

Supplement to Forest Grove Express

Vol 2

Forest Grove, Ore., Thursday, Nov. 8, 1917.

No. 44

1—American troops in France unloading machine guns, which they are now manning in the first line trenches; the mules are used to haul the guns to the front. 2—Col. Dan T. Moore of the field artillery who, when an aide to President Roosevelt, blinded the colonel in one eye in a boxing match. 3—Count George von Hertling, Bavarian premier, who has been appointed German imperial chancellor. 4—Night photograph of an Australian siege battery in operation.

CONDENSED NEWS NOTES

Mrs. A. A. Hall is convalescing from an attack of the grip.

Mrs. Otlice Shearer is slightly improved, but is still very sick.

Mrs. Mary Porter is confined to her home with rheumatism.

Arthur Shearer is again on duty at his store, after being confined to his home with trouble with his jaw, after having had some wisdom teeth pulled.

A regular meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held with Miss Jennie Armstrong, Friday, Nov. 9th, at 2:30 p. m. Topical program; report of annual state convention. K. B. Penfield.

W. J. R. Beach of this city last Saturday went to Portland and attended the funeral of A. E. Borthwick, late department commander of Oregon, G. A. R. Deceased served one enlistment in the fourth New York artillery and another in the second New York cavalry and was three times wounded. He was 72 years of age and leaves a wife and one son. Services were by the G. A. R. and the remains were interred in the G. A. R. cemetery.

Mrs. W. W. Goff, Mrs. Hinman and Mrs. Caples have an attractive window full of Red Cross supplies at the Goff hardware store.

Cornelius T. Richardson, C. D. Miller, Loren Watkins and Johnny Wirtz departed by team Tuesday morning for the Wilson river, to lay in their winter's supply of salmon.

Sanford L. Wilcox, aged 27 years, passed away at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Wilcox, in Scoggin's Valley last Sunday, tuberculosis being the cause of dissolution. Funeral services were held in the Forest Vale church at 10:30 a. m. Tuesday, Rev. J. R. Welch and Rev. Hatch officiating. Interment was in the Hill cemetery.

Rev. Ralph L. Putnam, Wilbur Louis Thomas, Walter S. Wills and Everett E. Burnworth are this city's contribution to a quota of twenty-four registered men to be called to Hillsboro tomorrow for examination for military duty. Four or five of the men called will be selected to fill places made vacant by rejections in Washington county's quota.

Woman's Club

The regular business meeting of the Woman's club will be held at Langley hall next Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The executive board will meet at 2:30. A. G. Whitehouse, Secretary.

Cook With Coal

The Forest Grove Planing Mill has laid in a supply of good fuel coal and is prepared to supply consumers at a reasonable price. Order by telephone No. 0232.

You can get the Portland Oregonian six days a week, by mail, and the Forest Grove Express, for only $6.00 per year, if paid in advance. For Oregonian seven days a week, add $2.00.

William Peterson of Roseburg visited at the J. S. Buxton home Tuesday.

Budget Meeting

There will be a meeting of the legal voters of school district No. 15 at the Central building, Forest Grove, on Saturday, Nov. 17, at 2 p. m., to vote on the question of levying a district tax.

Dr. Lowe, Friday.