

Supplement to Forest Grove Express

Vol 3

Forest Grove, Ore., Thursday, July 11, 1918.

No. 27

NOTES AND PERSONALS

Miss Marjorie Forbis visited friends in this city Saturday.

For your dress shoes or summer work shoes, see A. G. Hoffman & Co. We can fit you out of our large stock.

Mrs. H. R. Bernard left Tuesday for an extended visit with her daughter, Mrs. Norris Rogers, at McMinnville.

Dr. Guy Via of Buxton was in the city Monday, to welcome the little daughter who came to the home of his sister, Mrs. Walter Kuhnle.

Always something new. Be sure you see our new line of fancy sweaters; just what you want to wear in the evening. A. G. Hoffman & Co.

Mrs. A. A. Hall returned Friday from Newport, where she had been for two weeks, as chaperone for Misses Lucile West and Elizabeth Higby.

Bernard Ortman of the Thatcher district reports so many prunes on his trees that there is danger of the trees breaking, unless more of the fruit falls than has been falling so far.

At a meeting of the republican state central committee, held in Portland last Saturday, Thos. Tongue of Hillsboro was elected chairman. It was decided to offer women an important part in the next political campaign and a number of women were placed on important committees.

By pouring a can of milk on the flaming auto, Lawrence Pierce Monday afternoon saved the machine of a Portland man, whose engine caught fire while the machine was traveling the Gales Creek road, near the Vic Doman place. The owner paid Lawrence $2 for the spilt milk and another dollar for towing him to town.

J. W. Brewer, federal farm labor agent for Oregon, accompanied by his deputy, Oscar Baldwin, and wife visited at the Harve Baldwin home in this city Sunday, following an inspection of the camps at the various berry patches in this section. They found sanitary conditions in Washington county very good, especially at the Buchanan camp, where a number of Forest Grove society ladies and Portland school girls have been picking berries.

Mrs. Anna Hogue returned Saturday from a visit at Seattle.

Sam Walker was called to Hillsboro Tuesday as witness in a lawsuit.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Lenneville Sunday had as dinner guests Miss Audrey Tour of Oregon City and Miss Sadie McCoy of this city.

Miss Bertha Hollevoet and Mr. John Morrow of Portland spent Sunday at the Hollevoet home west of town. Miss Bertha is taking a course in telegraphy at a Portland college.

Mrs. Glenn Makin (nee Mona Mallory), who is visiting her husband's folks, in the Laurelwood district, visited Forest Grove friends Tuesday. Mr. Makin is serving Uncle Sam in the navy.

Mr. and Mrs. E. U. Cate of Hood River visited friends in this city Tuesday. Mrs. Cate returning home in the evening and her husband going to Rainier, where he has a few more people clamoring for Chevrolet cars.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Emmerson, their sons, daughters and grandchildren spent the Fourth at a family reunion and picnic, held in Naylor's grove. There were about twenty in the party and all appeared to have a good time.

Gale Grange held a good meeting Saturday, with Worthy Master F. J. Lewis presiding. One application was read and one candidate balloted on. Quarterly report showed an increase of seven members. It was decided to make a Grange exhibit at the County Fair this fall. A committee to arrange for the exhibit was appointed, with R. B. Newton as chairman. No program was given, but an especially good one will be prepared for the August meeting.

As agent for the Phoenix Insurance company of Hartford, Judge W. H. Hollis last week turned over to the officers of the Forest Grove Planing Mill company a check for $500, as payment in full of a policy on the machinery destroyed by the fire of June 21st. The loss was considerable more than the policy, so the company elected to pay the amount of the policy, instead of replacing the damaged machinery. The roof of the building has been repaired and the company is again manufacturing fruit boxes, berry crates, etc.

The County Fair Manager Selected

At a recent meeting of the executive committee of the Washington County Fair Association, matters pertaining to the location of the fair this year were discussed and a selection of manager was made.

Letters from the majority of the directors of the fair association were read regarding the location of the fair this year and all expressed their approval of the action of the executive committee in selecting Forest Grove as the place for holding the fair.

R. H. Jones of Beaverton, who has had previous experience managing fairs, was selected to manage the Washington County fair this year. Mr. Jones successfully managed the Wallowa fair two years ago.

With the selection of the manager, the directors feel that affairs are rounding into such shape as to make a successful fair this fall.

N. C. JAMISON,
County Agent.

Another Mole Pelt Pool

Owing to the large number of pelts that the boy and girl trappers have accumulated during the past few weeks, another pool of mole pelts will be made during the week of July 15 to 20.

Mole pelts may be mailed or brought to the office of the County Agent, during that time, and the lot will then be sold to the firm offering the best prices.

In the last pool 1760 pelts were disposed of at a fraction of a cent less than 30 cents each and it is expected that they may be disposed of to a better advantage at this time, as the pelts are in better condition and are being handled better.

Care must be taken by the shipper to see that the pelts are strung together on a string and tagged with name and address.

From the last sale of pelts, checks are on hand for the following: S. Holbank, Chas. Farmer, Grant Boyd, Joe Gerber and O. Coe. These will be sent out if parties will advise as to their address.

N. C. JAMISON,
County Agent.

Public sale bills printed at the Express office.
