Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Shearer returned Monday evening from taking their daughter, Mrs. Carrie Wood, and two children to their home at Eugene.

Attorney L. M. Graham left Monday via Saxon, for Myrtle Creek, in Douglas county, to look after same business for Mrs. McGinn and daughter of Denver, who accompanied him.

Miss Bertha Kirkwood, formerly a resident of this city, who has been in Missoula, Mont., the past few months, writes friends in this city that she is teaching school near Culbertson, in the extreme northeast part of Montana.

W. C. T. U.

At the annual meeting of the W. C. T. U. after the usual reports, the following officers were re-elected: President, Mrs. Louise Phillips; Vice President-at-large, Mrs. K. B. Penfield; Secretary, Mrs. Lucy Walker; Treasurer, Mrs. Blanche Richards

Mrs. Richards and Mrs. Reeher were chosen delegates to the state convention at Albany.

A special county meeting was called to meet with Mrs. Marsilliot on Friday, Sept. 14th, at 3 p. m., to elect officers.

K. B. PENFIELD.

I. O. O. F. Reception Was Very Enjoyable

The reception tendered Dr. Johnson of Portland, grand conductor of Oregon Odd Fellows, at I. O. O. F. hall Monday night was a very enjoyable affair and was fairly-well attended.

The three linkers had as guests the local Rebekahs, as well as men and women Odd Fellows from other county lodges—Hillsboro, Gaston and Tigard.

Dr. Johnson is a polished speaker and knows the history of Odd Fellowship from its beginning (in England) down to the beginning of September, 1917. He gave a very entertaining and instructive address, which, no doubt, gave the non members present a better opinion of the order's many excellent points.

Another enjoyable feature of the evening's program was the excellent music furnished S. A. Walker (violin), Chas. L. Walker (xylophone) and Mrs. Lizzie Wirtz (piano.) These musicians certainly made a hit with local members and visitors.

Mrs. John Templeton and Miss Jeanette Little helped wonderfully in entertaining the crowd by very appropriate recitations and Mrs. Sylvia Bernard told a story on a certain lodge of Odd Fellows that should prove a warning to local members. W. K. Curtis presided during the program.

After the program everybody had their fill of watermelons and muskmellons, served by Messrs. Hill, Morgan, McGill and other volunteers.

Attention Comrades!

The semi-annual meeting of the Washington County Veterans' Association will be held Oct. 4th at the court house in Hillsboro. Picnic dinner and a general good time is promised.

By order of the President.

No other farm wagon gives you the service you get out of the Winona, with the iron-clad hubs. See this wagon at Gordon's hardware store.
