The U. S. Department of Agriculture reports Oregon's principal crops for 1917 as follows: Wheat, 12,963,000 bushels; oats, 11,088,000 bushels; barley, 5,278,000 bushels; potatoes, 7,700,000 bushels; hay, all kinds, 1,809,000 tons.

The Albers company of Portland has installed some good advertising windows in stores in this city handling its products. Specially good displays are to be seen at the Schultz and Giltner stores, where electrically-driven devices advertise the Albers cereals.

The editor of the Express Tuesday received from Mrs. William G. McAdoo, wife of the secretary of the treasury and chairman of the Woman's Liberty Loan Committee, a card in which the paper is thanked for the great amount of publicity given the second Liberty Loan.

Charley Roe has taken the Washington and Yamhill county agency for the D. & M. Steam Tire Vulcanizer, a very simple little device that repairs auto tires without removing them from the wheel. The contrivance is no larger than a big man's fist, but it does the work as well and as quickly as a machine three times as big, and can be carried about much more easily.

Mr. and Mrs. Webb Hughes Tuesday received a letter from their son, Cecil, who is with the 18th Engineers, "Somewhere in France." Cecil says he and the other Washington county boys are well, but he is disturbed because he is not receiving many letters and has only received one of more than a dozen packages sent him. As Mr. and Mrs. Hughes write him weekly and the children as often, they are at a loss to know what becomes of both the packages and letters and if they do not receive word soon that Cecil has received the missing mail, they will take up the matter with the war department.

Home Economics Council Meeting

Saturday, Nov. 24, 1917, is the date set for the organization of a Woman's County Council in order to promote the scope of activity for women; to increase their usefulness as citizens and in the home; to better conditions of home life; and to assist in the great movement of conservation of the various useful commodities.

The demands made upon women at the present time are so new and different that all must make a special effort to avail themselves of opportunities to learn more effective and economical methods of conducting the households.

So that it may be possible for a greater number of women of the county to be reached, it seems wise to form an advisory committee of influential women from the various communities to discuss and make plans for definite work in the county. All organizations of Granges, Farmer's Unions, Women's Clubs, Civic Clubs, Societies of Equity, Country Clubs, Parent-Teacher Circles, etc., are urged to send a woman representative—permanent or temporary—so that all communities may be equally represented. A good attendance is desired so that the council may be organized and definite plans made for future work. Make an effort to have your community represented.

Remember the date, Saturday, Nov. 24, 2:00 p. m., in the Ped Cross Rooms, Hillsboro, Oregon. EDNA L. MILLS, Emergency Home Dem. Agt.

O. A. C. Notes

Corvallis, Ore., Nov. 20—Agricultural agents of Baker, Wallowa, Benton, Washington, Marion, Clackamas and Douglas met last Friday and Saturday with State Leader Paul V. Maris at the Agricultural College to perfect the working program for the coming year. After the projects for each county had been determined the Experiment Station and Extension specialists outlined the assistance that can be provided from O. A. C. agents of the various counties in order of foregoing list are Henry E. Tweed, Max Hoke, Geo. W. Kable, N. C. Jamison, F. R. Brown, R. J. Werner and J. C. Hurd. All were appointed under the war emergency provision of the Federal laws to speed up agricultural production to help win the war for democracy.

Because more Oregon farmers than ever before are making money especially in scientific and organized farming, Farmers' week and the Winter Short Course at O. A. C. are expected to attract much the biggest attendance in their history. Farmers' and Home-Makers Week will be held Dec. 31 to Jan. 5, and the short course Jan. 7 to Feb. 2. Fully a score of state and local associations will hold their conventions at the college during this time.

How to put run down orchards on their feet, spur prune the trees, control apple scab and codling moth, keep the trees in bearing a long time, and clean up and trim up commercial and family orchards, will be answered at the Pruning School to be held at O. A. C. Dec. 10 to 15. Orchard men attending are asked to bring their old clothes for they will spend every afternoon pruning under expert direction either apple, pear, prune, cherry or walnut trees, as they prefer. Forenoons will be devoted to lectures on the principles of pruning, spraying and cultivation.

Large Prune Trees

can be secured from us for Fall or Spring planting. Large Prune Trees are very scarce this year on account of the late spring and dry summer, therefore to insure getting the best trees money can buy do not fail to write us before buying SMALL trees elsewhere. Buy early and save money.

Helping the Blind

Mrs. Cora Diedericks of Newberg was in the city Tuesday, soliciting financial aid for a magazine put out for the blind of the nation. She finds it hard to raise as much money as is needed, on account of the great drain on the public because of the war, but is cheerful and hopeful that the people blessed with eyesight will not neglect the blind, of whom there are 300 in Oregon and 100,000 in the United States. Only 1 per cent of the blind have the bible, which costs from $20 to $30 on account of the high cost of printing the blind alphabet. The postal department is aiding by making the mails free to all literature for the blind.

Fumigation of Stored Grains, Peas and Beans

Stored grains of all kinds are attacked by numerous insect pests, and just at this time when it is imperative to conserve to the utmost the reserve food supply of the nation, it is especially important to prevent the work of these pests.

Fumigation with carbon bisulphide is the most important treatment of grains, according to F. H. Lathrop, assistant Entomologist. To be effective, the bin must be as nearly tight as it is possible. The carbon bisulphide may be obtained in liquid form from the druggist, and should be applied at the rate of four pounds to every 1000 cubic feet of space to be fumigated. The material should be placed in shallow pans on top of the grain, and the bin immediately closed. The liquid will evaporate, forming a gas heavier than air, which will pass downward through the grain. The bin should be allowed to remain closed for at least twenty-four hours. The effect of the gas varies with the temperature, and at a temperature of 60 degrees F. or less the treatment is ineffective and should not be attempted.

Carbon bisulphide is highly inflammable and lights and flames of all kinds must be kept away from it.

Their treatment is effective for dried fruits as well as for seeds of all kinds. It does not affect the germination of seeds or the food value of the products fumigated.

More detailed information regarding these pests and their control may be obtained from the department of Entomology, Oregon Agricultural College.

SUMMONS

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for Washington County.

B. A. Kliks, plaintiff, vs. W. T. Simmons, George Mather and LaVerna Mather, his wife; Harriet M. Levinger; Sarah Williams; G. L. Lindsley, administrator of the estate of Magnus Block, deceased, defendants.

To Sarah Williams, one of the above named defendants: IN THE NAME OF THE STATE OF OREGON:

You are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit on or before the expiration of six weeks from the first publication of summons herein, which date of first publication is October 18th, 1917, and you are hereby required to answer on or before Friday, November 30th, 1917; and if you fail so to appear or answer, the plaintiff will apply to the above entitled court for the relief demanded in plaintiff's complaint, which relief briefly stated is as follows: For a judgment and decree that plaintiff recover from the defendant, W. T. Simmons, the sum of $1650, with interest from January 26th, 1917, at the rate of eight per cent per annum until paid, the sum of $150, to be allowed as plaintiff's reasonable attorney fees herein, and the costs and disbursements of this suit, and that certain mortgage executed by the defendant W. T. Simmons, to the plaintiff, B. A. Kliks, and which is recorded July 29th, 1915, in Vol. 74, page 298, of the records of Mortgages of Washington County, Oregon, and being a mortgage on the following described real premises, to-wit: All of Tract Four, and Tract Nine, and the East half of Tract Three of Chealem Mountain Orchards, as shown upon the duly recorded map or plat thereof, now of record in the office of the recorder of conveyances in Washington County, Oregon, and as particularly described in deed from Paul Reimers and wife to Magnus Block, and wife, recorded in Vol. 91 page 36, records of deeds of said Washington County, Oregon, together with the tenements, hereditaments, and appurtenances thereunto belonging or in anywise appertaining, be foreclosed and said mortgage be declared the first lien upon said real property; and that such decree, order said real premises and the whole thereof sold in the manner prescribed by law and that all the right, title, interest, estate, and demand which any of the defendants may have in or to said premises or any part thereof, be forever barred and foreclosed; that such decree provide that the real premises be sold in order to satisfy the demands of the plaintiff as the court may find due and as above prayed for; that if said premises do not sell for a sum sufficient to pay the demand of the plaintiff then that plaintiff have a deficiency judgment against the defendant, W. T. Simmons, for such deficiency; that any person party to this suit or otherwise may become the purchaser of said premises at such sale and that such purchaser be let into the immediate possession of such premises by the sheriff of Washington County, Oregon, and for such other and further relief as to the court may seem meet and proper in the premises.

This summons is published by virtue of an order bearing date October 15, 1917, made by the above-entitled court and the Hon. G. R. Bagley, judge thereof, and which order directed that this summons be published once a week for six successive and consecutive weeks in the Forest Grove Express, a newspaper of general circulation, printed and published at Forest Grove, Oregon.

Date of first publication, October 18th, 1917. Date of last publication, Nov. 22nd, 1917.
