GOSSIP! Not many of our customers listen to gossip. Of that we feel sure. In these history-making days the average mind cannot grasp the facts that are presented daily and certainly have no time for gossip.

We read of movements started in different parts of the country to compel idle hands to work. Any restraining influence that would at this time make vicious tones rest would be equally commendable. If you hear that our service is less dependable than in the past, treat the remark as gossip. We are equal to a great deal more than has so far been demanded of us.
