henry Halford were united in marriage. After the beautiful rendition of the appropriate song, "Because," by Mrs. Leah Slusser Hathaway of Portland, the bridal party entered, to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March. The ushers, in gowns of yellow and white, were Mary Heidel, of Hillsboro, Beulah Ireland and Maude Bundy of Forest Grove and Helen Chalmers of Portland, and were followed by Miss Carrie Becken of Portland, who acted as maid of honor and carried a bouquet of white roses and sweet peas. The bride entered upon the arm of her mother and was beautifully gowned in white crepe de chine and veil. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses and white sweet peas.

Miss Frances Clapp of Washougal, Wash., played softly during the entire impressive ring ceremony, which was performed by Rev. A. B. Patten. The bride's mother gave her away and placed her hand in that of the groom.

After the ceremony the party repaired to the beautifully decorated lecture room of the church, where a reception was held, at the close of which the bride threw her bouquet from the balcony into a group of merry girls. Miss Frances Clapp was the fortunate victor. The names of the many guests were signed into the wedding book and Mr. and Mrs. Halford departed immediately for Seattle, where they will spend several weeks before going to Coalinga, Calif., to make their home.

The bride is a graduate of Pacific University Conservatory of Music and for a number of years has taught music in various parts of this county, and has many friends wherever she went. She was at one time president of the Washington County Christian Endeavor Union and both county, state and local work felt the benefit of her efficient, consecrated work.

The groom is associated with the oil industry of Coalinga, and for some time has made his home in that town.

Jackson-Newton

George H. Jackson and Miss Leata Newton, two of the most popular of Forest Grove's young people, were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents at 10:30 yesterday forenoon, Rev. R. L. Putnam of the Christian church officiating. The ring ceremony was used and Miss Marcella Richards played Lohengren's "Bridal Chorus." Miss Iva Conger was bridesmaid and Ray Jackson was best man. The bride was charming in white and carried a bouquet of white cactus dahlias, while the groom was attired in black.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Newton and is a charming young woman, endowed with beauty, grace and intelligence to a marked degree.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Jackson of this city and is an honest and industrious young man, employed as pharmacist and clerk at the Littler pharmacy.

Mr. and Mrs. Jackson received many beautiful gifts from their admiring friends. After a short wedding trip they will make their home in this city.

Sohler-Bernards

At 9 o'clock yesterday morning Willamina Frances Bernards, daughter of Mrs. Frances Bernards of Roy, was united in marriage with Edward W. Sohler of Banks, the marriage being performed at the Verboort church by Rev. Father L. A. LeMiller of Salem, Rev. Father VanClarenbeck singing the nuptial mass.

After a short honeymoon vacation at Gearhart, Mr. and Mrs. Sohler will begin housekeeping at Banks.

Larsung-Wilkes

At the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Wilkes of Dilley, their daughter, Faye, was united in marriage at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon to Mr. John Larsung of Hillsboro, Rev. Comstock officiating. Lester Hughes sang a solo and the wedding was followed by a big dinner. Mr. and Mrs. Larsung will reside at Hillsboro.

Moon-Smalley

Dora Smalley, daughter of Mrs. Henry Smalley of Spring Hill farm, was married at high noon yesterday to Mr. Samuel Moon, jr., of Centerville.

Public Schools

Start Monday

School begins Monday. For the past two or three weeks the janitors have been engaged in putting the buildings in shape for the long session of school soon to begin. School supplies have been purchased and school books are to be found on the shelves of VanKoughnet & Reder's and the Bookstore. Many students from the surrounding country have indicated their intention of starting to school Monday and everything is in readiness for regular work—except that the teaching corps is not complete as we go to press today. Superintendent Inlow, along with other schoolmen of the state, has been busily engaged of late in hunting for teachers in a field where a great scarcity prevails. War conditions and the higher compensation received in other callings have taken many teachers from their profession and those that remain go to positions where the salary is high. Thus within recent weeks three teachers have gone from the Forest Grove schools to better paying places and difficulty has been experienced in finding competent instructors for the vacancies thus created. At this time all places but one have been filled and a teacher will be secured for that by Monday.

Teachers and grades have been assigned to the grade building as follows: Central School, G. E. Richards, 8B, 8A; Miss Anne Bowman, 7B, 7A; Alma Rice, 5B, 6B; Alice Arnold, 4B, 4A; Katherine Gentle, 3B, 3A; Katherine Smith, 2B, 2A; Floy Norton, 1B, 1A. Lincoln School, Amy Pechin, 6B, 6A; 5B, 5A, not supplied; Florence Enschede, 3B, 4B; Grace Dawson, 1B, 2B, 2A.

Pupils should attend the nearest building where their grade or division is found. Where any division has been omitted from a building, it is because either there are not enough children belonging to that division and living adjacent to the building to form a class or that the number of classes must be limited in the interest of effectual instruction.

Mrs. Sam Marshall and two sons returned last week from an extended visit in Southern Oregon.

There will be an Endeavor Rally at the Christian church this evening at 7:30, to which all are invited. Miss Edna Whipple, president of the Oregon Christian Endeavor Union, will deliver the address. At the 6 o'clock hour Miss Whipple will meet with the Endeavor workers comprising the cabinets of the Christian and Congregational societies, in the church parlors.

Tuesday was the anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Hill and they celebrated the event by asking in two couples of their friends for six o'clock dinner, the lucky friends being Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Bernard and Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Benfer.

Plans Complete for

I. O. O. F. Picnic

Accompanied by several other members of Montezuma lodge, Geo. J. Limber and Glenn Payne, who are on the committee to make next Saturday's I. O. O. F. and Rebekah picnic a success, were in the city Monday night to hear the address of Grand Conductor Johnson. They reported to the local Odd Fellows that, in case there was rain Saturday, the picnic would be held just the same, but it would be held in one of the large auditoriums of the city, instead of the city park. Whether it rains or not, the cafeteria feature will be available; in sunshine, at the park, in rain at the Christian church. Those who care to do so are invited to bring their lunches, but all can rest assured of being fed. The cafeteria plan was invoked because it gives people a chance to select their foods according to the amounts they desire to pay.

Remember This

The word "Pleasure" as applied to a passenger automobile has always been a misnomer. The word is meaningless. It is not correct. The word "passenger" is much better and proper, and it is the one to use.

The automobile used on the farm is not used for pleasure purposes. The automobile used to save the life of a patient is not used for pleasure purposes. The passenger car used on any business errand is not used for pleasure purposes. And so on indefinitely. Let us wipe out the word "Pleasure" as applied to an automobile, and apply instead the other word, "Passenger," which differentiates between the car which carries human beings and the one which carries merchandise. Only thus will the true character of each type of vehicle be made clear, and the broader field of the passenger car maintained.

The Chevrolet, four-ninety model, is the cheapest equipped car in the world. Wiles and Sohler, distributors for Washington and Columbia counties.
