

CONDENSED NEWS NOTES

Ethel Ward of Gaston was a Grove visitor Monday.

James Heesacker of Verboort visited in Forest Grove Monday.

Good hardwood kegs and barrels for sale at the Pacific Market.

Mrs. Prickett of Hillsboro visited friends in Forest Grove Saturday.

Miss Vera Shiffer, who is teaching at Middleton, was home for the week-end.

For smut on wheat use Blue Stone, 20c per lb.; 10 lbs., $1.70. Littler's Pharmacy.

The members of the Burlingham family autoed to Vancouver Sunday afternoon.

Aaron Keene and his sister, Arly Keene, visited friends in Hillsboro Sunday.

For Rent—Furnished or unfurnished house, good location. Hollis & Graham. 37-3t

Donald Parsons of Gales Creek visited friends in Forest Grove and Hillsboro Saturday.

Arlene Harrison, who is working in Portland, visited over Sunday at her home in Forest Grove.

Mrs. Beatty (formerly Jessie Reynolds) of Portland visited friends in Forest Grove Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Whitehouse and daughters, Jewel and Elizabeth, motored to Portland Saturday.

Miss Anna Taylor attended the C. E. Institute for Washington county at Reedville Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Martha Allen, who is teaching at the Oglesby school, spent the week-end in Forest Grove.

The Chas. Powell family of Portland motored out to Forest Grove Sunday and visited at the M. S. Allen home.

Nobby new hats for men and boys just arrived at John Anderson's. You must see them to know how good they are.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Price and small son of Portland visited with Mrs. Price's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Rasmusen, Sunday.

Miss Helen McDonald, teacher of Domestic Science at Forest Grove high school, spent the week-end at her home in Corvallis.

Clayton Lasham, who has been working in Dupont, Wash., visited with his mother and sister in this city for a few days last week.

Geo. Rasmusen has accepted a position as salesman for the Standard Oil company and will be stationed in either Seattle or Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Buxton are now comfortably located in the old David Smith place, north of the P. U. campus, but the place is no longer old, Uncle Jake having made it over.

Mrs. W. D. Littler, J. B. Littler, wife and son, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Underhill and Mrs. E. E. Upmeyer, all of Salem, visited at the C. A. Littler home in this city Sunday, having come down by auto.

A reception was tendered to the new students of the high school and college by the Christian Endeavor societies of the Congregational and Christian churches and the Epworth League of the Methodist church Friday evening. The young people met first at the Congregational church, where games were played and then all departed for the Methodist church where "stunts" were put on. They then went to the Christian church where "maplenut" ice cream and wafers were served. All departed declaring they had an excellent time.

Cartoon by Seed, Courtesy of Oregon Journal

GET BEHIND THE GOVERNMENT

and do it now in order to shorten this war. We of America have the resources; that is an undoubted fact. But we need to marshal those resources quickly, we must act with characteristic American strength, pep and determination.

It is your privilege to help YOURSELF, as well as the GOVERNMENT, by buying liberally of the Second LIBERTY LOAN the Best Investment on Earth. It is desired that all Subscriptions be in by Oct. 27th.

In this, as in the previous loan, buyers of moderate and small means are favored by the government.

We will be glad to have you consult us respecting the many interesting details regarding the Loan and to serve you in this, as in any other banking service, faithfully and well.

First National Bank

A Strong Bank
in a Good Town.

Forest Grove, Ore.

NOTES AND PERSONALS

We pay cash for veal, hides, poultry and eggs. Pacific Market.

The Vancouver and Forest Grove football teams will come together on P. U. field at 2:30 tomorrow afternoon.

Joe Wiles, insurance agent and auto dealer, has moved his office to the Chevrolet salesrooms, north of the Tucker garage.

F. N. Bellinger, living on the Baseline road, east of town, was kicked by a flivver one day last week and suffered a broken arm.

Claude Smith, Art Caples and H. F. Wilson spent Monday hunting and fishing on the Wilson river, but if they got anything to eat they failed to show it.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Goff are now at home in their modern new bungalow, having slept their first sleep under the new roof Monday night. They have a very nice home, in an excellent neighborhood.

Mrs. H. G. Whitney and children visited friends in Portland Friday and on Saturday Mrs. Whitney and her mother, Mrs. M. I. Conwell, visited relatives at Washougal, the Whitneys returning to this city Sunday evening.

The new Ford delivery car recently purchased by Caples & Co. from the Stout Auto company arrived in the city Monday and is being used to deliver merchandise from the Caples and King stores and the Pacific Market, Caples furnishing the car, King the gas and the Pacific Market the driver.

Carmel Good returned Saturday night from his trip to Missouri, Arkansas and New Mexico. Carmel says business is booming in the oil fields of Oklahoma, with wages high and money quite plentiful. His father stopped off in Montana for a visit with relatives and did not get home until Tuesday.

Henry Atlee, Deputy Consul for Washington county for the Modern Woodmen, is doing work in and around this city this week and will call on eligibles in Forest Grove next Saturday. The M. W. A. offers very attractive insurance rates to young men. If you are interested, you may leave word at the Express office and Mr. Atlee will call on you.

Hikers Visit Gales Peak

Sunday morning's 9:30 Oregon Electric brought from Portland 27 members of the Portland Athletic Association, bound for a hike to Gales Peak. The party was met at the depot by 12 Forest Grove men and women, representing the Commercial club, who piloted the visitors to the David's hill vineyards, where they filled up on grapes at the Brokaw vineyard and purchased a quantity of grapes for shipment to Portland. Dinner was eaten near the Watts school house, after which the party started for Gales Peak, the more hardy of the hikers going to Lookout Point and others waiting for them at the base of the Peak. A fine view of Tualatin Plains was obtained from Lookout Point and the visitors considered the view worth the trip. The Portland hikers were in charge of "Billy" Kreinert and John A. Lee, the latter a former resident of this county and a graduate of Pacific University.

The local hikers were Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Rockwood, Misses Manche Langley, Maude Graham, Amy Pechin and Fay Templeton and Messrs. W. H. Hollis, Vernon Burlingham, Earl Fleischmann, A. A. Kirkwood, A. J. Demorest and W. C. Benfer.