The Cow's Health—First of All

To think of the milk yield first and the cow's health afterward is putting the cart before the horse. Many "poor milkers" only need to have their systems working properly to become good producers.

KOW-KURE, the great cow medicine, makes cows healthy and keeps them healthy. Working on the digestive and genital organs, it is a prompt, sure remedy for Abortion, Barrenness, Retained Afterbirth, Scouring, Lost Appetite and Bunches. Try KOW-KURE; druggists and feed dealers sell it—50c and $1.10 packages.

Safety First.
I was returning home the other evening about 6:30 o'clock when I saw Tommy, my neighbor's boy, "lagging for line" with pennies, with a crowd of other boys. I knew that his family always had supper at 6 o'clock sharp, so I said: "I'll bet you 5 cents you'll miss your supper, Tommy."
He grinned up at me saucily and replied: "Then you lose your bet, 'cause I got the chops right here with me. Ma sent me for 'em at 5 o'clock."

IS BEST OF ASSETS
Character Enables One to Win Great Battles of Life.

The Quitter Fails Because He Lacks Strength of Will That Regards Discouragements as Incentives.

"God Almighty hates a quitter!" said Tom Reed of Maine. The nation roared applause from the Atlantic to the Pacific and from the lakes to the gulf for the virile vigor of this rough expression of manhood. The sentiment is one of perennial value.

But what makes the man who does not know when he is defeated and fights to the finish, be the finish his or his opponents? asks the Spokane (Wash.) Review. Is it not character; and is not character at bottom only the moral equivalent of stalwart backbone?

The quitter fails and falls because he lacks the force of character, the strength of will, which sees possibilities beyond capacities and regards obstacles as opportunities, discouragement as incentives. The fight which is worth attempting at all is the fight which deserves to be fought through. "It's dogged as does it," as which Hoeman said to Sayers: "Now, Tummy, lad, 'tis thou or I!" and won the last round and match.

There was character. It may not have been ideal character. It certainly was not character in its highest expression. But it was the sum of the man's whole personality. All the power of him, all the pith and punch of invincible determination went into the winning of his fight. The bulldog shows the same strength of will when he lets himself be choked or cut to pieces rather than let go his grip on the other dog's jugular.

It is this readiness to be killed, if need be, if one cannot best one's adversary, which wins the battle of life for men and the wars of nations for their existence. Such a readiness is a form of character and the product, whether aware or unaware, of a fight to achieve character. It is the reaction of the spirit to the long working life and circumstances upon the raw and plastic ore of human nature.

Make money, then, and do so honorably. Get understanding—for the sake of social service as well as your own growth. Win power over men through right methods of approach and appeal. But with all your getting and gains achieve character above all.

Nothing can take the place of character. It knows no substitute. Cleverness, cunning and shrewdness are paper money. Character is the gold which alone gives them value. Pierpont Morgan rated character above collateral as security for loans and credit. Character is the best of all assets.

Chinese Bean Eaters.
The chief reason why people can live so cheaply in China and yet produce for that nation a tremendous man power, is that they eat beans instead of meat; but nothing like the navy bean, which by many people who do not get much exercise is considered a rather heavy food. Furthermore, pork and beans as fed to the men in the United States army and navy becomes monotonous after a while, even though the addition of the carbon contained in the shape of pork fat makes such a meal possess every element necessary to sustain life.—Exchange.

Question of Authority.
"You can't tell 'bout a display of authority," said Uncle Eben. "Many a man thinks he's doin' a fine job o' mule drivin' when de mule is jes' hurryin' to git home on his own account."

Negroes With Irish Accent.
Southward and westward from our newly acquired Virgin Islands lies the British possession of Montserrat—a bit of tropic land set in a blue sea. Montserrat is remarkable for possessing a negro population that speaks with a marked Irish accent, the result of deportations of Irishmen to this remote islet more than a century ago. Although you can see nothing remotely resembling a son of the Emerald Isle in Montserrat today, your ear can still catch a touch of the brogue in the peculiar dialect of the negro, and many of the names are Irish pure and simple—such as O'Hara and Hogan and Ryan; there is even a village of Kinsale.

Would Be Harrowing.
"I wonder why we seldom see a woman running a department store?"
"A woman could never bear to part with all those bargains."

Advantage of Practice.
"Your tipsy neighbor used to be a bundle boy in our establishment." "Do you know, I wondered how he managed to carry a package the way he does."

EAT LESS AND TAKE SALTS FOR KIDNEYS

Take a glass of Salts if your Back hurts or Bladder bothers.

The American men and women must guard constantly against Kidney trouble, because we eat too much and all our food is rich. Our blood is filled with uric acid which the kidneys strive to filter out; they weaken from overwork, become sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and the result is kidney trouble, bladder weakness and a general decline in health.

When your kidneys feel like lumps of lead; your back hurts or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment or you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night; if you suffer with sick headache or dizzy, nervous spells, acid stomach, or you have rheumatism when the weather is bad, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys; to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure, makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water beverage, and belongs in every home, because nobody can make a mistake by having a good kidney flushing any time.—Adv.

Profiteering.
"We don't want prices to go up here as they have gone up in Europe," said Senator Jones of Washington.

"I heard the other day about a French wine merchant who said to an old patron:

"Look here, sir; if you won't pay me for that wine you just bought before the war, at least send me back the empty bottles."

"Humph," said the former patron, "glass has gone up a lot, you know. What cash allowance do I get per bottle?"—Washington Star.

Hurrah! How's This
Cincinnati authority says corns dry up and lift out with fingers.

Ouch! ? ! ? ! This kind of rough talk will be heard less here in town if people troubled with corns will follow the simple advice of this Cincinnati authority, who claims that a few drops of a drug called freezone when applied to a tender, aching corn or hardened callous stops soreness at once, and soon the corn or callous dries up and lifts right off without pain.

He says freezone dries immediately and never inflames or even irritates the surrounding skin. A small bottle of freezone will cost very little at any drug store, but will positively remove every hard or soft corn or callous from one's feet. Millions of America's women will welcome this announcement since the inauguration of the high heels. If your druggist doesn't have freezone tell him to order a small bottle for you.—Adv.
