A new line of fine box stationery just placed on display at Littler's Pharmacy.

The school census has been completed and there are 720 children of school age, as against 766 a year ago.

F. J. Greer, who visited several days in this city with his brother, W. H. Greer, left Tuesday for Ekiah, Calif.

President Graham of the Commercial club informs the Express that the Washington county exhibit at the Land Products Show won an even $200 in premiums.

Word comes from Gales Creek that a young buck deer ran into a fence near the school house one day last week and broke his neck. The teacher and scholars buried the carcass.

The members of the Rifle Club held a practice shoot at Verts hall Tuesday evening and showed improvement in their shooting. A. E. Scott set a new record for the club.

Rev. R. L. Putnam was called to Stayton, his old home, Monday to preach the funeral sermon for Mathias Goodle, a member of the Christian church and close personal friend of Rev. Putnam.

W. D. Clark of Salem, son-in-law to John E. Bailey of this city, has been commissioned captain of the 23d regiment of highway engineers and is at present engaged in recruiting work at Seattle.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Beck were in the city Tuesday and left with the Express ten potatoes that make nearly a peck. They are of the Gold Coin variety and went at the rate of 200 sacks to the acre. See them in the Express window.

Two dozen members of the S. O. S. Swimming club enjoyed a feast of sports at the P. U. gym Tuesday evening. The water was just right and everybody seemed inclined to have a good time. The next swim will be this evening, at 7:30 o'clock. Members may bring a guest on payment of 25c, if there is a vacancy.

Mrs. S. G. Hughes was calling on friends in Portland Saturday.

W. H. Hay returned Tuesday from a three weeks' visit at Long Beach, Wash.

J. A. Watrous is reported quite feeble at the home of his son, in the west part of town.

Andrew Dickson of Portland visited his mother, Mrs. Mary A. Dickson, several days this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Ekerson and Mr. and Mrs. Avon Jesse of Canby visited the W. F. Stockman family Sunday.

Books, fiction, gift and art, appropriate for Xmas gifts at the Book Store. A fine assortment; come before it is broken. 45

Mrs. A. B. Todd and son, A. B. Junior, left yesterday, with their daughter and sister, Mrs. M. E. Turner, for a visit at the latter's home at Gladstone.

Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Morgan went to Gladstone yesterday to attend the golden wedding celebration of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Taber, former Iowa neighbors of the Morgans.

Walter Watkins, who recently enlisted in the navy as a fireman, writes from Goat Island that he is in the detention camp, being immunized against typhoid and other ailments.

The members of the Boys' club of the Congregational church, recently organized by Rev. M. J. Feñenga, are busy constructing themselves a home in the basement of the church.

Howard Reeher, a member of the coast artillery, with headquarters at Fort Flagler, near Port Townsend, visited his mother, brothers and sisters in this city over Sunday, leaving for his post Tuesday.

C. T. Richardson, C. D. Miller, Loren Watkins and John Wirtz returned Saturday from their fishing trip to the Wilson river. They had only slight success in fishing, as the water was too low, but enjoyed their outing very much. Roy VanKirk, Harvey Wilson and Albert and Robert Kirkwood returned the same day from their trip to the Nehalem. They caught a few jack salmon at the falls and then went on to Wheeler, where they bought a good supply of Chinooks for their winter's meat.

W. C. T. U. Notes

The state W. C. T. U. convention was reported at the last regular meeting by Mrs. Marsilliott, Mrs. Scott, Mrs. Smith and Miss Jennie Armstrong.

The first observance in Oregon in the public schools, of Frances E. Willard day took place Friday, Oct. 26th, (her birthday.) Committees from the W. C. T. U. visited each school and at the Central and Lincoln schools framed portraits of Miss Willard were presented. At the former Mrs. Reeher and Mrs. Richards made the presentation and at the latter, Mrs. Marsilliott and Mrs. Penfield. At the high school a play was presented under the direction of Miss Anna Taylor, the same being written by Margaret Taylor. A picture of Miss Willard was already in the building. Nine states now observe this day in the public schools. K. B. Penfield.

Uncle Sam Will Help

Archie Bryant has received a letter from Robert L. Ringer, of North Yakima, Wash., assistant in market investigations for the federal government, asking that Mr. Bryant furnish him a list of people in this section who have potatoes to sell. To these people the government will send daily quotations of the price of spuds, so that they may know what to ask for their products.

If you want daily information from Uncle Sam as to the conditions of the spud market, send Mr. Bryant your name on a postal card.

Grangers Are Invited

David M. Dunne, president of the Manufacturers and Land Products Show, being held at Portland until Nov. 24th, has sent an invitation to all grangers and farmers in this vicinity to attend the show on Tuesday, Nov. 20th, which is "Country Life Day." A program interesting to farmers will be given. Reduced rates on the railroads and 10 per cent off on admission tickets for all who attend in crowds. Quite a number of Grangers from this city and Dilley will attend.

Cook With Coal

The Forest Grove Planing Mill has laid in a supply of good fuel coal and is prepared to supply consumers at a reasonable price. Order by telephone No. 0232.
