Washington County Sends Sixty-Four

Following are the names of the sixty-four Kai er Killers who left Hillsboro Tuesday for Camp Lewis:

John Suran, Harry E. Cole, August J. Vandehey, Charles Bowers, Leslie E. Webb, John Shaw, Clay Dooley, Lloyd R. Knox, Herman Chris Schindler, Kennard I. Dixon, Andris Montis, George Jurgens, Julius C. Koshchnitzke, John R. DeHaan, George Hugo Fitlaff, Walter Leonard Judd, Herbert McRoberts, George Borosh, Lee White sell, Emil J. Luck, Albert H. Meinecke, Cletus Fitzgerald, George Propp, Clarence E. Bennett, Clement C. Inkley, Charles Emmett Griffin, Frank A. Bany, Fred W. Kastner, Claude B. McCurdy, Homer H. Cady, Wesley Whitford, Oswald A. Olson, David L. Johnson, David M. Hutchens, Albert Schomburg, Alex T. Wallace, Ernest M. Tuseker, Myron Bryan, Joseph Newland, Walter E. Willis, Carl Borchers, Guy D. Mott, John Andrew Anderson, Newton C. Shipley, Hugh Lilly, Clyde C. Zigler, Carl Eugene Anderson, William Harris, Alfred Peter Hebeisen, Charles Floyd Gray, Charles N. Green, Elmer O. Barber, Walter V. Cimino, Edwin Smith, Roy V. Coleman, Harry Wilson, Louis Peterson, John M. Vanderzanden, Lawrence Al Webber, Robert Christensen, Godfred Losli, Gray Davis, Carl Albert Carlson, Alvin N. Wilcox, all of Washington county. Frank Smiley of Portland, Julius James Meacham of Tacoma and John S. Armatolos of Hoquiam filled the Washington county draft of 67.

Others who entrained here from outside places were: Guy W. Fair, Eugene; Leander Dubell, Coos county; Claude Dilley, a slacker, from Hoquiam; Harry Dell Reynolds, Idaho; George Hubbard, South Bend, Ind.; Albert Ahlgren, Streator, Ill.

Fifty-six more men have been called for July 5 for Fort McDowell. Forty-four will be inducted.

The supper which the Commercial club desired to give Forest Grove boys did not materialize, as most of the boys had other business which they considered more important than a supper.

Attend This Meeting Tomorrow Evening

Every citizen of Forest Grove should attend the War Stamp meeting to be held at the Central school building at 8 o'clock tomorrow (Friday) evening. The meeting is held at the request of President Wilson and the local selling committee and the members of the committee will report the amount realized and the amount yet to be sold to fill the city's quota. The committee will tell the people how some of those most able to finance this war have done very little of the financing. This would make an interesting story, if told in full, for, unfortunately, Forest Grove has a few miserly souls who would rather give up their lives than their money. Please remember this meeting.

Miss Anice McLaren, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William McLaren of this city, was married Tuesday at Vancouver, Wash., to Mr. Frank Raymond of Oswego. The parents of the bride attended the wedding. Mr. and Mrs. Raymond will reside at Oswego, where the groom is employed by the railroad company.

The water committee of the city council requests the Express to notify the residents of Pacific avenue and Seventh street, near the juncture of the streets mentioned, that they are at liberty to sprinkle these streets from their hydrants, without extra charge.

A daughter was born Saturday to Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Holman.

Mrs. Ella Leopold of Portland is visiting Mrs. W. M. Langley in this city.

Another Pioneer Called

With the passing Tuesday of Thomas W. Sain, at his home in Scoggins Valley, another pioneer citizen of Washington county has passed into the great beyond.

Deceased was born in Hazel-greea, Iowa, in the year 1851 and when fourteen years of age came to Washington county with his parents. He was married in 1875 to Miss Alice Smith, daughter of Darling Smith, pioneer of 1848. Shortly after his marriage Mr. Sain moved onto the farm where he died, eight miles southwest of this city. He from time to time added to his land holdings until, at the time of his death, he owned 500 acres of valuable land.

Besides his widow, deceased leaves three daughters and one son—Mrs. Lottie Parker of this city, Mrs. Lettie Hankins of Gaston and Dexter C. and Wanda Sain, who live at home.

Funeral services were held at the Forest Grove Christian church at 2 o'clock this afternoon and the remains were laid to rest in Forest View cemetery. Deceased was a member of the Knights of Pythias, and of the Elks and many members of these orders attended the last rites.

State Road Commission Has Gone to Sleep

County Judge Reasoner of Hillsboro, County Commissioner Matteson, and Messrs. A. G. Hoffman, L. M. Graham and John Thornburgh of this city and Messrs. Stapleton, Wescott, Bell and Armstrong of Gaston met with State Road Commissioners Benson, Thompson and Booth at Portland Tuesday, in an endeavor to get the commission to do something for the state road through Washington county, as per previous promises, but came back home with very little hope of securing any relief this year.

Last spring the state commissioners promised representatives of the Forest Grove Commercial club that the state road would during 1918 be hard surfaced from the Multnomah county line to Beaverton and the rest of the road to the east end of Washington county would be rocked. The commissioners now say that the war department has forbidden the sale of bonds for new work and in some cases, as in Washington county, work already started cannot be completed.

With the expectation that the commission's promise to rock the road would be kept, the Washington county court has caused considerable grading to be done between this city and Gaston, leaving the road soft and hard to travel. Coos county, which is in the same fix, had a delegation at the meeting, but went away without encouragement.

The state commission's pet—"the Columbia highway, or 'peacock highway,'" as C. E. Spence christened it—has not suffered by reason of any shortage of funds and many people in this section feel that the rest of the state has been neglected to give the speed fiends of Portland a speedway.

To Fix Prune Prices

W. K. Newell has asked the prune growers to meet with him at Public Library building, Tenth and Yamhill streets, Portland, at 9:30 a. m. on Tuesday, July 2d. The prune packers are asked to meet at the same place at 2:30 p. m.

Washington county prune growers are called to meet at Hillsboro Club room Saturday next, at 2:30 p. m., to elect delegates to the state meeting. It is probable that the Portland meeting will come to an agreement with Mr. Ayer in regard to the prices for the 1918 crop.

Public sale bills printed at the Express office.

War Pictures Coming

Remarkable Views Straight from the Fighting Zone

The most remarkable set of war pictures which the country affords will be shown at Chautauqua by Henry Warren Poor, expert photographer and well-known lecturer. Mr. Poor's collection has been secured in two trips to the war zone and through his particularly fortunate position as head of the Slide and Color Department of the great photographic firm of Underwood & Underwood. He is the first to see and select from the vast amount arriving each week from Europe.

His lecture has been voiced by Eastern papers as one of the most informative and interesting of the platform. The views shown include trench systems, Pershing and "our boys," liquid fire, gas waves, Zeppelins, submarines and how destroyed, shell exploding on Rheims cathedral, methods of camouflage, tanks; in fact, every new wonder of the great war.

Forest Grove July 19 to 24, inclusive

Excellent Work by Fire Department

Forest Grove's volunteer fire department demonstrated last Friday evening that its members know how to extinguish fires, no matter what the handicap. Between 8 and 8:30 o'clock Friday evening fire was seen issuing from the air-shaft on the roof of the Forest Grove planing mill and in a very short time three streams of water were playing on the conflagration. In less than ten minutes the fire was under control and in another 10 minutes the last spark had been extinguished.

How the fire started is an unsolved mystery, unless it was from electric wiring or spontaneous combustion. There is no suspicion of incendiaryism.

President Graham of the owning company estimates that the loss is fully $1,500, about equally divided between building and machinery, with $500 insurance on the machinery and none on the building.

The good work of the fire department saved hundreds of dollars worth of sawed box shooks and other lumber in the company's mill and yards and in a warehouse close at hand the Forest Grove Fruit Growers' association had stored more than $1,000 worth of tin cans and other supplies. Mr. Graham is well pleased with the effective work of the fire department.

Preparing for Chautauqua

About one-tenth of the 100 signers for Chautauqua tickets met at the Rogers Library Monday evening and organized by electing E. E. Williams president, H. L. Bates vice president, John Dopp secretary and C. A. Littler treasurer. President Williams announced that a Mr. Colwell, representing the Ellison-White syndicate, would be in the city the following day and when the meeting adjourned it was to meet again Tuesday evening.

At the adjourned meeting Mr. Colwell explained what committees should be appointed to "put over" the Chautauqua in proper manner and, acting on his suggestions, President Williams appointed the following:

Tickets—Miss Mary Corl (chairman), Roy VanKirk and J. M. Barber.

Advertising—A. G. Hoffman (chairman), E. J. Shotwell, A. S. Dilley, Mrs. C. E. Walker and C. S. Aydelott.

Arrangements—L. M. Graham (chairman), Dan Pierce and R. W. Reder.

Mr. Colwell assured the officers that the 1918 Chautauqua will be the best the company has ever sent to this city and he urges that ticket-sealers make this fact known and also inform the public that a strong sentiment of patriotism runs through the music and lectures of the program. President Wilson has so high a regard for the Chautauqua platform that he has asked the Ellison-White people to tell the people the story of the European war, which they are doing.

Persons who have signed for tickets should call on Miss Corl, at the First National Bank, and secure their allotment, as the first in the field stands the best chance of selling.

Herb Walrath, who sold his electrical business in this city a year ago, arrived a few days since from Nebraska and visited Forest Grove friends today.

Mrs. Clarence Hanley; sister to the late Mrs. Henry Fogel, yesterday took the little Fogel baby to her home in Portland.

Methodist Recital Very Enjoyable

The organ recital and song service at the M. E. church last Friday evening proved one of the most enjoyable events of recent months.

Mr. Riley, a professional organist of Portland, played the new organ and a chorus of eighteen voices, led by Mrs. George G. Paterson and Thomas E. Isaacs, rendered the oratorio "The Daughter of Jairus." The fire at the planing mill broke out just as the concert was well under way and took a part of the audience, but those who remained report that they were given a musical treat.

No admission was charged, but a silver offering was made by the audience. The new organ is a good one and the members of the choir will, no doubt, be encouraged to greater efforts by reason of its installation.

Save Your Waste and Help Win the War

The American Red Cross society is establishing depots throughout the United States for the collection of material that is often carted to the waste dumps and the Portland depot is asking other Oregon towns to begin saving this waste, which will later be collected and put to a patriotic use. Following is a list of materials that can be used and will be cheerfully accepted:

- Tin or lead foil, folded flat. Do not roll.
- All metals, copper, brass, iron, zinc, aluminum, cast iron junk.
- Rubber junk of all kinds. Old motor tires and tubes. Bicycle tires.
- Old magazines, newspapers (folded and tied.)
- Burlap and gunny sacks. String, rolled into balls. Cotton and hemp (separate.)
- Clean white rags, woolen rags, (separated.) Mixed rags.
- Old clothes, old shoes, old kid gloves.
- Fruit jars, cold cream jars, bottles of all kinds (cleaned.)
- Collapsible paste and paint tubes.
- Wafer tins. Corks.
- Typewriter ribbon boxes and spools, carbon paper boxes.
- Jewelry and silverware, old gold and silver, broken spectacles, dental fillings, books, recent magazines, Women's, men's and children's clothing, hats, shoes and gloves, furniture, bric-a-brac, ornaments and dishes, fancy work of all sorts, games, toys and sporting goods, canned fruits, jams and jellies, old clocks and watches, hair combs, cancelled postage stamps, cut flowers.

Playing a Lone Hand

Because his brother, Edward, has gone to war, Tony Sohler has sold his interest in the firm of Wiles & Sohler, Chevrolet distributors, to his late partner, Joe A. Wiles, and Joe is carrying on the business with hired help. Tony has gone to Banks to look after the garage and auto sales business formerly conducted by his brother.

Mr. Wiles still retains the Chevrolet agency for Washington, Yamhill and Columbia counties.

Write Cheerful Letters

Only cheerful letters from home to the boys overseas are the kind to send, according to numerous Y. M. C. A. war work secretaries. A gloomy letter, they assert, lowers morale and does real harm.

Draft Lottery Comes Saturday

Washington, June 25.—The draft lottery for newly registered 21-year-old men will be conducted at the senate office building at 9 o'clock Friday morning, Secretary of War Baker announced today.

Remember the patriotic celebration at Balm Grove next Thursday.
