Miss Alice Ralston, who is training in the Good Samaritan hospital in Portland, spent Sunday in Forest Grove.

Miss Martha Allen left Sunday for Oglesby's place, near Banks, where she will stay this winter and teach the Fairview school.

Joseph and Mamie Loomis left Friday and Frank Burlingham left Sunday for Seattle, where they will attend U. of W. this winter.

Julian Patten, son of Rev. and Mrs. Patten, visited here over Sunday. He left Portland the first of the week for Australia and will return in about six months.

Dr. and Mrs. H. R. Kauffman and daughter, Clara, motored to American Lake Sunday where they will visit for a few days with the doctor's brother, Wm. Kauffman.

Nelson Johnson, a member of Troop R. 20th cavalry, stationed at Fort Riley, Kas., arrived Monday evening for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Johnson of Spring Hill.

Dan Healy of Portland spent Sunday with Bud Ives in this city.

Gordon's hardware store will be closed Friday from 10 a. m. to 2 p. m.

M. T. Sherrett returned Monday from a business visit in Southern Oregon.

Mrs. Ella Leipold and Miss Opal Joy of Portland visited last week with the Langleys in this city.

The regular monthly meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held with Mrs. Penfield on Friday, Oct. 5th, at 2:30 p. m. K. B. Penfield.

Mr. and Mrs. George Myers and son, Stanley, of Corvallis visited at the L. C. Soule home Tuesday, enroute to Oregon City.

You'll find all the best makes of heating stoves, andirons and fire place sets at the Gordon Hardware Store. Come and see.

The Goff hardware store will be closed from 10 a. m. to 2 p. m. tomorrow (Friday) on account of the school parade and county fair.

C. A. Brodersen has moved his residence south of town to a better site and is remodeling the house to a considerable extent.

Miss Hazel Stockman and Henry Fogle have been added to the Schultz force of clerks. Roy Mayea succeeds Mr. Fogle at the Anderson store.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kirkwood arrived Monday evening from Fort Leavenworth, Kas., where Albert is training with the engineers. They will remain a week or more, visiting friends.

When Frank Ramsey's barn burned last week, Ed Naylor, whose house is but a few feet from the barn in question, rushed into his house and rescued his most cherished possessions—his violin and shotgun.

Mr. and Mrs. William Folger and son of Spokane, who visited the Ives family several days last week, left Thursday for their home, taking Mrs. Ives and son, Kenneth, as far as Portland with them. Mrs. Folger is a sister to Mr. Ives.

The Freshman reception, which was held Friday night at the high school, was a great success. A short program was rendered very well and after this games were played. Orange sherbet and wafers were served after a grand march. It was, on the whole, the most successful ever offered in Forest Grove high school.

When you come to the fair, be sure to visit the Book Store in its new quarters.

Bargains in ladies' and gents' umbrellas, at $1.00 each: Van-Koughnet & Reder. 38

Nobby new hats for men and boys just arrived at John Anderson's. You must see them to know how good they are.

J. M. Durham claims that off of 148 hens he cleared a profit of $302.00 in ten months of this year, better than $2 per hen.

Robert Eastwood, who is working as a carpenter at Camp Lewis, American Lake, visited his family in this city Saturday.

Joe A. Wiles would like to write your insurance. Will give you service that will be to your advantage. Upstairs in Anderson block, room 2. 52

You can get the Portland Oregonian six days a week, by mail, and the Forest Grove Express, for only $6.00 per year, if paid in advance. For Oregonian seven days a week, add $2.00.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Giguere and son and daughter expect to leave next Saturday for California to reside. J. E. Deeks has been engaged as meat cutter at the Pacific Market, in place of Mr. Giguere.

Members of Holbrook lodge, A. F. & A. M. to the number of forty, including the degree team, went to North Yamhill Saturday night, in autos, and conferred the third degree on a candidate. After the degree work, there was a banquet and smoker, which was attended by Masons from many parts of the valley.

At a called meeting of the Rifle club, held in the offices of Hollis & Graham Tuesday evening, Messrs. Mertz, VanAntwerp and Scott were appointed a committee to procure targets and rifles for practice during the coming winter. The committee will report at a meeting to be held at Verts hall next Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Stevens returned Saturday from their outing at the Tillamook beaches. Mr. Stevens doesn't think there is any doubt but young Viers and Mrs. Graham were drowned at Garibaldi early in September, as Viers was a greenhorn with the oars and the last seen of them he appeared to have lost control of his boat, which was picked up next day eight miles from the starting point.
