The two conventions happening this week have quite severely taxed the resources of the INDEPENDENT office. Much space is devoted to reports that are believed to be almost officially correct. The force in the composing room cheerfully put sleep from their eyes last night so that the paper is to be in the mails at the usual time, which is true of none of the county contemporaries.

Hillsboro Rebekah Lodge of Odd Fellows had the management of the anniversary ceremonies at their hall, on Saturday evening last. Counting the members of the lodge and their guests, there were over a hundred present. The excercises consisted of music and speeches, ending with a banquet. The speakers were Dr. Tameisie and Past Grand Tongue. Instrumental music on the violin was furnished by Masters Rowell and their sister. These young people play well, and the lodge, through their father, J. D. Rowell, claim them, at least till they are twenty-one years of age.

At the last term of the circuit court a divorce decree was entered dissolving the marriage contract between James and Maggie Lewis who lived in South Tualatin. What the cause of the quarrel was is not material now. Among the neighbors Maggie bears the reputation of being industrious and economical but somewhat high tempered. Jim is not so much so. About a week ago some of the young bloods of the community formed a charivari party and called upon the Widow Lewis. Her temper arose and she commenced shooting at the party. She aimed over their heads but it frightened them so that they left. Last Sunday night they returned with a full chorus. Mrs. Lewis had also got a new supply of ammunition and this time held low. The boys retreated in good order but made a stand at a distance of eighty or a hundred yards from the house. There is where they made a mistake. They should have kept going. Mrs. Lewis fired on them in their new position putting four shot in Fred Wilkin's leg. Dick Kamna had a tin match box in his vest pocket flattened, while two others, whose names we did not learn, were hit, one in the neck, the other in the face. Is the quarrel ended? It ought to be, now that the boys have tested the widow's courage.

Answering the call of Mayor Goodin, a large number of the citizens of Hillsboro met him last Friday evening, in the council chamber of city hall to take steps to properly celebrate Independence Day, July 4th next. It was first voted to celebrate the day at Hillsboro. The Veteran Association of Washington county was invited to camp with us on the 2d, 3d and 4th days of July. A committee of five was raised to report plans for the celebration. This committee consists of J. C. Hare, W. D. Wood, J. J. Morgan, H. V. Gates and Johnston Freeman. When this committee is ready to report, the mayor is to call another citizens' meeting. The meeting then adjourned.

POPULIST CONVENTION.

The populists' county nominating convention convened in their club room on last Tuesday morning and was called to order at 10 o'clock by A. O. Brown, chairman of the county central committee.

The first business was selecting a temporary chairman. Messrs. Heckert of Cornelius, J. C. Hare of Hillsboro, Lewis Ennis of Laurel and J. J. Seaton of Sherwood were placed in nomination. Messrs. Hare and Ennis declined, so the contest was between Hecket and Seaton. Hecket received 48 and Seaton 59 votes, though the chairman said Seaton had 60 votes. Seaton was chosen and on assuming the chair made a very nice little speech in which he gave good advice and counseled harmony. Evidently he had already noticed that such words of amity were needed. Ward Swope was chosen secretary by acclamation and E. S. Cheeder assistant secretary.

On motion a committee on resolutions, consisting of one from each precinct was raised, each delegation to name it's committee man. The committee as finally announced was:

Beaver dam, ———; Beaverton, J. W. Pike; Buxton, Max Burkholzer; Cornelius, J. A. Ruble; Columbia, J. C. Miller; Dairy, W. D. Hill; Dilley, Jos. Fisher; E Butte, C.J. Elliott; E Cedar Creek, W. Goble; Gales Creek, V. B. Sweeney; Mountain, H. B. Kenisten; N Hillsboro, A. C. Archbord; N Forest Grove, A. B. Brown; S Hillsboro, O. C. Zook; S Forest Grove, Robt. Kuhn; S Tualatin, A. B. McDonald; Wapato, H. A. Wald; W Butte, W. W. Trusdell; W Cedar, John Hamill; Washington, C. Hansen; Reedvill, ———.

A motion was made and carried appointing a committee of one from each precinct on credentials. Soon it was seen that such a committee was unweildy, wherefore the vote by which the motion adopted was reconsidered, but without amending the first motion, a new motion raising a committee of five was made and adopted. The old motion is therefore floating about now—a ghost

The committee on credentials was D Corwin, A. O. Brown, C. F. Casteel, F. Bukholzer and F. H. Durham."

Here Mr. Durham stated that he had not been regularly selected, but that the members of his club supposed that he was exofficio a delegate because he was president of the club. By a motion Durham was voted delegate and thus became elligible to act with the committee. Sanford moved that a committee of three on order of business be appointed. Corwin then made the innocent inquiry asking if Mr. Sanford was a member of the convention. That gentleman answered with some asperity that he was, had a proxy in his pocket. The committee was raised consisting of Sanford, Emery and T. Leady.

W. F. Timmons, a recent importation from California was called upon to speak. A delegate enquired "Who is this man from California? He may be a spy?" The gentleman showed a willingness to speak and promptly took the rostrum. From his self introduction, our people are to know him better as he has been engaged to do campaign work in this county for the next month. Timmons stands on the Omaha platform and is opposed to fusion.

The convention adjourned till one o'clock. In the meantime the delegates were invited to become the guests of the populist ladies of Hillsboro at dinner.

2. Report of committee on credentials.
2. Report of committee on resolutions and platform.
4. Nominate 1 state senator, 3 representatives, 1 county commissioner, 1 clerk, 1 sheriff, 1 recorder, 1 treasurer, 1 assessor, 1 school superintendent, 1 surveyor, 1 coroner.

8. We recommend that Hon. W. F. Timmons, Hon. W. S. Vanderhurg and Hon. W. D. Hare be made honary delegates of this convention with all rights and privileges except voting.

A motion to adopt was made.

Delegate Corwin moved to amend that after the nominations of precinct officers be ratified, and before the nomination of county officers, he convention adjourned till Friday. The motion to amend was voted down by a large majority. The original motion was then adopted.

The convention, while waiting for the report of the committee on resolutions, ratified the nomination of precinct officers as follows:

Beaverdam—Not represented.

Beaverton—J L Morelock, justice of the peace; W B Anderson, constable.

Buxton—Chas Peterson, justice of the peace; E E Stucker, constable.

W Cedar—John Campbell, justice of the peace; W A Pulley, constable.

Washington—Chas Hickenbottom, justice of the peace; Wendall Davis, constable.

Reedville—No representation.

Mr. Timmons while still waiting made another short speech. To a republican, some of his statements seemed very loose, for instance, in 1865 he asserted there were $75. per capita in circulation among the people while in 1896 he thought the "best authorities" estimated that there are but $4.00 per capita. He further thought money should be issued by the government until it reached not $50.00 per capita but $60.00 thus verifying what republicans have said many times, that when $50.00 was reached more would be demanded.

A recess of thirty minutes was declared while waiting for the resolutions committee.

The committee on resolutions reported as follows:

"We would recomend that our legislators be instructed to pass a good and sufficient stay law for the payment of debts as in their wisdom they shall deem necessary to protect all debtors.

"We demand of our candidates for the legislative assembly of the state of Oregon that they use their best endeavors to secure the passage of a bill fixing the following salaries for the county officers of this county, to wit:

County clerk	$1000
Sheriff	1000
Recorder	800
Assessor	$2.50 per day.

"That the county school superintendent devote his or her entire time if necessary to the duties of said office and be not allowed to hold any other position of emclument during the time of said office.

"That we endorse the fundamental principles of the Omaha platform and the state platform as adopted at Salem.

The report was adopted resolution by resolution. No objection was made to any resolution until that one recommending salaries was reached. Here an attempt was made to raise the sheriff's stipend to $1200, but it was not successful. A fight ensued on assessors fees. Some wanted to allow $3.00 per day, but a parlimentary tangle left it as reported by the committee. One delegate wanted to know why the school superintendents salary was not fixed. A committeeman replied that the salary was now $600 and none too large. Finally the resolution was adopted as reported.

Mr. Heckett submitted a resolution requiring nominees for office to produce evidence to the effect that they had been recognized as populists for a period of one years, and second, making a populist ineligible for office for a term of four years who shall have been nominated for a position and resigned from the ticket. The resolution was unceremoniously tabled.

The convention proceeded then to the nomination of a county ticket.

For state senator Messrs. A. B. McDonald, John Prickett, L. A. Rood, E. C. Schulmerich, A. C. Archbold, Rev. Anderson, Jos. Bucher and J. J. Seaton were put in nomination. McDonald, Rood, J. J. Seaton, Anderson and Archbold withdrew, but the convention refused to consider Judge Archbold's declination. Mr. Schulmerich's populism was called in question. A delegate wanted to know if he had not been a delegate to the late state democratic convention. Mr. S. said that he was. The Omaha platform was administered as an oath. Mr. Schulmerich said he believed in the free coinage of silver, the initiative and referendum and the fundamental principles of the platform. A delegate, young and full of zeal, demanded "Is he a populist?" "What is a populist?" That settled it and Mr. Seulmerich refused to allow his name to be used.

The ballot stood:

Prickett	33
Archbold	77
Bucher	11
Total	121

So Archbold was nominated.

For representatives W. H. Black, J. P. Prickett, Lewis Ennis' Max Bergholzer, W.M.Tipton, Jos.Bucher, J. C. Hare, and Wm. Schmulerich were nominated. Black, Bergholzer, Hare and Schmulerich refused to allow their names to be used.

The ballot stood:

Prickett	17
Ennis	20
Tipton	83
Bucher	3
Total	123

So Tipton was nominated for the first representative.

On the next ballot J. W. Barnes of Beaverton was put in nomination. The other nominees were continued.

The vote stood:

Barnes	11
Ennis	69
Prickett	38
Bucher	2
Total	120

So Ennis was named. For third representative the vote stood:

Prickett	69
Barnes	9
Bergholzer	42
Total	120

So Prickett was nominated.

For county commissioner there were two nominations:

V B Sweeney	94
Wm Schulmerich	28
Total	122

Sweeney was nominatd.

The Sheriff, Messrs Dan Emerick, Wm. Schulmerich, A. J. Veach, J. J. Seaton, Archie Wilkes, S. H. Dunbar and J. C. Hare were nominted, Schulmerich, Seaton, Dunbar, and Hare withdrew.

The vote stood.

Emrick	58
Veach	8
Wilkes	52
Blank	3
Total	121

No nomination.

Second ballot.

Emerick	64
Wilkes	56
Blank	1
Total	121

So Emrick was nominated. The convention then adjourned till 9 o'clock Wednesday morning.

The convention met Wednesday morning pursuant to adjournment. Mr. Ward Swope not being present V. B. Sweeney was selected assistant secretary. W. J. Ingraham was authorized to cast the vote of West Butte. The nomination of candidates was resumed.

For recorder of conveyances Messrs F. M. Heidel, B. G. Levy, E. H. Jeters and J. P. Hecket were placed before the convention. Hecket declined.

The vote stood:

Heidel	82
Levy	17
Jeter	26
Blank	2
Total	126

So Heidel was nominated.

For county treasurer B. G. Levy, A. O. Brown, E. H. Jeter, A. Pike, Max Bergholzer were nominate. Here the convention commenced to study geography. Some sections had no representation on the ticket but wanted some. The debate ending when it was considered that location is not material.

The vote stood.

Levy	39
Brown	78
Bergholzer	1
Jeter	3
Blank	2
Total	123

For assessor the nominations were J. Campbell, J. C. Miller, H. B. Keniston, B. G. Levy, M. H. Henderson, David Corwin, J. F. Hainey, and C. S. Veach. Campbell and Corwin declined.

The first ballot stood.

Miller	18
Keniston	58
Levy	16
Henderson	19
Hainery	8
Veach	6
Total	125

So there was no nomination, Levy, Hainey and Veach were withdrawn.

The second ballot stood.

Miller	30
Keniston	75
Henderson	20
Total	125

Tha nominee for assessor is H. B. Keniston of Mountain precinct.

For superintendent of common schools Mrs. W. E. Thorn and Miss Anna Luster werenamed. Mrs. Thorn was present and made a neat little speech in response tocalls for that purpose. SheendorsedtheOmahaplatform and was accepted. Someone called in question Miss Luster's populism. She was not present nor had a friend to speak for her.

The vote stood:

Thorn	114
Luster	12
Blank	1
Total	127

So Mrs. Thorn was nominated though there was one delegate who had the temerity to say that there were more votes counted than there were delegates to cast them. It was explained that the votes counted "blank" might have accidently been deposited. The tellers exploded this theory by stating that the ballots counted blank had that word plainly written on it, showing that it must have been deliberately deposited. The irregularity was overlooked however.

The nomination for county surveyor being reached, a motion was made to leave the office vacant. This raised such a howl that the mover hastened to withdraw his motion. Thos. Wilkes and G. L. Perrine were nominated. Wilkes' fealty to the party was called in question. His friends asserted his populism and called attention to the fact that Perrine, the other nominee, is a bricklayer and not a land surveyor. This objection was answered by the statement that Perrine could hire his work done and then make money. Wilkes' name was finally withdrawn and Perrine was nominated under a a suspension of the rules.

For coroner Robt. Coon, who had been the wit of the convention, was nominated under a suspension of the rules.

If there were two factions in the convention, the strength of each was shown when a chairman of the central committee was choosen. The nominees were J. C. Hare, of Hillsboro, and J. J. Seaton, of Sherwood. The vote stood:

Hare	57
Seaton	65
Blank	2
Total	124

Seaton was chosen. He had presided over the convention with great fairness, and while at some times he was somewhat awkard, yet he exhibited skill and tact in the management of the sometimes uproarious delegates.

In the selection of the central committeemen the wrangle of the convention occurred, but was finally settled when it was learned that all the precincts in the county had already chosen a committeeman except W. Cedar, which had lost its committeeman by the election of Seaton to be chairman of the committee. John Campbell was named in his stead. In Reedville precinct Charles Willaughby was named.

Resolutions of thanks were adopted expressive of the feelings the convention had for the Hillsboro club, which had entertained them during the convention.

The convention adjourned,

Electric Bitters.

Electric Bitters is a medicine suited for any season, but perhaps more generally needed, when the languid exhausted feeling prevails, when the liver is torpid and sluggish and the need of a tonic and alterative is felt. A prompt use of this medicine has often averted long and perhaps fatal bilious fevers. No medicine will act more surely in counteracting and freeing the system from the malarial poison. Headache, constipation, dizziness yield to Electric Bitters. 50c and $1 per bottle at the Hillsboro Pharmacy.

Marvelous Results.

From a letter written by Rev. J. Gunderman, of Dimondale, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: "I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist church at Rivers Junction she was brought down with pneumonia succeeding la grippe. Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last hours with little interruption and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery; it was quick in its work and highly satisfactory in results." Trial bottles free at Hillsboro Pharmacy. Regular size 50c and $1.

DEATH TO FRUIT PESTS.

To make the Orchard pay you must spray, winter and summer, with Prof. Brown's Insect Exterminator. The only Insecticide known that will kill all Insect life without injury to Tree, Fruit or Foliage.

Endorsed by the individual members of the State Board of Horticulture of California, Oregon and Washington. Used by many Nurserymen and Orchardists. My winter wash is the only solution that will kill the woolly Aphis, (use only while the foliage is off.) My summer wash is a sure destroyer of the codling Moth Eggs, and all insects except Woolly Aphis, (use just after the blossoms fall off.) My Hop Louse wash kills all insects that infest vines, vegetables or plants.

The ingredients used in my formulas can be found in any drug store, costs much less than other washes. (Full and explicit directions for mixing and using.)

Knowing I have a sure remedy, some unprincipled parties are now selling imitations. Therefore, to discourage all such parties I have concluded (for a short time only,) to reduce the price of the three formulas to $2.50 by mail to any address. Formulas Copyrighted, January 14, 1890.
