

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Our Cafeteria

The minute the dismissal bell rings at noon there is a grand rush for the cafeteria in the basement. Teachers and students stand in the "bread line" with a tray in one hand, and a knife, fork and spoon in the other. Almost every one has his or her place at the table and it is a great deal like a happy party. The cafeteria furnishes the best of "eats" at cost, to about fifty pupils and teachers at noon. Usually there is soup or some hot dish with a desert and something to drink. The rules of Hoover are observed in the cafeteria, and there are wheatless days, and meatless days, the same as in any well regulated home. The menus never exceed fifteen cents and often run below this price.

Arrangements have been made for physical culture classes to be under the supervision of the high school teachers. The classes are to be held in the Pacific University gymnasium after school on four nights in the week. Miss Harman and Miss McDonald have charge of the girls' classes and Mr. Fleischman of the boys' classes.

Last Friday afternoon a "Made in Oregon" program was held before the student body in the main assembly. Katherine Collier and Celia Bernard sang, and Mural LaFollette gave a talk upon Oregon. Mr. Fleischman read the poem "The Beautiful Willamette" to the accompaniment of colored slides showing some of the beauty spots of Oregon. The assembly was unquestionably the best one which has been held this year, and we hope to have another one soon.

A number of students are spending much of their time in practising for the play "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch," which is to be given by the Drama Club on the twenty-first of December at the Star Theater. The play was dramatized by members of the Drama Club and under the coaching of Mr. Fleischman gives promise of being a huge success.

A spirit of secrecy is evidently stirring among the boys of this high school this week. They stand about in corners and whisper dark secrets, and when any one approaches all conversation stops. It is said they are going to have a "Hard Times Day." Wouldn't it be funny if they lost their courage at the last minute?

Tried Recipes for War Bread

Following are the recipes for making the war breads which were served at the "Conservation" meeting of the Woman's Club, held at Langley hall, Dec. 3d:

By Mrs. E. B. Brookbank

1 1-2 cups corn meal
1-4 cups whole wheat
1-4 cup flour
1 cup sour milk
1 teaspoon soda
1-2 cup molasses (Orleans)
1 cup raisins (more or less)
Steam 1 hour

By Mrs. F. W. Jones

1 cup corn meal
1 cup white or rye flour
1-2 cup molasses
1 1-2 cup sour milk
1 teaspoon soda
A little salt
1 cup raisins (can use more or less)
Steam 2 to 3 hours

By Mrs. B. F. White

2 cups corn meal
2 cups rye flour
2 1-2 cups sour milk
1 teaspoon baking powder (rounding)
2 teaspoons soda
1-3 cup sugar (brown or white)
3 tablespoons molasses
1 teaspoon salt (scant)
Raisins if desired
Sift dry ingredients and stir in the moist ingredients.

Bake with slow fire 1 hour. Makes two ordinary sized loaves.

By Miss Myers

Oat Meal Bread

2 cups sweet milk
1-2 cup water
Scald this and put in 2 Tablespoons brown sugar and 2 Tablespoons fat. (In this case Kaola was used) and 1 teaspoon salt.

Take 1-2 yeast cake and dissolve it in 1-2 cup warm water.

While the liquid is cooling, measure out 2 cups rolled oats and pour over this, boiling water to cover. Let stand long enough to soften the oats a little. When cool enough mix all ingredients together, using enough white flour to stiffen into a dough. Let rise and bake as other yeast breads. This amount of yeast was used for rising over night. More or less may be used depending on time one has for the making of the bread.

Note—The bread made of cornmeal and wheat flour (raised with yeast) which was to be sampled at this meeting, did not get done in time. The recipe and bread made from it will be brought at the next meeting. Also it is hoped to have some bread made from the new ground "rolled oats" or oat flour which is now being placed on the market.
