

Supplement to Forest Grove Express

Vol 2

Forest Grove, Ore., Thursday, Jan. 3, 1918.

No. 52

NOTES AND PERSONALS

Fresh fish for Tuesdays (meatless day) and Fridays. Pacific Market; phone 0301.

Jennette Straub of Portland visited with Waneta Hortrampf in this city Sunday.

George G. Hancock, real estate, farm loans and fire insurance, new Anderson block. 50

Little Margaret Hines, who has been quite ill for several days, is improving nicely at present.

Arthur Jones, who has been working in San Francisco, visited his home in Forest Grove the first of the week.

Miss Lucile Connet, a former Forest Grove girl, visited friends here Sunday, coming out from Portland to do so.

A large stock of set and signet rings in solid gold. At Abbott's there has been no raise of prices on the goods. Look them over.

Misses Florence Littler and Millie Famme, students of O. A. C., who spent their vacation in this city, have returned to Corvallis to resume their work in the college.

Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Allen and Miss Gertrude and Mr. and Mrs. McAllister were out to attend Miss Martha Allen's school entertainment Dec. 21st.

Andrew Dickson of Portland visited his mother in this city New Year's day and his brother, Charley, spent the day in Portland, taking in some of the musical attractions.

Last week's called meeting of the M. E. Aid society was held at the M. S. Allen home, instead of the A. G. Hoffman home, as stated by the Express. At this meeting the ladies presented Mrs. Dunlap with a set of Community silver spoons.

The annual New Year's dance of the Forest Grove fire department was given at the I. O. O. F. building Monday night and proved one of the most successful dances ever given by the department. The attendance was very large and everybody had a good time.

Mrs. Hertzog of McMinnville was in Forest Grove a few hours on Sunday.

Miss Gertrude Allen was a week-end visitor in Portland, returning Monday.

Mrs. Samuel Marshall and mother are visiting Mrs. Marshall's sister in Yamhill.

Miss Florence Webley, employe in one of the large department stores in Portland, was the guest of her parents over Sunday.

Mamie and Joe Loomis, who have been spending their holiday vacation with the home folks, left yesterday for Washington University.

Will Haskell, who is foreman of a foundry in St. Johns, came out Sunday to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Haskell, and sisters.

Miss Vera Schiffer, who has been spending her Christmas vacation here, left for her school at Middleton Monday.

Donald Clodfelter of Moro was here for a brief visit with the S. G. Morgan family, leaving Wednesday for his home.

Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy and daughter, Rose, of Portland spent Sunday and Monday with Mrs. Rose Olmsted and family of this city.

Miss Leone Graham, who has been spending her Christmas vacation at home in this city, returned to her school at Drain Tuesday.

Miss Una Emerson, one of the popular clerks in the Fuqua store, left Tuesday for Sheridan, where she will take charge of Mr. Fuqua's branch store.

There was a nice family reunion at the J. S. Thompson home Tuesday, with all the children and some of the grandchildren gathered around the festal board at the dinner hour. J. M. came from Des Moines, Wash., Elmer came from Shelton, Wash., and Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Hollinger came from Vancouver and William Weitzel and family of this city filled out the quota. J. M. had just sold in Portland several carloads of fine apples from his Wapato, Wash., orchards.

Miss Lucile West is quite ill with pneumonia.

Manager Watrous announces that "The German Retreat at the Battle of [redacted] shown last night, will be repeated this evening at the Star Theater. Prices, 10c and 20c, plus war tax.

R. N. Stanfield of Stanfield, Umatilla county, who has announced that he is a candidate the republican nomination for governor, is to be one of the speakers at the farmers' short course, which opens at Corvallis next Monday.

Cards have been received in this city announcing the wedding, on Christmas, of Omar Moore and Miss Nellie Paulsen, both of Portland, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Paulsen, in Newberg. Mr. Moore is a carpenter and lived in Forest Grove a number of years, and has many friends here. Mrs. Moore is a teacher in the Portland public schools. They will make their home in Portland.

A regular meeting of Gale Grange No. 282, will be held at the I. O. O. F. Hall, Saturday, Jan. 4th. A class of seven will be given the third and fourth degrees, after which the first and second degrees will be conferred on a large class. Social hour at noon. At 1:30 the newly elected officers will be installed and a program follows. In order to get the forenoon work completed by noon. Grange will begin promptly at 10:30. Candidates be present at 11 o'clock. Secretary.

The Brotherhood to Stage Debate

The program committee of the Forest Grove Brotherhood met at the home of its chairman, R. F. Clark, Monday evening and decided to have a lunch and debate for the January meeting, to be held at one of the churches on Jan. 29th. The subject decided on was, "Resolved, That the Farmers' Non-Partisan Program Should Be Adopted in Oregon," with B. J. Simpson and R. L. Putnam upholding the affirmative and L. M. Graham and W. J. McCready arguing against the proposition. Since this question is going to come before the voters very soon, it should draw out every member of the Brotherhood.