If you insure in any of the companies you send your money out of the country, you pay from two to four times the cost of your insurance, you have no better protection than that afforded by the Oregon Fire Relief Association, which keeps the money at home and gives you insurance at actual cost. In this you enter into an agreement with your neighbors, that when one has a fire each of the others will bear his share of the loss. Wilkes Bros., Hillsboro, Or.

The services at the Congregational church last Sabbath, January 12th, were well attended both morning and evening. For next Sabbath the announcements are as follows: Sunday school at 10 a. m.; divine service at 11 a. m. The pastor, Rev. E. P. Hughes, preaching, and taking for his theme, "The Mutual Helpfulness We May Render in Life," based on Acts 3:6; Junior C. E. meeting at 4 p. m.; C. E. prayer meeting at 6:30 p. m.; and the evening service at 7:30 p. m., consisting of singing, responsive readings, prayer and an address by the pastor, "A Character Sketch; Mary of Bethany." It is the intention to make the services at this church short, brief, bright and helpful. Every one is cordially and heartily invited to attend any or all of these services.

William and James Dilley are not model boys. They sometimes keep bad company, and, indeed, some are swift to assert that they themselves are bad company. Along about December 22d they, with Alex Brodie, went to the cabin of Frank Lillie, whom they aroused about 11 o'clock at night that he might be frightened into getting some wine from a winery near by. This Frank would not do, and he further told them that they must go away or he would shoot them. Brodie stumbled over a water-trough and fell against the door, which gave way, allowing Brodie to be precipitated into the room at Lillie's feet. The intruder was too near to permit the use of a long gun, so that a scuffle ensued. The Dilley boys took part in the fray. The three of them used Lilly very roughly. Brodie next day rushed off to a justice of the peace, who this time was J. I. Knight, and plead guilty to an assault. Without knowing all the particulars, and supposing it a trivial matter, a fine of only $10 was levied. The Dilleys were arrested and brought before Magistrate Knight, when the whole story came out. Witnesses testified that Brodie plunged his whole weight against the door and broke it down purposely, or, if he stumbled over the trough, he commenced falling over it out in the yard and gathered momentum till he struck the door. The Dilleys were fined $20 each and costs. They said they would give their note, payable February 1st. The magistrate said that would do if they would get approved security. Not being able to do this, they are in jail for ten days. All this for a bottle of wine out in the country.

Making inquiry relative to diphtheria at Cornelius and vicinity, Dr. Bailey reports that the number of cases treated by him were seven in all, occurring in December and January. Three of the cases which showed very malignant symptoms were treated with the antitoxine serum. All have recovered and quarantine of the families has been raised. Speaking of antitoxine treatment, it is proper to state that Dr. Bailey has used it in twelve cases within the past fifteen months, and in every instance with marked beneficial results. No patient where the serum was used has died, though the attack was of the most malignant type. The remedy has not been used in mild attacks, not because of a lack of confidence in its efficacy, but because of the expense and the sufficiency of the older methods of treatment. Should a slight attack change to a malignant form, Dr. Bailey says he would resort to antitoxine at once. The other medical men of Hillsboro have also used the remedy, but their reports are not at hand.

The snow storm set in at Hillsboro a short time after 6 o'clock Wednesday morning, and continued till 6 o'clock in the evening, at which time the ground was covered to a depth of eight inches. The snow was dry, but, as no wind blew, there are no drifts. The trains in the afternoon were only twenty minutes late, and yesterday they were on time. Passengers from McMinnville state that at 6 o'clock Wednesday morning the snow was five inches deep at that place, which indicates that the storm commenced in the Upper Willamette some hours before it did here. It is probable that it is also deeper to the south of us. Yesterday evening a heavy rain set in and a slush resulted. The snow will not last long now.

Music on the lake! It was a little cool, to be sure, but the sky was clear, the stars twinkled and the sweet notes of harmony pulsated through the air and floated over the water till the most distant baylet sent back a soft echo. This all happened last Saturday evening, when the Hillsboro Reed and Cornet Band lashed two row boats together and voyaged out on Jackson lake, where they treated those assembled on the beach to a concert rarely enjoyed here. Summer is the time for music on the water, but as the lake is an oat field then, winter has to be chosen.

It is reported that carp may be taken in Jackson lake, south of town. Mr. Thorn, a few nights since, planned an excursion out on the shallow parts of the lake for the purpose of gigging the fish by the light of a torch, but the snow storm necessitated a postponement. If those grass eaters school into the lake as they do in some places, the meadows will suffer and the farmers will rue the day that the U. S. fish commissioner introduced them into Oregon waters.

"Secret Societies and Clubs" is the subject for discussion at the revival services at the M. E. church this evening. Sunday morning the pastor will preach on the subject, "The Ten Great Religions." Rev. G. W. Gue, D. D., of Portland, will preach in the evening. The class meeting, Sunday school, Junior League and Epworth League meet as usual. Quarterly conference will convene Monday morning, at 10:30.

Contractor Webster has completed Mr. Connell's new residence at the corner of Third and Lincoln streets. The structure is called a $1,500 building, but four years ago it would have cost $3,000. How Mr. Webster was able to get so good a building for that amount of money puzzles all who are accustomed to the old estimates. Mr. Connell has moved to his new home, with which he is more than pleased.

Wheat is more in demand than it has been, and at a better figure. A syndicate was formed here yesterday that controls 15,000 bushels to sell at 50 cents per bushel net, that is 50 cents clear of sacks, freight and warehouse charges, and it is understood that the offer includes all that can be placed upon the market at Hillsboro station. This deal empties $7,000 into the lap of farmers storing at this station.

They were enemies. At the last term of the circuit court Mary M. Halter sued J. J. Brock for damages for breach of promise to marry. Judgment was given for the plaintiff by default, and the 18th set for assessing damages, but before that time the litigants compromise their differences by marrying.

The city election at Forest Grove last Monday was an event of absorbing interest. There were a lot of tickets in the field. Hon. Samuel Hughes was re-elected mayor by a handsome majority.

The Glencoe Young Men's Republican Club will meet on Saturday evening, January 18th, for the purpose of electing delegates to the state league.

The state levy for taxes this year is 4.8 mills. Last year the levy was 3 mills. The county court will make the county levy next Monday.

Wiley & Dennis have a fine sleigh, just the thing for these snow-covered streets. The teams and turnouts from Wiley's are stylish.

Read A. S. Dudley's announcement. He has a proposition that will bring money to those who take advantage of the offer.

T. E. Cornelius has a well improved farm of 134 acres to rent. For full particulars, enquire of him at Cornelius. 31-34

For school shoes that will out-wear any other make, try a pair of our "Wear-Resisters." Schulmerich & Son.

We carry all the leading brands of rubbers and rubber boots at the lowest prices. Schulmerich & Son.

J. I. Knight has $1,200 to loan, on approved farm security, in one or two lots, for three or five years. tf

The Young Men's Republican Club is called together for Tuesday evening next, at Grange hall.

Schulmerich & Son have received another invoice of those water-proof shoes. Try a pair.

An owner of Portland city property offers to sell or trade. Consult the advertisement for further particulars.

R. L. Connor, deputy sheriff of Yamhill county, was in town yesterday.

All our ladies' and children's wraps will be sold at cost. Schulmerich & Son.

Fortunes are lost annually, directly and indirectly, by people who cannot do their own figuring, write their own letters, or keep their own books; and who do not know when business and legal papers which they must handle every day are made out correctly. ☞ All these things, and much more, we teach thoroughly.

Hundreds of our graduates are in good positions, and there will be openings for hundreds more when times improve. Now is the time to prepare for them.
