There is a rumor on the street that a hay buyer has offered $9 per ton for hay f. o. b. at Hillsboro station. The story could not be verified yesterday, but if the purchaser is in earnest he will doubtless get all he wants unless our growers are able to hold till May of next year. A short hay crop on the Columbia river bottom is given as the reason for the enquiry.

What action is taking for a county exhibit at the Portland fair this fall? We have the usual quantity of wheat to show. We have better fruit than usual where the frost has left any. We have better corn than ever before, finer hay, garden vegetables are good. It is idle to say there is not material for an exhibit. Transportation is free. Let not this advertising opportunity slip.

Many alterations are being made in the interior arrangements of the huge structure in which the fair is held, especial attention is being paid to those who attend in many ways besides the music and exhibits. Every night something special will be given for the amusement of visitors. Frequent excursions, at extremely low rates of fare, will be run on all railroads, and special rates will be given at other times on all lines in Oregon, Washington and Idaho. Both in the variety and quality of the exhibits and in its special attractions the fair will be far superior to and of its predecessors.

Last Thursday, August 20th, while loading saw-logs on a truck at Carsten's mill, Charles Soehren was caught by a rolling log and instantly killed. One log was already on the truck and a second one was started from a side hill on to the skids which were on a slight incline toward the wagon. Mr. Soehren was to stop the log before it rolled to the wagon, by holding a block on the skid. The momentum of the heavy timber was greater than usual and was not checked by the block so that the head of the unfortunate man was caught between the two logs and crushed. Death came instantly.

The deceased was born at Santa Clara Chi. December 25th 1874. He came with his parants to Washington county in 1881, where he has ever since resided. After his fathers death in February 1890, Charley had been, most of the time in the employ of Carsten Bros. He was the third of a family of eight children and the first to be called away by death. The remaining members of the family now reside in Southern California except one sister, Mrs. L. E. Wilks, who is here in Hillsboro. The deceased was most exemplary in his habits and was a general favorite in society, but misfortune seemed to follow him as he has had several severe experiences one of which occurred a little over a year ago and came nearly ending his life. The accident by which he lost his life was the result of an unfortunate chain of events and no blame can be attached to any one. Death was instantaneous and without a struggle.

A large concourse of people followed the remains to the Wilkes Cemetery where he was laid beside his father and left to his last repose.

Next Sabbath the Congregational church will be open for the usual service. The pastor, Rev. Evan P. Hughes, has returned from camp at Soda Springs, where he and his family have spent their vacation. The members and attendants of this church are earnestly requested to take note of this notice, and by their presence on Sunday help start the winter work with energy and enthusiasm.

The Club adjorned to meet again Saturday Sept. 5th., at which time there will be speaking by an orator yet to be named.

Mr. E. C. Brown, of the Pharmacy, starts east to-day for a six weeks visit. He is apparently anxious for some of the Hillsboro young men to go along for company, but completely indifferent about their companionship for the return trip. If E. C. had ever been on the other side of the Rockies one might think it a case of the "girl I left behind me" but as it is, there must be "a girl that's gone before."

Mr. A. Pfanner who had already built up a large business at Forest Grove, as a private banker, has purchased all the stock of the Forest Grove bank and is now sole owner of that institution. Mr. Keep retires because of ill health. Mr. Pfanner's purchase of the Forest Grove bank only further strengthens that before solid institution. Since Mr. Pfarner owned all the stock, there was no necessity of maintaining the old corporation, hence it has been dissolved.

Money Made in a Minute.

I have not made less than sixteen dollars any day while selling Centrifugal Ice Cream Freezers. Any one should make from five to eight dollars a day selling cream, and from seven to ten dollars selling freezers, as it is such a wonder, there is always a crowd wanting cream. You can freeze cream elegantly in one minute and that astonishes people so they all want to taste it and then many of them buy freezers as the cream is smooth and perfectly froozen. Every freezer is guaranteed to freeze cream perfectly in one minute. Anyone can sell ice cream and the freezer sells itself. My sister makes from ten to fifteen dollars a day. J. F. Casey & Co., 1143 St. Charles St., St. Louis, Mo., will mail you full particulars free, so you can go to work and make lots of money anywhere, as with one freezer you can make a hundred gallons of cream a day, or if you wish they will hire you on a salary. HOW OTHERS SEE US.

Mr. F. B. Mackinder who with his friend Mr. Alexander, were guests with Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Warren during the first part of the month publishes this gossipy paragraph in his paper the St. Helena Star, of his visit in Washington county:

The reputation for hospitality California enjoys is world wide, but while I would be the last to detract one whit from fame, I found one place in our travels where the people cannot be excelled and are rarely ever equaled for the free-hearted and open-handed welcome extended and the pleasent times afforded strangers in their midst. This condition I found in no uncertain measure at Hillsboro and now that I have tasted the sweets of life among newly formed friends I feel competent to write in this way.

Hillsboro is the county seat of Washington county and has a population of 1500. We expected to find and had associated the name to imply a town on the hills. Not so, however, the place receiving its name from an early pioneer named Hill. The town is very old and consequently some of the buildings are unattractive and of rather inferior architecture. Being close to Portland it is not the buisness center it would otherwise be, but the stores are well patronized and the merchants prosperous and contented. It is the distributing point for a rich and fertile valey which annually yields to honest tillers of the soil rich harvests of wheat, oats, rye, barley, corn, potatoes and fruit.

The second town of importance is Forest Grove, six miles distant. There is located Pacific university. The town has a typical college air, the streets are lined with beautiful shade trees and it is a delightful place in which to reside. The Pacific university, through which we were shown by Prof. Marsh, was established in 1850 and is under the control of the Congregational church. A large number of talented graduates reflect credit upon the institution, among whom I mention H. W. Scott, the noted editor of the Oregonian in Portland, and Thos. H. Tongue who was elected in June as representive to Congress by the republican party. While in Hillsboro myself and friend met and were entertained by Hon. T. H. Tongue and family, Capt. J. D. Merryman, cashier of the First National Bank, and his family, Mr. Bryan, one of the leading merchants, Messrs Gale and Peryne, of light and water company, Mrs. Waggner and family of the Tualatin Hotel. Dr. Linklater, one of the leading physicians, and last but not least, D. M. C. Gault, editor of the the INDEPENDENT, the leading newspaper.

These pleasant friends are responsible for over two weeks enjoyment of two Californias and their part will always be associated by me as the most agreeable portion of a delightful outing.

Did You Ever Make Money Easy?

MR. EDITOR: I have read how Mr. C. E. B. made so much money in the Dish Washer business and think I have beat him. I am very young yet and have had little experience in selling goods, but have made over eight hundred dollars in ten weeks selling dish washers. It is simply wonderful how easy it is to sell them. All you have to do is to show the ladies how they work and they cannot help but buy one. For the benefit of others, I will state that I got my start from the Mound City Dish Washer Co., St. Louis, Mo. Write to them and they will send you full particulars.

I think I can clear over $3000 the coming year, and I am not going to let the opportunity pass. Try it and publish your success for the benefit of others. J. F. C.

Condensed Testimony.

Chas. B. Hood, Broker and Manufacturer's Agent, Columbus Ohio, certifies that Dr. King's New Discovery has no equal as a cough remedy. J. L. Brown, Prop. St. James Hotel, Ft. Wayne, Ind., testifies that he was cured of a cough of two years standing, by Dr. King's New Discovery. B. F. McFrill, Baldwinsville, Mass., says that he has used and recommended it and never knew it to fail and would rather have it than any doctor, because it always cures. Mrs. Hemming, 222 E. 25th St. Chicago, always keeps it at hand and has no fear of Croup, because it instantly relieves. Free Trial Bottles at Hillsboro Pharmacy.

THE GOLD BILL OF 1834.

It was not many years after our mints had begun coining gold and silver at the ratio of 15 to 1 that it began to be evident that the ratio undervalued gold, and gold began to grow scare, and, though our coinage of gold continued to be considerable, by 1817 it had practically disappeared from circulation. The facilities of the mint were simply used by merchants to certify the weight and fineness of gold for exportation. From that time on scarcely a session of congress passed without some movement on the subject in one house or the other.

In 1834, what was called the gold bill, and which subsequently passed, changing the ratio between gold and silver and purposely overvaluing gold, was introduced by a special committee of the house of representatives.

According to Mr. Horace White, in his recent work on Money and Banking, the debates in congress and the discussions in the press show that three considerable forces were at work in favor of the bill.

One was the desire to have gold in circulation, thus forcibly expressed by Mr. Thomas H. Benton, who declared that what he was working for was: "To enable the friends of gold to go to work at the right place to effect the recovery of that precious metal which their fathers once possessed, which the subjects of the European kings now possess, which the young republics to the south all possess, which even the free negroes of San Domingo possess, but which the yoemanry of this America have been deprived of for more than twenty years, and will be deprived of forever unless they discover the cause of the evil and apply the remedy to its roots."

Another reason was the general belief that if the mint valuation of gold was raised it would serve as a measure of protection to the industry of gold mining in the Southern States, the product of which had risen from $5,000 in 1824, to $868,000 in 1833.

The third motive was due to the bank controversy then raging. The supporters of Gen. Jackson, who was against the banks, were generally supporters of the gold bill. They contended that the silver standard promoted the circulation of bank notes because silver was bulky and heavy, and that the gold standard would curtail bank note circulation because gold was easily handled. The opponents of banks in general, and especially of the United States bank, were generally supporters of the bill.

The bill, as reported originally, made the ratio 15.6 to 1, but when it came up for discussion Mr. Campbell P. White, who had charge of it moved an amendment, fixing the ratio at 16 to 1, and it was adopted without a division. A subsequent amendment was offered fixing the ratio at 15.625 to 1, on the ground that those figures represented the true commercial ratio, and would keep both metals in circulation, while the adoption of the ratio of 16 to 1 would drive silver out of circulation. The amendment fixing the ratio of 15.625 to 1 was, nevertheless, rejected, and the bill fixing the ratio at 16 to 1, or really 16.002 to 1, was passed by a vote of 145 to 36 in the house and in the senate by 35 to 7.

Silver was purposely driven out of circulation, and we were purposely put on a gold basis, and have been on a gold standard ever since. Such was "the crime of 1834."—Lousville, Ky., Commercial.

Mr. Balfour's assurance that the Venezuelan dispute is in process of satisfactory adjustment, on the line of "the latest proposals of Secretary Olney," goes to show that England recognizes the necessity of heeding the objections of the United States to her real estate speculations on this side of the Atlantic.

A Valuable Prescription.

Editor Morrison, of Worthington, Ind., "Sun," writes: "You have a valuable prescription in Electric Bitters, and I can cheerfully recommend it for constipation and sick headache, and as a general system tonic it has no equal." Mrs. Annie Stehle, 2625 Cottage Grove Ave., Chicago, was all run down, could not eat nor digest food, had a backache which never left her and felt tired and weary, but six bottles of Electric Bitters restored her health and renewed her strength. A Churn that Churns in one Minute.

I have been in the dairy business all my life and have many times churned for an hour before butter would appear, so when I heard of a churn that churns in a minute, I concluded to try it. Every day for a week I have used it, and not only could I churn in a minute, but I got more and better butter than with the common churn. This is very important information to butter makers. The churn works easily, and will churn an ordinary churning in less than 60 seconds. I have sold two dozen of these churns in the past month. Every butter maker that has seen me churn in less than a minute has bought one. You can obtain all desired information regarding the churn by addressing J. F. Casey & Co., St., Louis, and they will give you prompt and courteous attention.

A Chance to Make Money.

I have berries, grapes and peaches, a year old, fresh as when picked. I use the California Cool process, do not heat or seal the fruit, just put it up cold, keeps perfectly fresh, and costs almost nothing; can put u a bushel in ten minutes. Last week I sold directions to over 120 families; anyone will pay a dollar for directions, when they see the beautiful samples of fruit. As there are many people poor like myself, I consider it my duty to give my experience to such, and feel confident any one can make one or two hundred dollars round home in a few days. I will mail samples of fruit and complete directions, to any of your readers, for eighteen two-cent stamps, which is the only actual cost of the samples, postage, etc., to me.

Another Smart Woman.

My husband is poor but proud and he does not want me to work, as I have nothing to do I get restless, and after reading in your paper Mrs. Russell's experience selling self-heating flatiorns I concluded I would try it. I wrote to J. F. Casey & Co., St. Louis, Mo., and they treated me so nicely that I felt very much encouragee. As soou as I got my sample iron started out, and sold 8 irons the first day, clearing $12. I have not sold less than 8 any day since, and one day sold 17. I now have $226 clear money, and my husband does not know I have been working at all, but I am afraid he will be mad when I tell him. Have I done right or should I leave him to struggle alone.
An Anxious Wife.

You are doing just right, your husband should be proud of you, go ahead and show the world what an energetic woman can do. That self-heating iron must be a wonderful seller, as we hear of so many that are succeeding selling it.

The weather forecast at Portland states that showers may be expected during the next few days.

HAVE YOU USED
BUTTER PARCHMENT?

... All gilt-edged butter put on the market by creameries is wrapped in paper.
... The product of the private dairy would reach its market in much better condition if wrapped in Butter Parchment than it does when wrapped in cloth.
... Parchment is not only better than cloth, but cheaper.
... Cloth sells at 6 cents per yard, from which 27 sheets can be cut—27 Parchment wrappers cost 3½ cents.

500 Sheets, 8x11, - 55 cts
500 Sheets, 8x13, - 60 cts

... The standard size for 2-pound rolls is 8x11 inches; 2-pound blocks are wrapped in the 8x13 size.
... One reason why paper has not been generally used heretofore, farmers could not get it at the general store.
... It is now kept at the Independent office cut to any size wanted.

The New Hook Spoon Free to All.

I read in the Christian Standard that Miss A. M. Fritz, Station A., St. Louis, Mo., would give an elegant planted hook spoon to anyone sending her ten 2-cent stamps. I sent for one and found it so useful that I showed it to my friends, and made $13 in two hours, taking orders for the spoon. It cannot slip into the dish or cooking vessel, being held in the place by a hook on the back. The spoon is something that housekeepers have needed ever since spoons were first inventended. Anyone can get a sample spoon by sending ten 2-cent stamps to Miss Fritz. This is a splendid way to make money around home. Very truly,
JENNETTE S.
