If you insure in any of the companies you send your money out of the country, you pay from two to four times the cost of your insurance, you have no better protection than that afforded by the Oregon Fire Relief Association, which keeps the money at home and gives you insurance at actual cost. In this you enter into an agreement with your neighbors, that when one has a fire each of the others will bear his share of the loss. Wilkes Bros., agents.

John Neal, living near Reedville for several years, died this week, at the age of 57 years, after a long illness, during which he was an intense sufferer. He was stricken with paralysis seven years ago, since which time he was carefully nursed by his wife, who mourns her loss. The deceased was buried in Masonic cemetery, December 31st, by Tuality Lodge, A. F. & A. M., though he was not a member of the Hillsboro Lodge. He belonged at Astoria.

There is too much pilfering going on in Hillsboro, and the gentry who practice it will surely come to grief. Only last week two of them received a ten-years' sentence. Last year a gang was scattered, and those here now, and they are generally believed to be local, are as certain to be caught as it is that they go stealing. It may not be to-day, and it may not be to-morrow, but the arrest will be made. Then the burglary at Weatherred's, the attempt at Sheriff Ford's, the sack of flour from Pauli's and the other from Heidel's, will all accumulate to lengthen the sentence, just as the skeleton keys and mask lengthened out the sentence of the fellows who were taken to Salem last week.

The joint installation of officers, last Friday evening, of Tuality Lodge, No. 6, and the Eastern Star, A. F. and A. M., was the most enjoyable occasion that has ever occurred in the history of the order in this city. More elaborate banquets have been spread, but the social features have never been equalled. The introductory address was made by Hon. W. N. Barrett, after which the installing officer, Mrs. Mary Hughes, inducted into office Mrs. W. D. Hare, W. M.; J. E. Adkins, W. P.; Miss Minnie Osmund, A. M.; Miss Grace Cronkite, Sec.; Mrs. G. A. Wood, Treas.; Madams W. N. Barrett, Ella Williams, L. H. Deichman and Misses Lura Waggener and Othelia Osmund, Stars; Mrs. Freeman, Conductress; Miss Grace Poe, Assistant Conductress; Mrs. E. O. Crandall, Chap.; Mrs. M. C. Wehrung, Warde; C. W. Williams, Sentinel, and Miss Lizzie Hesse, Organist. P. M., F. A. Bailey, installed the officers of Tuality Lodge, No. 6, to-wit: W. M., W. D. Wood; S. W., Ed. Schulmerich; J. W., R. B. Goodin; Treas., G. W. Patterson; Sec., R. Crandall; S. D., H. H. Fenton; J. D., N. A. Barrett; Stewards, Chas. Bowen and S. Wilson; Tyler, C. W. Williams. At the close of this formal exercise, P. M. W. D. Hare made the final address. Besides members of the home lodges, visitors were present from Forest Grove and Beaverton, with sojourning brethren and a few guests who are not Masons.

An amusing incident occurred on Tuesday evening, that has caused laughter. One of our young society men on returning home, having accompanied his best girl to her home gate, met one of the smaller youngsters just as he had turned into his own yard. He evidently did not see the larger man, who just then called out, "Hey, there!" The youngster, with an "Ugh!" jumped to his own door and called out "Burglar! shoot him!" Our practical joker realized what turn affairs were taking, and struck a dog trot down the sidewalk to get out of the range of possible rifle bullets. It was none too soon, either, for he had no more than placed a safe distance between himself and the house when a big brother threw open the door, gun in hand. "Where? little boy!" "Wh-why, he just run down the sidewalk. He had a white mask over his head and face." Next morning, the big brother told of the adventure.

The new pastor of the Congregational church, Rev. Evan P. Hughes, has arrived and is now settled in town, having rented the building opposite the church. It was Mr. Hughes' intention to occupy the pulpit of the Congregational church last Sabbath morning and evening, but was prevented from doing so by an unfortunate accident that happened when moving one of his boxes of books. Next Sabbath there will be preaching services in the church both morning and evening, when Mr. Hughes will open his ministry here by preaching at both services. A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend one or both of these services. The Sabbath school, Christian Endeavor and Junior Endeavor societies will be held at the usual hours.

The postoffice department advertises for bids to carry a daily mail from Hillsboro to Portland by way of Glencoe, Lenox, Phillips, Bethany and Cedar Mill, the service to commence in March next. The mail will start from Hillsboro and Portland at 7 o'clock each morning, and reach its destination at 5 o'clock p. m. The proposed schedule is better than it is now, but it is not as accommodating as it might be. Post-Mistress Brown recommended a schedule to leave Hillsboro at 9:30 a. m. This would put the daily papers in the hands of subscribers in the forenoon, whereas, the proposed schedule will keep them till the afternoon. The INDEPENDENT is selfishly satisfied, as it will reach its subscribers several hours in advance of the preseat delivery.

D. D. G. M. Deichman, on Wednesday evening, installed the new officers of Montezuma Lodge, No. 50, I. O. O. F., to-wit: S. B. Huston, N. G.; W. A. Finney, V. G.; D. M. C. Gault, Sec., J. M. Grcear, Treas.; L. S. N. G., Calvin Jack, Jr.; Richard Beamish, Cond.; E. L. McCormick, warden; and J. C. Lampkin, O. G.

The New Year's Oregonian of forty-four pages is at hand, and the finest of the big dailies in typographical appearance. The editorial work on the Oregonian is equal to that of the larger cities, and the mechanical neatness shown in its columns is far ahead of anything that comes to this office.

Troy Shelley, superintendent of schools for Wasco county, will preach at the Christian church Sunday, January 5th, at 11 a. m. Special music, consisting of solo, male quartette, etc. Anniversary sermon at 7:30 p. m. Everybody invited to attend these services.

Hillsboro Grange, No. 73, P. of H., will install its officers on Saturday, January 11th. The Grange will be opened at 10 o'clock a. m. All the members are invited to be in attendance, lunch baskets included.

Hon. Thos. H. Tongue has an excellent article of one and a half columns in the New Year's Oregonian, descriptive of Washington county and its resources.

Attention is called to the mortgage sale of general merchandise to take place next week and the succeeding days at Cornelius. Rare bargains in staple goods are to be met with there.

The revival meetings still continue at the M. E. church with unabated interest. There will be special services Sunday, and a glorious time is anticipated.

BORN.

LINCOLN.—December 22d, to the wife of M. S. Lincoln, a daughter.

THE NEW YEAR'S GAME.

One of the most exciting football games of the season was played at the fair grounds of Hillsboro on New Year's day, between the Hillsboro High School team and one composed of players from Forest Grove and the C. A. A. Club.

It was a hard-fought, but one-sided contest. The H. H. S. fully sustained the reputation that it has built up by a series of hard-fought contests.

The H. H. S. has been well trained and played good ball after the first few plays. The game was an exceedingly and unnecessarily rough one, some of the H. H. S. men being severely hurt.

Game was called at 2:30 p.m. H. H. S. won the toss and took the kick-off. Ball was sent whirling to Wells, who returned it 5 yds before being downed. Then the teams lined up for work. Cornelius made a few ineffectual attempts to buck the line, but soon lost ball on a fumble. Tongue opens up the game for the home team by sprinting around Cornelius end for 15 yds; then Stewart repeats the dose by going round the other end for 20 yds. Tongue surprised the visitors by sailing around their right end for the first touch-down. Goal was missed. Cornelius kicks off to Merryman, who, with the aid of clever interfering, brought the ball back to center. Merryman was again given the ball, when he skipped around the opponents right end for 20 yds. At this point, Hillsboro fumbled the ball, which was secured by Cornelius, but the latter's possession was only temporary, as Hillsboro soon recovered the "pig skin" by a fumble on the part of Cornelius. Stewart set the game rolling by carrying the "oval" around left end for 15 yds. Then Cornelius obtained ball on downs, and tried their game of line-bucking, but the immovable front, together with the swift, hard-tackling rushers of the home team soon enabled them to recover the ball and were also given 5 yds on a foul. Stewart went over the line for a touch-down. Goal was again missed. Cornelius kicks off, but immediately regained possession of the ball, it having been fumbled by a home man. But the visitors were now treated to a genuine surprise, for the ubiquitous Merryman stole the ball and skirted their right end for 20 yds; and almost before the opponents had recovered from the shock, Tongue had sprinted their other end for 30 yds. The ball was now given to Tongue for a punt. The ball was hit squarely and went sailing down the field as straight as an arrow, for one of the longest, if not the longest punt on record. The ball was kicked from H's 45 line and was sent clear behind the goal line, making a distance of at least 65 yds. At this point, Quarter-back Dobbins was severely injured and carried in a semi-dazed condition from the field. This was the cause of quite a change in the team. Merryman was changed to quarter; Connel was changed to Merryman's position; Masten was put in Connel's place, who in return was replaced by Klineman, with 5 minutes left. The Hillsboro boys played like fiends for a touch-down, but were forced to be contented with letting the ball lie on their adversaries' 2-foot line. This ended the first half. Score, 10 to 0.

Second half commenced by Cornelius kicking off the ball. It was caught by Tongue, after a long run and by foot sprinting and dodging he carried the egg back past center to the enemy's 45 line.

The "feather" was now fumbled, but recovered by Shute. Tongue skins left end for 10 yds, and then in a series of line plays he smashed through the forwards like their wall was made of paper; then, having drawn the opponents' attention to that spot, he went plunging through into the line. Every opposing man was on him in a minute. But, alas! it was a fake, and Merryman went speeding around left end for 15 yds. The same play was immediately repeated with even greater effect, Merryman going around the other end for 20 yds, and Tongue bucks line for a touch-down. Goal was missed. Cornelius kicks off to Stewart, who carries the ball back 20 yds. Connel then goes around left end for 15 yds, and Tongue around the other end for 20 yds. Stewart then goes around the right end for 20 yds, and Connel bucks through the other end for a touch-down. Cornelius again kicks to Stewart, who carried ball back 10 yds. Tongue then skirted the left end for 20 yds, and after a series of line and cud plays, the ball was again sent across the Cornelius goal just as time was called, leaving the score 24 to 0.

Every man in the home team played his position admirably. Gault and Masten especially doing brilliant work in the line, while Kelly gives every promise of making a first-class player. The teams lined up as follows:

Mitchell	C	Bunning
Moore	R G	Buchanan

Fortunes are lost annually, directly and indirectly, by people who cannot do their own figuring, write their own letters, or keep their own books; and who do not know when business and legal papers which they must handle every day are made out correctly. All these things, and much more, we teach thoroughly.
Hundreds of our graduates are in good positions, and there will be openings for hundreds more when times improve. Now is the time to prepare for them. Besides, a business education is worth all it costs, for once's own use. Send for our catalogue, to learn what and how we teach. Mailed free to any address.
