NOTES AND PERSONALS

B. H. Laughlin of Boise, Idaho, who built the hotel of his name in this city, was visiting old friends here today.

No. 8 steel range, in good condition, for sale cheap. W. R. Whitney, northwest corner of 4th avenue south and 2nd street.

Miss Ruby Schroll of Halsey, Ore is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. H. Sturgis, in this city. Their brother, G. W. Schroll, a member of the aviation corps, came from Vancouver, Wash., and spent several days here, leaving yesterday for San Antonio, Texas.

Congregational Church

Mr. Patten will preach Sunday morning on "The Foursquare Life," continuing the sermon begun last Sunday.

In the evening he will give a stereopticon lecture on Mexico, our nearest and least understood neighbor.

A. B. PATTEN, Pastor.

Christian Church

Next Lord's Day the pastor will be at Kansas City for the morning service and B. J. Simpson will fill the pulpit here and give a brief talk on church federation which is the talk of the churches now.

Remember the C. E. meeting at 6:30 p. m. Song service and sermon at 7:30. The subject: "Redemption in Christ." Everybody welcome.

R. L. PUTNAM, Minister.

Methodist Church Services

Prof. Hall of Willamette University will preach next Sunday, both morning and evening. All other services as usual.

The Ladies Aid society will meet next Wednesday afternoon in the Red Cross rooms.

Dr. Hawke wishes to announce his return from the East. While there, he was attending the Mayo, Chicago and New York Clinics, specializing in diseases of Women and Children. Phone 893.

Our Leader for Today

Campbell's Tomato Soup

Always good. Always acceptable. Our guarantee goes with every can. And note these items, too:

Have you Lost Your Umbrella?

Call and see; we have found several in the Store.

Eat More Onions!

They are healthful. We give 9 lbs. large ones for 25c and 11 lbs. small ones for 25c.

Uncle Sam

wants us to urge the people to buy Potatoes in sack lots. We sell 'em fast at $1.25 per cwt., or 25 lbs. for 35c — all A No. 1 Spuds.

Special Apple Sale

J. F. Forbis' Yellow Newtown Pippins—Choice, $1.29 a box; fancy, $1.56 per box; Baldwins and Spitzenburgs at same price, while they last.

Use KREAM KRISP, not only for dainty results, but for economy. It will enable you to do away entirely with lard and cut down your butter bill. Kream Krisp, with a little salt, is better than any cooking butter. For pastry, follow directions carefully and remember that you will need from $\frac{1}{4}$ to $\frac{1}{2}$ less of Kream Krisp than if you were using butter. We sell it in bulk also, at 32c a pound.

"War Service in the Home" is the name of a little book we have. Free for the asking.

To accommodate our patrons, we will resume the custom of remaining open Saturday evenings until 9 o'clock.
