

Saving Under Difficulties

Many men owe their success to the difficulties they overcome. A Saving plan which encourages close figuring, thoughtful spending and self-denial will accomplish far more than the mere accumulation of money—It will develop character.

Consider well the advantages derived from our Savings Account Plan as a feature of your Thrift plans.

Last Monday T. E. Sedgwick of York, Nebraska, ran out from Portland, where he is visiting relatives. He is an old newspaper man and is out of business at present. He is looking over Oregon with a view to locating some time in the future.

You can't Hooverize successfully in the kitchen without a kitchen cabinet. The Hoosier is the king of cabinets and no family is too poor to own one at our easy payment plan. A carload just received. Let's talk it over. Claude E. Smith. It

L. L. VanNortwick, the barber, who has worked for Brady Chowning for the past three months, left yesterday for Rockaway to reopen his own shop. A large number of timbermen have recently gone to work near Rockaway and they are clamoring for a hotel and barber shop. Mr. VanNortwick owns a good hotel, fully equipped, at that place, but he doesn't care to operate it himself. Here is a chance for some hotel man or woman to lease a good property. Mrs. VanNortwick and children will remain here until the close of the school year.

Mrs. J. L. VanKirk has been ill at her home this week.

Fresh Jersey cow for sale. J. L. W. Durston, Route 1. 6-tf

Mr. and Mrs. D. N. Morris, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Good and Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Good and little daughter visited at the home of E. J. McAlear in Hillsboro Sunday.

Frank Porter, who is now employed with the Northern Express company at Astoria, came to Hillsboro yesterday and passed Uncle Sam's physical examination. He visited his mother, brother and sister in this city a while.

Nelson B. LaCourse has rented the store room in the Odd Fellows building, west of the Caples block and is moving his stock of goods in. G. I. Gibson has also moved his fish market into the same building.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Wilson have received a letter from their son, Richard, a cook on the mine destroyer Bagley, stating that he has been in St. Katherine's hospital, Brooklyn, N. Y., since the latter part of January, recovering from an attack of the grip.

A Colonial Playlet

At Marsh Hall Friday evening, Feb. 22, at 8 o'clock the Freshman class will present the annual Freshman play. The evening's entertainment will consist of vocal and instrumental solos, and the Freshman girls' quartet will make their first appearance. A special feature is the playlet "A Mount Vernon Fantasy," staged during colonial days, when powdered hair and colonial dances were in vogue.

The following is the cast of characters: Martha Washington, Lady of Mt. Vernon—Sadie McCoy. Nellie Custis, Her Daughter—Eleanor Peterson.

Priscilla Pennington, a Young Widow—Evelyn Patton. Mrs. Warburton, of the Clarke County Warburtons—Camilla Mills.

Mary Warburton, Her Daughter—Margaret Morgan.

Fanny Carrol, a Boston Girl—Gladys Kee.

Adelaide Livingston—Arline Barnum.

Alice Livingston—Lela Barnum. Judith Rowntree, a Poor Relation—Audrey Tour.

Aunt Dinah, a Colored Factotum—Alice Bollinger.

There is no charge and the public is cordially invited to attend.

Remember This Musical

Music-lovers should not forget the entertainment to be given at Marsh Hall on Thursday, Feb. 22, at 8:15 p. m., by the faculty of P. U. Conservatory. The proceeds go to the Red Cross. General admission, 25c; reserved seats (at Little's) 35c.

Knights to Celebrate

This evening the members of Delphos lodge No. 39, K of P., will celebrate the 54th anniversary of the founding of the order and the 27th anniversary of the institution of the local lodge and will also dedicate a Roll of Honor, containing the names of five members (Claude E. Ford, Arthur E. Brodersen, Emery LaMont, Cecil Hughes and Chas. G. Staley) who have enlisted in Uncle Sam's fighting forces. Speakers will be present from Portland, Salem and other cities outside the county.

Guests Day

Next Monday is the annual "Guest Day" of the Woman's club and the event will be held at the Congregational church parlors at 3 o'clock. We have invited as guests the members of the different clubs in the neighboring communities. It is hoped every club member will be present.

Abbie J. Whitehouse, Sec'y.

A. R. Keagy preached in the Methodist church last Sunday.

Comrade Baldwin Surprised

Tuesday was the 79th anniversary of the birth of John Baldwin, Civil war veteran and a member of the local fife and drum corps, and during the afternoon two dozen of his comrades of the Grand Army and Relief Corps, provided with baskets of things good to eat, called at the Baldwin home and announced they had come to celebrate. Comrade Baldwin made the visitors welcome and they spent several hours very pleasantly at music, conversation and lunch, the host providing the coffee. Comrade Baldwin has seen some pretty hard knocks, but in spite of his almost four score years, he is more sprightly than many men of fifty.

Free Chiropractic Clinic

Don't forget the Free Chiropractic Treatments for the children of the grades at Dr. Darland's office.
