

Supplement to Forest Grove Express

Vol 3

Forest Grove, Ore., Thursday, May 30, 1918.

No. 21

NOTES AND PERSONALS

Yellow Aberdeen turnip seed $1.50 per pound, at the Pacific Market. 19-tf

Summer weight sweaters for men, women and children at John Anderson's.

Chas Strong of Corvallis spent the week-end at the M. S. Allen home in this city.

John Anderson, the leading clothier, is showing a new line of hose for men, women and boys. Good values, too.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wilson of Vancouver visited Mr. and Mrs. Claude Smith Sunday, the lady being Mrs Smith's sister.

To get good, salable fruit from your trees, spray the trees often with Sherwin-Williams Arsenate of Lead, for sale by Littlers' Pharmacy.

Until further notice the Cannery will receive Rhubarb at one and one-half cents per pound. We also want your Gooseberries, Raspberries and Loganberries.

Former residents of Nebraska and Kansas were given a touch of "home" weather Sunday, when a heavy thunder storm passed over this section, followed by a light hail storm. The hail did no damage, so far as the writer has heard.

H. T. Buxton and sister, Mrs. Ed Harrison, returned Monday from a visit with their brother, Austin, and family at Molalla. They found Austin in good spirits and in better general health than they expected to find him.

For the purpose of organizing a Washington County Guernsey Breeders' association, Wm. Goodin of Cornelius invites all the Guernsey breeders and interested dairymen to attend a picnic at his farm June 15th. Several outside speakers will be secured.

Cecil Hughes, who is with the engineers in France, writes his parents that he is well and frequently hears from the other Forest Grove boys over there, although there are some in the service there whom he has never seen since he left home.

W. T. Buxton, a former resident of this section, but for the past fourteen years a resident of Washington, arrived Sunday from Walla Walla for a visit with his brothers and sisters. He finds many changes have occurred since he left this section, especially in the city of Forest Grove.

The Express prints butter wrappers with non-poisonous ink.

Straw hats for dress and work wear at Anderson's clothing store.

M. S. Allen & Co. Saturday delivered Paige autos to C. A. Littler and E. G. Mills.

Dr. Darland, Chiropractic and Natureopath. Office at A St. & 1st Ave. N. Phone 676.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Creel have rented the Jo Hurley residence and are now at home there.

See the Pyrex transparent baking dishes at the Book Store. Every woman should have an assortment.

Dr. Ward is continuing his practice and is prepared to answer calls both day and night. Office hours, from 9 to 11 a. m. and 2 to 4 p. m. 18-tf

Miss Emma B. Penfield is out from Portland to spend a two weeks' vacation. She will be at her home here for a few days and will go to Rockaway for a short stay.

Vinton Robinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Robinson, has won a commission as a second lieutenant of cadets of Corvallis, according to a list published in a Portland paper Sunday.

Mrs. L. S. Phillips of Nehalem, formerly of this city, has announced the engagement of her daughter, Carol, to Mr. Richard C. Spring of Lindenwood, Ill. The marriage is to take place in Chicago about the middle of June and Mr. and Mrs. Spring will make their home, temporarily, at least, in Illinois

One of the pleasing features of the last day of school at Fairview was a flag-raising, with the teacher, Miss Martha Allen, and the pupils swearing allegiance to Old Glory. Mr. Oglesby, one of the directors, made a speech, in which he expressed appreciation of the excellent work done by Miss Allen and regretted that she had been elected to teach elsewhere next term.

Miss Ruth Austin, who several months ago enlisted as a "yeomanette" in the navy, has been notified to appear at the recruiting office in Portland tomorrow, so it is fair to presume she is going to be taken into the service at once. Mrs. Anna Hogue has rented her residence and is now living with Mrs. Nettie Austin, Ruth's mother.

New creations in Motor Hats. See them at A. G. Hoffman & Co.

Dr. E. Crockett of Portland visited the M. S. Allen family last Friday evening.

Archie Bryant, who is employed in Portland, visited wife and children in this city Sunday.

Clarence Kelsey came out from Portland Saturday night and spent Sunday with his family.

Go to the Erickson garage, K. of P. building, for your auto repairs, accessories, tires, gas and oils.

To keep the automobile looking clean and nice use one of our Oil Tanned Chamois skins on it. Littlers' Pharmacy.

Judge W. H. Hollis of this city is the principal orator at the Cornelius Memorial day exercises this (Thursday) afternoon.

James West of the Forest Grove planing mill returned Thursday evening from a business trip to Wheeler and Brighton.

Prof Eugene Hall of North Powder, Ore., is visiting his daughter, Miss Irene Hall, at the J. L. VanKirk home.

O. N. Mullikin, the gentleman who offered his services several months ago to the Commercial club for the purpose of organizing a band, has moved from Gaston to this city and is still ready to carry out his original design, if given any encouragement. He is advertising in this issue of the Express for pupils for band and orchestra instruments.

At a meeting to be held in Kinton school house Saturday, June 1st, at 8 p. m., the onion growers of Washington county will discuss the control of onion mildew. H. P. Barss, plant pathologist at the Oregon Agricultural college, has consented to be present and he will discuss plans for the control of this and other diseases of onions.

The interior department announces that 150,000 acres of Oregon timber, agricultural and dairying lands will be thrown open for sale at $2.50 per acre on July 2d. Applications must be made between June 22 and July 17 to the United States land office at Portland. The land lies in Washington, Multnomah, Yamhill, Polk, Clackamas, Marion, Benton, Linn, Columbia and Tillamook counties.
