

Supplement to Forest Grove Express

Vol 3

Forest Grove, Ore., Thursday, Jan. 17, 1918.

No. 2

NOTES AND PERSONALS

Black Satteen Bloomers for children. A. G. Hoffman & Co.

L. D. McChesney of Weiser, Idaho, is the guest of relatives in this city.

Mrs. C. E. Roy and daughter, Virginia, were week-end visitors in Portland.

Bring your prescriptions here to have them correctly compounded. Littler's Pharmacy.

Mrs. W. B. Potwin has been quite ill at her home on North A street, but is improving slowly.

An exceptionally good line of sweaters for men, women and children at John Anderson's.

Mrs. Walter Roswurm spent last week-end visiting Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hesseltine at Vancouver.

Wouldn't a heavy sweater go mighty fine these wet days? We've some dandies—$2.00 to $7.00. C. E. Roy & Co.

Those nifty cloth novelty hats you see the ladies wearing came from John Anderson's, where you can get the pick of a fine assortment of colors.

For Sale—Two Rose Comb Rhode Island Red cockerels; two Blue Andalusian cockerels. Price $1.50 each. J. I. W. Durston, Route 1.

Miss Jones of Salem, arrived in this city Monday and will have charge of the millinery store which was purchased from Hertzog & McIntyre. The firm name will be Stith & Jones.

If you are looking for an unusual value in wool and wool mixed shirts at $1.25 to $3.00, take one of ours home. Their fabric and wear will surprise you. C. E. Roy & Co.

Edgar Swanson, a former Forest Grove boy and a graduate of the high school here, spent Sunday visiting with friends in this city. He has enlisted in the hospital corps and is now at Vancouver, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Ives left yesterday for Vancouver, Wash., where Billy has a position in a shipyard. Their son, Kenneth, remains at the hotel until the present school semester closes, when he will join his parents in the booming town. Mr. Ham, who has long made his home with the Iveses, will remain with Kenneth as cook and valet.

Mrs. Hertzog of McMinnville was a business visitor in our city on Monday.

Mrs. B. F. White was confined to her home several days this week with a severe cold.

Little Margaret Hines, who has been ill for two weeks, is again up and about the house.

Miss Una Emerson, who has charge of a store at Sheridan, Ore., was the guest of home folks Sunday.

The many friends of Miss Gertrude Allen will be glad to know that she is recovering nicely from her recent illness.

Howard Lilly of the Gales Creek district a few days ago sold to the Schultz market a hog that dressed 555 pounds. That's the way to feed the soldiers.

Mrs. A. E. Scott last Friday entertained a number of ladies at a party complimentary to Mrs. Stoecker, who expects to leave next month for her home in Seattle.

Mrs. C. E. Walker and Mrs. E. B. Brookbank last Saturday afternoon gave a luncheon at the home of the latter for fourteen ladies, the affair being in honor of Mrs. Ray T. Williams. Cards and an excellent lunch were the features of the afternoon.

Armenians Need Help

At the request of some of the charitable people of this city, Dr. J. P. McNaughton, late of Turkey, and Ben Selling of Portland came to this city Sunday and delivered addresses in the Congregational church in the afternoon in an effort to arouse local people to the great need of funds to keep the Armenians in Turkey from starving to death.

Up to the time war was declared by America, Dr. McNaughton was in Turkey, where he was jailed and later released on promise to quit the country. He paints terrible pictures of the suffering of the Armenian Christians at the hands of the blood-thirsty Turks, who make a holiday of butchering the Christians.

Replying to the oft-asked question as to whether money could with safety be sent to the Armenians, Dr. McNaughton replied, "Every dollar sent to the New York office of the American committee for Armenian and Syrian relief reaches the sufferers for whom it is intended, without the diminution of a cent. The money goes via the American ambassador in Switzerland, by whom it is sent the Swedish ambassador at Constantinople, where it is turned over to members of the relief staff.

Ben Selling, the well-known Portland Jewish philanthropist, also made a strong plea for aid for these martyrs.

At the close of the meeting, Rev. Daniel Staver was appointed to choose a committee to look after the work in this section.

Pacific University Has Service Flag

On Thursday of last week the Chapel Services of Pacific University were turned over to Harold Robinson, president of the student body, and Mr. Robinson presented to the college a service flag, containing twenty-six stars, twenty-four boy and two girl students having enlisted for war service. Dean Clark accepted the flag for the college with a very patriotic speech.

The following list gives the class to which each student belongs, as well as the division of the service in which he is now enlisted.

'17
George Berreman, Ambulance.
Ivan Donaldson, Ambulance.
Thayne Livesay, Radio.
Glenn Morgan, Hospital, Navy.

'18
Sam Cox, Radio.
Glenn Jack, Radio.
Leo Lucas, Radio.
Tom Smith, Radio.
Verle Stanley, Infantry.
Irvin Turner, Q. M. C.

'19
Willis Cady, Radio.
Erwin Barendrick, Hospital.
Tommy Fowler, Infantry.
Francis Wade, Hospital.
Orlando Romig, Radio.
Edgar Swanson, Hospital.

'20
Kenneth Jones, Ambulance.
Ralph Jones, Ambulance.
George Parker, Hospital, Navy.
Clare Walker, Navy.
Jim Norton, Engineers.
Harry Romig, Radio.
Margaret Burns, Radio.

'21
Ruth Austin, Radio.
Lloyd Appleman, Hospital.
Charles Roe, Radio.

Chas. Roe and Harry and Orlando Romig are the latest of the students to enlist.

The Express prints butter wrappers with non-poisonous ink.