Kaiser Bill Replies to His Friend Satan

You will this day liberate from the traitor's chamber of torture four traitor's, namely, Judas Iscariot, General Bernadotta, the Duke of Augustenburg and Benedict Arnold. Judas will go to Russia and become an apostle in the faith of Kenesky. He will lead that hated Russian to the Garden of Gethsemane and see that the Pharisees once more do their duty. Bernadotta, who betrayed Napoleon Bonaparte and received the throne of Sweden for his treachery, will go to Stockholm at once. While the aristocracy and the royal house of Sweden are our secret allies, the common people lean towards our enemies. This must be averted, for we shall expect Sweden to strike Russia in the back no later than September, 1918. In consideration of this service Sweden will be listed as a bright jewel in our imperial crown when small countries shall cease to live.

An extraordinary evil spirit is being in England today. You will equip and order the Duke of Augustenburg to London. It was he who set the trap that took the life of Frederick of Denmark and later brought Germany two provinces of his country. So cleverly was this done that we feel perfectly safe in trusting England's premier, Lloyd George, in the hands of the Duke—verstehen sie? To "strafe" England is the whole object of this war, even though we have to destroy all living things and make the earth unfit for men. The blood lust of the German Eagle is rampant and "Deutschland Ueber Alles" is his slogan. In your letter of abdication you said: "I planted in your soul a deep hatred for England and all things English." For that, my dear Satan, accept our royal thanks. For this hatred is our very life, the mainspring of our ambition, and the world will quake, and blood shall flow until all things English shall have perished. Likewise do I hate the English cousins across the sea.

The art of treason so highly developed in the Fatherland is well under way in America. The work of our efficient spy system covers every accursed state in the Union and schools of treason under various names, such as slackers, pacifists, People's Council of America, I. W. W.'s, and others are fast developing. It is now our desire to consolidate the various factions under one banner and one leader; therefore, you will at once dispatch Herr Benedict von Arnold to America with a letter of introduction to the Burgomeister of Chicago, who will assign him rooms for general headquarters and further establish branch offices in Milwaukee, Cincinnati, St. Louis and Davenport, Iowa. You will place at his command a large assignment of Iron Crosses to be distributed as he sees fit, also that yellow book that will give the location of our wireless stations and names of certain Americans loyal to our cause. Place at his command sufficient money for bribes and exercise Prussian efficiency everywhere. It will be his special duty to look after one Theodore von Roosevelt, general of a division of "kuh punchers." It is of the utmost importance that this man shall never set foot on the soil of France. Use technique if possible, but rather than fail—ach himmell! 'Schlach him on der head mit a brickstein." This is the most important part of his mission, and impress this upon his mind, if he fail, he goes never again to be liberated. Apropos, Herr von Satan, liberate Shakespeare's imp of infamy Herr von Iago, and give him instruction to look out for men higher up. I dare say neither of us needs to give him further instructions; he knows the game; he is a past grand master.

And now, my dear friend, without diminishing your wonderful talent, I will have to tell you that the present condition of hell is in sufficient to the demand of Prussia. You must at once proceed to Germanize every unit in the infernal regions. Under penalty of hitherto unknown cruelties, no language but German shall be spoken. You will call your architects and have a new annex erected for all future patrons from England and America, with all new and modern appliances for such entertainments as I deem worthy to all who speak the accursed tongue of England. The Iron Cross should adorn the breast of every imp of hell who can suggest new and efficient torture to the enemy of Germany.

The dreams of Nietzsche, Treitschke, Moltke and Bismarck have at last come true. Power! The great force is now in the hands of Germany to its appointed agent, the Kaiser, who rules all things and German kultur will penetrate even the darkest chamber of hell.

When England is at our feet begging for mercy, and all other nations, great and small, shall kiss our foot, then imperial peace shall be universal. I shall turn all Europe over to my beloved son the Crown Prince, and place a Hohenzollern on every throne on earth, and I, Wilhelm the Great, will take personal charge of the infernal regions, while you, my dear friend and advisor, will be rewarded for the faithful interest you have taken in our behalf. We do not doubt the loyalty of the chief magistracy of Chicago; but his work is coarse, and we feel our cause suffering in his hand, and therefore his abdication is in order—Here is the key to the city on the lake, and the purple robe of the Burgomeister is yours. As advisors in your council chamber I would suggest such well known schemers as Herr von Bernstorff, Herr von Bethman Hollveg, Herr von Michaels. For constables and ward heelers we suggest you Hindenberg, von Gluck, von Mackenson and others. And for official dog catcher I offer the Sultan of Turkey. With such administration German kultur will advance in Chicago

WILHELM.

Notice to Taxpayers

Notice is hereby given that on Monday, Feb. 18, 1918, the tax rolls for the year 1917, will be open for collection of taxes, and the first half of all taxes shall be paid on or before April 5 following, and the second half on or before October 5 following. Interest shall be charged and collected at the rate of one percent per month or fraction of a month in case of delinquency, until paid. Interest at said rate applies to the first half if not paid by April 5, and to the second half if not paid by October 5. All taxes remaining unpaid on October 5 shall be delinquent and on November 5, 1918, a penalty of 5 percent will be charged and collected thereon in addition to the interest herein provided.

Any day after the expiration of six months after the taxes charged against any real property are delinquent, the Sheriff shall have the right, and it shall be his duty upon demand, to make out and issue certificates of delinquency against such property. Said certificates to bear interest at the rate of 12 percent. On or as soon as practicable after October 5, the tax collector shall proceed to collect all taxes levied against personal property, which shall have been unpaid and shall levy upon sufficient goods and chattels of delinquent tax payers and sell same to satisfy said tax, or said sheriff shall charge said personal tax against real property and said tax shall become a lien upon said real property, and shall be enforced in the same manner as other real estate tax liens.

In making request for statement of taxes, town lots should be designated by addition and lot and block number. Acreage should be designated by Section, Township and Range. Whenever possible descriptions should be copied from deed or contract. On paying second half of tax it will be necessary to return the original first-half tax receipt.
J. C. APPLIGATE,
