

Supplement to Forest Grove Express

Vol 2

Forest Grove, Ore., Thursday, Oct. 11, 1917.

No. 40

NOTES AND PERSONALS

Mrs. C. L. VanKoughnet and daughter, Alma, visited friends in Portland over Sunday.

Mrs. B. Britton of Boring, Ore., was looking after business matter in Forest Grove Friday.

George G. Hancock, real estate, farm loans and fire insurance, new Anderson block. 50

Orders taken for good, dry second-growth fir wood, for immediate delivery. Goff Bros 35-tf

Miss Leone Smith of Fern Hill left Monday for Corvallis, where she begins her senior year at O. A. C.

Littler's Pharmacy has just received a big shipment of Hygenic Tooth Paste; the best made; try it.

Mrs. Anna Hogue and Mrs. Ruth left Saturday for Monrovia, Calif., where they will spend the winter.

A son was born at the Forest Grove hospital Saturday to Mr. and Mrs. George Ke sler of Cedar Canyon

Miss Mable Hustage of Tigard was in this city Friday having dental work done and attending the fair.

You'll find all the best makes of heating stoves, andirons and fire-place sets at the Gordon Hardware Store. Come and see.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Giguere, son and daughter departed Saturday for Woodland, Calif., where they expect to make their home on a farm.

Joe A. Wiles would like to write your insurance. Will give you service that will be to your advantage. Upstairs in Anderson block, room 2. 52

The funeral of Miss Estelle Goodin, who was so seriously injured in an auto accident at Hillsboro last week that she died Wednesday, was held Saturday.

You can get the Portland Oregonian six days a week, by mail, and the Forest Grove Express, for only $6.00 per year, if paid in advance. For Oregonian seven days a week, add $2.00.

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Roe and son, Bruce, and Mrs. Bert Ross flivvered over to Canby Sunday and brought back with them Mrs. L. C. Misz, who has been visiting her parents at Canby for the past six weeks.

Claude Smith had business in Portland Saturday.

Money to loan—Valley Realty Co., Forest Grove, Oregon. 19-tf

Mrs. David Sparks is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Casper Becker, at Woodburn, the father being quite ill.

Nobby new hats for men and boys just arrived at John Anderson's. You must see them to know how good they are.

Ed Sayres, city electrician, expects his mother, Mrs. Alice E. Sayres, to arrive today from Dayton, Wash., for a six weeks' visit.

C. J. Roberts, who came to Forest Grove a month ago from Kansas and joined Walter Roswurm in the purchase of the Pacific Market, received an offer from an oil company to come to California at a tempting salary and last week disposed of his interest in the market to Mr. Roswurm and, with his wife and three children, left Monday for Coalinga.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bunting Saturday moved over from Woodburn and have taken possession of the Griffith property, on A street, where Mrs. Bunting will conduct a boarding house while her husband assists their son in looking after a farm in Patton Valley. The Buntings conducted a boarding house at Woodburn and, because of the excellent table they set, always had their house full.

C. C. Calkins of the O. A. C., who has been investigating the prevalence of smut in the grain of Washington county for the past week, set himself up a dry goods box in the agricultural tent at the fair Friday and did considerable missionary work among the farmers. He found considerable smut in the grain he investigated, but not nearly so much as there would have been had the season been a wet one.

Harold Bell Wright, whose great story, "The Eyes of the World," is to be seen here in the form of Clune's beautiful ten-reel cinema production, is the most popular author in America. This book has had a sale of over one million copies. The average sale of successful books is about 15,000 copies; the average of "best sellers" about 60,000; Wright's eight novels have averaged about 900,000 and have totalled nearly 8,000,000. At Star Theatre next Monday, 2:15 and 8:15 p. m.

Civil War Veterans Denounce Disloyalty

At a meeting of James B. Mathews post, Department of Oregon, G. A. R., held in this city Oct. 3d, the following resolutions were adopted:

"Whereas, The unsettled condition in labor industries is producing disloyalty through the United States, stagnation in all shipyards and is anarchic in its fundamental organization to the extent that it will eventually paralyze all industries in the United States unless suppressed, and

Whereas, The loyal and patriotic red-blooded veterans of 1861 to 1917, who stand shoulder to shoulder in every endeavor and who cherish every desire to promote the best interests of the government of the United States in the prosecution of the war for liberty and democracy,

Resolved, That we respectfully ask the thorough eradication of all disloyalty wherever found and, to promote our industries to their fullest extent, we ask that all disloyalists be interned during the continuance of the war; and be it further

Resolved, That we stand for justice, if it takes the last dollar, the last man, the last heart beat."

Sunday's Oregonian carried a picture of Willis I. Buxton of Moro, Sherman county, son of Phil Buxton and grandson of H. T. Buxton of this city, who has made such excellent progress in electrical engineering that the government has sent him to Harvard for a special course. He enlisted in May, this year, and was shortly afterward sent to Goat Island, where he attracted attention by his proficiency in radio work.

J. A. Watrous and son Fred departed last Thursday for the former's old home, Wellsboro, Pa. Mr. Watrous, senior, has not been in the best of health recently and Fred thought it best to accompany his father.

J. N. Hoffman is one of the first Main street property owners to comply with the councilmanic order to remove steps that project onto the sidewalk, having taken this move in regard to the steps leading into the Express office.

Job printing—phone 821.