

HILLSBORO INDEPENDENT. FRIDAY, AUGUST 7.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

Straw hats at cost at Schulmerich's. A new sewing machine for $20.00 cash at the Hillsboro Bazaar.

Call at the Hillsboro Bazaar if you want goods at your own price.

Glass and China ware, the cheapest ever sold in Hillsboro at the Bazaar.

Call on Humphreys for loans on good property, also farms to rent and to sell.

A good sewing machine to trade for a cow, wood, hay or grain at the Bazaar.

The place to get gingham and summer dress goods is at Schulmerich & Son.

J. I. Knight is prepared to make loans of from $50 to $1,000. See him and get his terms.

Why take bread when you can exchange your flour or wheat for bread at the City Bakery.

Call at Patterson's furniture store for all paper and floor matting at greatly reduced prices.

Schulmerich & Son have just received a new invoice of blankets from 75 cents a pair, up.

John D. Rowell, reported sick last week is no better. He is confined to his bed and attended by doctors.

A large assortment of wall paper and matting at Patterson's Furniture Store at a great reduction over all former prices.

There will be but one meeting of the W. B. C. in August and one in September, that one occurring the 3rd Friday in each month.

The INDEPENDENT will furnish the New York Weekly Tribune to political clubs till after the November election at the reduced rate of 15 cts. per copy.

Schulmerich & Son sell chilled and steel plows, spring tooth, peg and disc harrows and cultivators also Osborne machinery and extras for the same.

A brother of Judge Crandall's surprised him a few evenings ago by appearing at his home unannounced. It was a pleasant surprise since the "boys" had not met for several years.

Yesterday the carpenters closed Scholls bridge for travel. It will remain closed for ten days until the repairs now making shall have been completed.

Congressman Elect Tongue addresses today at Mehan's a session of soldiers living in Mehan and Lun counties. Next week he addresses a similar reunion in Ashland, Jackson county.

Subscriptions to the INDEPENDENT and New York Weekly Tribune will be received for the next four months for 30 cents. The Tribune needs no introduction to an American public. The price is that of white paper.

Get a fireless fire insurance policy backed by a first-class company by calling on J. I. Knight, for the same price or less than you will pay for one of a wild cat company. Remember your late experience with the deceased State of Salem.

The cheap rates of $12 cabin and $6 steerage, including meals and berth, are still in effect on the O. I. & N. Co's steamers, from Portland to San Francisco. Steamers leave Portland every five days. For further particulars see J. I. Knight, Hillsboro.

This season, though unusual, is not without precedent. In 1869 we had a rain of ten days in August that damaged all the wheat and oats in the Willamette valley, except the very early wheat, that was put away in the granary before the rain commenced. About fifteen years ago we had another wet August. The forecast is for continued showery weather.

The S. P. Company has not taken off the flying train between Portland and San Francisco. The standard rate is now established. Including berths the tickets for Pullman standard sleepers are $19 and for Pullman tourist sleepers $10. A train starts every five days leaving Portland at 10 p. m. The next train leaves Portland Monday, Aug., 10th.

We have received the ninth edition (just out) of Opp's Mining Code published by Henry N. Copp, a lawyer of Washington, D. C., who has given many years to the study of mining laws. It is a book of more than 200 pages, and will be found of great interest to mine owners and prospectors, as it gives the United States mineral land laws and the official instructions under the various laws and territorial mining laws, miners' liens, rights of way, etc., numerous forms for use from the location to the patenting, lease and sale of a mine, and also a large collection of abstracts of court and land office decisions and rulings. It will be an indispensable work to every mining man.

The San Francisco News Company handles Mr. Copp's publication on the Pacific coast. The book is for sale by the principal book stores and by the publisher in Washington, D. C. The price is 50 cents.

On Saturday morning last after a dry spell since June 10th almost two months, rain commenced falling. Over half an inch of water was thrown on the ground. The first of the roads is laid, and forest fires are extinguished and all harvest work is suspended. The rain of Saturday seems to have been general throughout the Willamette valley, though the coast counties were slightly washed. A few days later, in part of Washington county, hard showers have since fallen and damaged to cut grain that is in the field is resulting. Oats and wheat that are in the sheaf are sprouting especially where the bundles are on the ground. The heavy rain will be a great benefit to the crops generally, but to be varied with local forecasts. Predictions of water will come from the Coast. The weather will be a great benefit to the crops generally, but to be varied with local forecasts. Predictions of water will come from the Coast.

FROM ALASKA. Mr. Rufus Wagener, of this place who went to Alaska in May, writes as follows from Sunrise City in his family in Hillsboro under date of June 29th:

We landed here last Monday after a long, tedious trip of 24 days owing to light winds and calm weather. The accommodations on board were good, but most of the passengers were sea-sick, although I was not.

We saw many wild, porpoises, etc. I caught plenty of salmon and over 200 pounds of cod fish, one of the latter weighing 25 pounds.

The reports as to mining are very discouraging, but it is too soon to form an opinion of what is here as the water is high and the frost not all out of the ground. It is reported that most of the good claims are taken up, but we will investigate for ourselves.

Things are nearly as cheap here as at home.

It is estimated there are 1,500 men on Six mile creek—where we are—and nearly as many more on Bear creek. I had not seen an Indian since leaving Seattle until yesterday, when some came around peddling moose meat.

There is scarcely any night here to speak of and one can see to read easily until after ten o'clock p. m.

The country is very rugged, the mountains coming down to the waters' edge, while the creek bottoms are narrow and covered with a scrubby growth of spruce, hemlock and birch. The principal wild animals are porcupines, moose and bear.

We are busy trying to find if there are any claims likely to pay anything that have not been located. In a few days we expect to go to Twenty-mile creek, which has not been prospected much. There has been no rain at all since our arrival here.

HOOD VIEW. The much longed for rain has arrived and the dust and smoke have vanished.

Mrs. Lillie Jolly spent a few days in Portland this week.

Mrs. Orman was a guest at Mrs. Sasse's week.

Mrs. Pauline Jolly was with her mother and aunt, Mrs. Toose a few weeks recently.

Mrs. Lettie Baker and family, Miss Nettie Wood and Miss Jessie Reggs are at Nestucca.

J. W. Graham is at home for a few days.

L. L. Davidson and Reed Graham are entertaining pet teeth and neuralgia.

Mrs. Fanny Spencer is visiting her cousins Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Epler.

Mrs. L. A. Young and Mrs. Twink Graham were guests at their cousins Mrs. Schaefer's Sunday and Monday.

Grant Linecarter and family and Mr. Judd Seely and family are still at the bath.

Mr. Hanson Linecarter is grubbing and cleaning quite a nice piece of land in the swamp.

Mr. Boeborg's are building a nice new house.

M. C. Young, wife and family and Mr. Robert Graham were visiting at the home of their cousin Mr. J. K. Buchanan in Cornetis the latter part of this week and while there took in all the sights of Hillsboro and Forest Grove.

A new daughter arrived at the home of William Nunay recently.

WEEKLY CLIMATE AND PROPHECY. WESTERN OREGON.

Weather—Cooler and less smoke, though more clouds, have prevailed during the past week, with rain Friday night, Saturday and an occasional rain shower Sunday.

The rain was the heaviest in Portland, where 0.63 of an inch fell; at Roseburg 0.11 inch fell, and from there decreasing to 0.03 of an inch in Jackson county. The rain fall was unusual and unexpected, and not produced by any general storm movement, but more a local 3 deg. cooler than the week preceding, the lower temperature occurring in the day time. The heat of day averaged 76 deg., as against 83 deg. of the week before, while the night temperature averaged 56 deg., the same as the preceding week. The winds have been light in force, and from the south to west in direction.

Crops—Harvesting of fall-owned wheat, of oats and barley is well along, and some threshing has been done. The rains have done no injury to the oat grain, and will do no injury unless they should be long continued, which is not expected. The rains were a benefit to late-planted potatoes, to pasture to corn to gardens and to hops. Such rain as has prevailed is very unusual at this season of the year, but it will be of much benefit to the crops, and we are confident that the opinion that the crops will be a success is well founded.

MINING UNDER THE OCEAN. Men Who Have to Dig and Dive Six Pathos—One Below the Surface.

There is a striking example of man's boldness in searching for wealth and his skill in securing it at the bottom of the sea.

At Datalock, near Cape Corvauw, Alaska, a bold headland composed of huge masses of hornblende, masked by walls of slate, against which the Atlantic surges are constantly dashing.

The persevering efforts of man have at this point been more powerful than those of nature.

"Kibbles" descend fathoms beneath the sea, and ascend again with copper or tin ores, which are wheeled away to larger hoists, where women, boys and girls separate various qualities with the systematic industry of workers in a factory.

Everybody and everything—rocks, platforms and pulleys—is smeared with the prevailing red hue derived from a slight mixture of iron with copper or tin ores, and then the very muddy stream flowing from the stamp mill to the sea has imparted to the beach, the breakers and the foam the same rubicund tinge.

If ore is coming up plentifully and of good quality, everybody is pleased, and far down to the bottom of the sea below, the rats, which flourish in legends people with spirits, the moths that a new "hunch" of copper has been struck, or the old hole is growing richer, fills the workers with professional joy.

As the visitor creeps along the passages into which the light of day has never entered, he hears comparatively little of the darkness, barely illuminated by the flicker of lamps, but he is struck by the stalwart nature of the work.

Coming from the upper world and the din of heavy stamping and machinery above and the roar of the sea below, the rat, the crowd of men and boys climbing up and down paths which seem to be too steep for a goat, the modified silence of the level strikes one as unnatural.

In places, however, the guide may ask the visitor to listen to a curious sound. It is the booming of the waves above and the grating of the stones on the sea bottom. Then he is told, to give him courage, that in some of the recesses of this first level the ore has been cut away until a roof of not more than six feet thick has been left.

First worked on the face of the cliffs only, the mine descended, level by level, until the excavations extended for more than six fathoms inland, while the greatest depth to which it has been sunk is about 2,000 feet.—San Francisco Chronicle.

Called Back. A commercial traveler for a London firm secured an order for £1,000 in the west of England, and, as it was not duly acknowledged, wrote a letter to the firm calling special attention to it and saying, "I thought you would consider such an order quite a feather in my cap."

In reply he received this note from his principal, "We have filed your order, and in case you have any further orders, please send them to the firm: 'The people who gave you the £1,000 order have failed, and we lost the goods. We have this day sent you a bagful of feathers for you to fly home with, as we do not want you out on the road for us any more.'—Strand Magazine.

Youth is not the age of pleasure. We then expect too much, and we are, therefore, exposed to daily disappointments and mortifications. When we are a little older and have brought down our wishes to our experience, then we become calm and begin to enjoy ourselves.

Some of the old fellows wrote tragedies—dull, cold, heavy productions, every line of which they had polished till what little soul it originally possessed had been rubbed out of it. Such incidents as the dramas could boast were drowned under floods of talk. If he wished to stab his wife, he stood still with uplifted dagger while he poured out a good 500 rhymed alexandrines, and while he rested after this tremendous performance the lady "got off her chest," as actors call it, a like amount of verse in the shape of an appeal about as passionate and heart-stirring as those heard in the law courts when a barrister is showing cause why a mandamus should be issued.—All the Year Round.

The anonymous respectable British person for the synonym for "sanguinary" is almost as extraordinary as its popularity with the lower classes. In days gone by O'Connell spoke of the "base, bloody and brutal Whigs," and The Times, in reporting him, rendered it very ingeniously, with a view to exhibit his bad language, as the "base, bloody and brutal Whigs."

Money Made In A Minute.

I have not made less than sixteen dollars any day while selling Centrifugal Ice Cream Freezers.

Any one should make from five to eight dollars a day selling cream, and from seven to ten dollars selling freezers, as it is a wonder, there is always a crowd wanting cream. You can freeze cream elegantly in one minute and that astonishes people so they all want to taste it.

Now, therefore, I have at the Independent Office, a supply of the best cream, smooth and perfectly frozen. Every freezer is guaranteed to freeze cream perfectly in one minute. Anyone can sell ice cream and the freezer sells itself. My sister makes from ten to fifteen dollars a day.

J. E. Casey & Co., 114 1/2 Charles St., St. Louis, Mo., will mail you full particulars free, so you can go to work and make lots of money anywhere, as with one freezer you can make a hundred gallons of cream a day, or if you wish they will hire you on a salary.

A Chance to Make Money. I have berries, grapes and peaches, a year old, fresh as when picked. I use the California Cold process, and do not heat or cook the fruit, just put it in a bushel in ten minutes. Last week I sold directions to over 120 families; anyone will pay a dollar for directions, anyone who will see the beautiful samples of fruit, and there are many people poor like myself, I consider it my duty to give my experience to such, and feel confident any one can make one or two hundred dollars round home in a few days. I will mail samples of fruit and complete directions to any of your readers for fifteen two-cent stamps, which is the only actual cost of the samples, postage, etc., to me.

FRANCIS CASEY, St. Louis, Mo.

What a Woman can Do. Last week I cleared, after paying all expenses, $345.25, the month previous I had $1,000 at the same time attended to other duties. I believe any energetic person can do equally as well as I have had very little experience. The Dish Washer is just lovely and every family wants one, which makes selling very easy. It is no canvassing. People hear about the Dish Washer and come or send for one. It is strange that a good, cheap Dish Washer has never been put on the market. The Mound City Dish Washer fills the bill. With it you can wash ten to fifteen dishes for a family of ten to twenty without wetting your hands. As soon as people see the Washer work they want one. You can make more money and make it quicker than with any other household article on the market. I feel confident that any lady or gentleman can make from $10 to $14 per day round home. You can get full particulars by addressing THE MOUND CITY WASHING CO., St. Louis, Mo. They help get you started, then you can make money awful fast.

The Ideal Paeanes. Jas. L. Francis, alderman, Chicago, says: "I regard Dr. King's New Disinfectant as an ideal paean for coughs, colds and lung complaints, having used it in my family for the last five years, to the exclusion of physician's prescriptions or other preparations."

Rev. John Burgess, Keokuk, Ia., writes: "I have been a minister of the Methodist Episcopal church for fifty years or more, and have never found anything so beneficial or so useful as Dr. King's New Discovery. Try this kind cough remedy now. Trial bottles free at Hillsboro Pharmacy."
