The point is a good one for business, and Mr. Rasmusen is a careful business man and a favorife, wherefore there is no reason why he should not do well in this venture.

Rev. Evan P. Hughes will preach next Sunday morning at the Congregational church on the subject announced last Sunday, but was prevented from fulfilling by sicknes, viz: "The moods of men and their influences on character." There will be no service in the evening, as the Congregational and Christian Endeavor Societies go to the Christian church to the C. E. day celebration.

An interesting and attractive service will be held at the Christian church next Sunday, 7:30 p. m., which will be union in its character. It is the 15th celebration of the birth of the Young People's Christian Endeavor movement, which has had such a phenomanal growth. The Christian, Congregational and Baptist churches are united in the celebration of this event.

A charge of insanity was preferred against H. S. Shuster in the county court of this county Thursday. Deputy sheriff Sappington and attorney Barrett went to Portland Friday and prevailed upon the U. S. Marshal to deliver him over to them. Shuster was examined on Saturday when he was adjudged insane. He is now in the asylum at Salem. It will be remembered that Shuster was arrested at Portland on the charge of sweating gold coins.

even of our young women have organiz d what they term a guitar club and the low, melodious thrumbing of strings is a not unusual sound issuing from warm and well-lighted parlors. The ladies are soon to have a rehersal, but as it is to be private, we outside barbarians will get no nearer than the pickets by the sidewalk, and pickets make a poor diet. Several of the young men about town are toying with the sounding boxes, but as they are in some cold, poorly furnished and illy lighted back room they don't count for much.

It is wonderful with what accuracy the forecasters now predict what the weather will be 36 to 50 hours ahead of time. Last Saturday morning when the temperature was mild and spring-like the forecast made by Pague at Portland stated a cold snap would set in Saturday evening, that snow would follow on Sunday with colder weather later on. The snow came on Sunday, not very much in Washington county, but it was snow. Monday it was colder with a little more snow; Tuesday the temperature was down to 20° to 22° above zero. Wednesday morning the prophet stated that it would moderate Wednesday night and rain on Thursday. Well, here it is, and welcomed by all genuine Oregonians. Any good purpose served by these forecasts? Yes, hundreds if not thousands of dollars saved in plumber's bills. All had notice and if any let his water pipes freeze and burst it was his own fault. It was warning, too, for the farmer and grocer to put more cover on tender vegetables, while the housewife looked carefully to her ornamental plants.

All have seen or heard of the enterprise of the small boy in organizing amusements after the circus is passed. He gets up his show and charges the usual admission-five pins or eight for reserved seats while the pit is reserved for the gang at two pins. Well we have that same spirit moving this winter only it drives the larger boys forward and too where there is some instructions as well as amusement. Last fall public attention was so taken up with the term of the circuit court and especially the Steeves' trial that the boys organiz d a moot court in all departments—judge, clerk, bailiff, jury, attorneys, and litigants. Both civil and criminal disputes were examined. Some of the verdicts were questioned because of bribery in which jurymen figured. For a time the devils in the several printing offices had a lot of job work on hand, printing professional cards and statement heads. Indeed quite a rivalry existed between the imps as to which could turn out the best and most artistic job. It has not been denied that the foreman gave sly hints to his own cub when improvements could be made. These devils have been more honest than his Satanic Majesty usually has credit for being since they worked over hours and paid cost price for the stock used. Well, business in the court flourished till the legislature met and now the jurists are full fledged solons. The three parties are represented, republicans, democrats and populists. Neither has a majority though the republicans are credited with a plurality. There is one thing to the credit of the boys, there is no obstructive faction, but all go in, take the oath of office and exercise their legislative functions. Just now the senatorial election is an absorbing topic. Who will get the plum? The republicans lack two or three votes, the populists, five or six while the democrats are in a hopeless minority. Just now there is an intimation that a combination will be effected between the republicans and democrats by which the g. o. p. candidate will be chosen. If any fond mamma misses her son on Wednesday and Saturday nights she may rest in content for he has responded to the call of his country and is debating questions of public policy. Where do they meet? Oh, at the capital on Main Street.

For some weeks the salesmen in Wehrung & Son's store have been missing articles of merchandise so frequently that they are annoyed. A systematic watch was organized and a guard kept continually on duty when a suspected individual was in the store. Finally Wes Boscow, while standing acr s the street from the store, saw how it was done. Crissenger would lounge on a counter, and, watching his opportunity, slip goods under his mackintosh and march off. This time he took a suit of men's under clothes. Boscow called Constable Williams, who arrested Crissinger while he yet had the stolen goods in his possession. Crissinger had his examination Saturday in Justice Smith's court and was bound over to answer at the March term of the court. Another charge of theft was booked against him and a search warrant issued permitting Crissinger's premises to be searched. All the articles known to have been stolen were found there. Mrs. Crissinger, wife of the defendant furnished every facility to the officers that she could. She supposed that her husband had bought the articles, until the visit of the officer told her differently. The second charge was also sustained in the justice's court, and the defendant was bound over to the circuit court. The family is in a sorry plight, though no worse than when the husband and father was at large. Crissinger is a worthless fellow and lazy. He is a good carpenter, but always tired when a job of work is offered. He is booked for the pen.

Just before the cold snap of this week farmers who had potatoes in the ground begin to dig. They find that where fields had deep cultivation, not more than a third of the crop was frozen at the November freeze. Mr. Barlow of Glencoe has 20 acres to dig, and says he didn't loose more than a third by the frost. Mr. Barlow will cultivate potatoes again the coming season, but he will dig next fall on his own judgment and not on that of his neighbors.

Neighbor L. A. Long, of the Argus, returned Wednesday morning from a trip in Eastern Oregon toward Prineville. He left the rail-road at Grant's and from there he had a bitter experience on the back of a bronco. It was a cold day but Long did not get left. There is a thick covering of snow ou the ground. Many of the farmers in that county have wheat yet to sell and will realize the giltedge price that now prevails.

The business men of Hillsboro and others interested are asked to assemble in the city council chambar tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock. It is time now to begin earnest work in a direction that is within our reach, and a full atteneance at this meeting will be to the advantage of the community.

Our townsman Mr. Landrock this week gave his daughter, Miss Lizzie, in marriage to Mr. Henry Ferd, of Polk county. The young people have already gone to their new home up the valley where the best whishes of the bride's many friends follow.

Mr. Jessie Housley went off as all supposed on an expedition of idle sight-seeing, but his absence was anything but idle. He brought back from Vancouver a bride, and Jess now takes his place with the other substantial citizens of the county.

William L. Crocker who has a homestead of the S. E. ¼ of the S. W. ¼ and lot 1 section 7 town 1 north of range 2 west which is out beyond Glencoe, has won his suit in the department of the Interior. The adverse claimant was the railroad company.

The G. A. R. post will attend church next Sunday evening at the Methodist church. The post will, at 7 o'clock p. m., meet with Comrade Cline at the parsonage and march from there to the church.

Hon. H. V. Gates returned yesterday from Heppner. He reports that there is three inches of snow on the ground there, and the weather disagreeably cold.

At Christian church, Jan. 31st 1897, 11 a. m., "Sanctification Explained." Evening Union Y. P. S. C. E. Will you attend?

Farmers in many parts of the county last week were plowing. The higher lands were in excellent condition for stirring.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

The following resolutions were passed by Hillsboro Grange on the death of Robt Imbrie:

WHEREAS, In obedience to the call of the Great Master, our beloved brother, Robt. Imbrie, has laid down his implements upon earth and passed from labor to reward, we are reminded again that this life is only a stepping stone to a great hereafter; and as one after another is called away from us, and their voices are hushed in death, the heart saddens as the thought rushes upon us that we shall no more clasp the trusty hand, nor hear the consoling voice of our worthy brother. We look and behold one more vacant seat, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That in the death of our brother this Grange has lost one of its most earnest workers, the order one of its truest friends, and agriculture one of its defenders, he having been identified with the Grange since it was first organized in this county, giving it a firm support and faithful service.

To the family of the deceased who have lost their best earthly friend, a kind and affectionate father, we tender our most heartfelt and loving sympathy, and mingle our tears with theirs in this hour of bereavement and sorrow.

May he who tempers the wind to the shorn lamb keep them ever under the shadow of his wing.

Mrs. S. Scholfield,
William D. Hare,
C. A. Luce,
Committee.

The following resolutions were passed by Hillsboro Grange on the death of Wm. Mauzey;

WHEREAS, It has pleased our Heavenly Father to remove from this earth our beloved brother, Wm. Mauzey, his able counsel will be lost to us, but how much more sad it is to his bereaved family. His example and past counsel will still live to aid and guide us in the future. Like a true warrior, when storms hovered around us and destruction seemed inevitable, he forsook not the Grange, but stood by it with more tenacity of purpose than before. His life has gone into history from the early settlement of our state to the present time. As we lay the mortal away with grief we are proud that we were blessed with such an immortal spirit to cheer and guide us in the infancy of our state. While we deeply deplore the loss of our worthy brother, and bow in meek submission to the will of Him who kindly governs worlds, nations and individuals, and has seen fit to remove our brother, be it

RESOLVED, That we extend to his bereaved family our heartfelt sympathy in this their sad bereavment. We are assured that He who ruleth the universe doth not afflict willingly nor grieve the children of men. We desire in this time of deepest sorrow to commend our mourning sister and his sorrowing children to Him who so kindly promised to comfort the widow and the fatherless.

Mrs. S. Scholfield,
William D. Hare,
C. A. Luce,
Committee.

ROADS.

Editor Independent: Until recently, I have acceptеn the deplorable condition of our winter roads as irredeemable, a disagreeable necessity to be patiently and silently endured; but the doings of the Oregon road convention and recent articles from the pens of "Tax-payer", T. E. Cornelius and Mr. Mays, of this county, have awakened even my sluggish mind to activity, and I find myself in possession of an idea which, if not accepted as practical by the protound thinkers upon this subject, must be acknowledged quite as feasible as some already suggested.

I think it was Mr. May's who said it would cost not less than $1,000 per mile, to construct a rock road. This sum assumes frightful proportions when multiplied by the many miles of good road needed in this county.

"Tax-payer's" suggestion concerning a combined wheel and foot path is commendable, but under present conditions could not benefit the cycler during the muddy season of the year.

Mr. Cornelius is somewhat aesthetic in his road ideas, which meet the hearty support of the ladies who find so much fault with the "horrid rubbish piles" at the roadsides, which frighten nervous horses and the zigzag ditches so trying to artistic feminine eyes. But the practicability of his theory for keeping a dirt road firm, during a rainy winter, when heavy hauling, necessarily gashes to surprising depths, the beautifully evened surface of the highway is questionable. But, after the road is well ditched, graded and leveled off, as he recommends should not the county roof it, thus protecting it from the rain, however much or heavy the hauling, the road would remain in its first excellent condition without the expense of labor now required, and I believe, to the perfect satisfaction of the traveling public. This idea of roofing the road is applicable at this time when all other plans have failed—the rainy period.

So abundant is our timber supply that lumber and shingles properly estimated, sufficient for this purpose would cost several hundred less than $1,000 per mile.

Property constructed, and with but comparatively little attention from the supervisor, it would stand many years, and obviate some of the most serious difficulties now hindering an improved condition of our roads. BOB.

Bills are being introdnced in the house notwithstanding Simon-Bourne and Company cannot see it.

The test resolution in the senate last Tuesday shows that President Simon is in the minority. The resolution was lost on a tie with Brownell and Carter, absent. These senators are known to oppose Simon.

Gov. Lord is understood to sympathize with the Davis house that has but four members. The trouble with the governor is that the senatorial bee is in his bonnet so actively buzzing that he is confused and cannot clearly comprehend the situation.

U'Ren was a brave man a few days ago, would shoot, cut and drag out. How tame he now is. By the way, temporary Speaker Davis let slip a good opportunity to make fame and friends at the same time. He ought to have called U'Ren to order for his unparliamentary harangue.

The state constitution provides that the house may compel the attendance of absent members. Then why does not the sergeant-at-arms take handcuffs and bring the delinquents to the bar of the house. There are a lot of us who would like to see Bourne and Barkley and U'Ren and Bilyeu wearing ornaments.

Col. Dalrymple, Vanderburg's attorney, has written an open letter to the populist representatives who are obstructing legislation at Salem, in which he advises them that their action is revolutionary in character and contrary to sound public policy. He holds that because the republicans have a plurality in the house populists can not justify themselves in blocking the wheels of legislation. He thinks that if Mitchell is the choice of the republicans that the populists ought to let him be elected and then go about legislating for the state's interest. Dalrymple tells his party associates that the reports sent out by the Oregonian are misleading and that populists from all parts of the state ought to write their representatives urging them to go into the house and attend to the work which is expected of them by their constituents. One fighter at Oregon City replies to this open letter in a leaflet which he is sending broadcast over the state. He calls Dalrymple might reply that Fitch is near enough to Portland to hear the jugler of Simon gold and Bourne's silver.

Since the time when A. C. Gibbs the caucus nominee was defeated for the senate there has been a scramble among a certain class of politicians to hold the balance of power. It is outrageous that a small clique is allowed to dictate to a large majority.

Whose fault is it that the legislature is not in harmonious working order at Salem? It is surely not the fault of the republicans. They have been in the house every day and answered roll-call. It is the populists and democrats who stayed away—are staying away. Any statement charging republicans with obstructing legislation is simply not true.

Clark, the silver bimetalist who published the North Yamhill Record has sold his paper and plant to Wm. Fryer, and B. G. Estes. It doth not yet appear what the political complexion of the paper will be. One paragraph declares that the legislature is acting shamefully which is taken as a word of rebuke to the three bimetalists elected from Yamhill.

A son of Harriett Beecher Stowe opposes the movement to erect a statute to his mother on the ground that "the ordinary bronze statue ought to be regarded as a terrible penalty, to be inflicted only on great offenders." The St. Louis Globe-Democrat suggests that it would not be a bad idea to erect an Uncle Tom group in hon. or of Mrs. Stowe. The subject is one in which a capable sculptor might find his masterpiece.

The pure populist reformers of Washington are about to adopt one of the naughty methods of the old parties—hold a senatorial caucus. Signatures enough for the gathering are said to have been written on a call. Republicans declare they will vote for a populist senator before they will allow populist Turner to be elected. Simon republicans in Oregon are differently fixed. They will vote for a populist before they will for a member of their own party if Simon so dictates.

A rare treat—Hillsboro is to have the honor of a visit next Sunday from Bishop Cranston, of the M. E. church. An informal reception is to be given him by the M. E. church of this city at the church on Saturday evening at 6:30. Sunday he will preach morning and evening and address the Epworth League at 6:30. This is the first time in the history of our church that so distinguished a prelate in the M. E. church has conferred upon us the honor of a visit.

HAVE YOU USED BUTTER PARCHMENT?

All gilt-edged butter put on the market by creameries is wrapped in paper. The product of the private dairy would reach its market in much better condition if wrapped in Butter Parchment than it does when wrapped in cloth. Parchment is not only better than cloth, but cheaper. Cloth sells at 6 cents per yard, from which 27 sheets can be cut—27 Parchment wrappers cost 3¼ cents.

500 Sheets, 8x11, - 55 cts
500 Sheets, 8x13, - - 60 cts

The standard size for 2-pound rolls is 8x11 inches; 2-pound blocks are wrapped in the 8x13 size. One reason why paper has not been generally used heretofore, farmers could not get it at the general store. It is now kept at the Independent office cut to any size wanted.

Fortunes are lost annually, directly and indirectly, by people who cannot do their own figuring, write their own letters, or keep their own books; and who do not know when business and legal papers which they must handle every day are made out correctly. All these things, and much more, we teach thoroughly.

Hundreds of our graduates are in good positions, and there will be openings for hundreds more when times improve. Now is the time to prepare for them. Besides, a business education is worth all it costs, for one's own use. Send for our catalogue, to learn what and how we teach. Mailed free to any address.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed, you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by Catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.
