Albert Maloy, Sr., of Laurel, died Wednesday night last at the advanced age of nearly 73 years. The funeral occurs this morning at 11 o'clock in Mt. Olive cemetery near Laurel. The horse case with H. Becker, Plaintiff v. James Wilson, defendant that arouse1 some interest in the forepart of the week while it was trying before Justice of the Peace, Hicks, has been decided in favor of the plaintiff who gets judgment for $65 00 and costs, all he asked. It seems that Wilson some time ago sold Becker a horse representing that it was untried at work Becker introduced testimony on the trial that the horse had been tried, but would not work because of its viciousness. Hence damage. Smith & Bowman were for the plaintiff and J. M. Wall for defence.

Hon. Thomas H. Tongue has succeeded in locating the lost muster rolls of the companies of volunteers that fought the Rogue river Indians in 1853. O. F. Hixson, one of the inmates of the Roseburg soldiers' home, was a member of one of the companies and says that they had long endeavored to obtain recognition from the government, but were informed that there was no record of their services in the war department. But through the efforts of General Lane, when a delegate in congress, they had received pay for their services by a special act. Mr. Tongue traced this up and found the muster rolls in the treasury department.

Three bents of railroad bridge No. 141, spanning Rock creek between Newton and Witch Hazel stations were burned early yesterday, Thursday morning. The fire resulted either by a spark from a locomotive, or it was the work of an incendiary. Although slashings were burned near the bridge the day before that of Mr. Wehrung's was fully a mile away and that on Congressman Tongue's land was three-fourths of a mile distant and both burnings were carefully guarded through the night besides there is no charred connection between these slashings and the bridge. The fire looks more like wicked design than accident since it is at the west end just around a curve to a train going east. It is thought from the amount of damage done that the fire could not have been burning earlier than four o'clock. Others think that the spark is the probable cause, since from the west ofendthe bridge a smart grade must be climbed by a train going west which was the direction of the last train passing and that the application of steam would be likely to throw out a live spark. The McMinnville express was delayed longest. The mail train having to wait about one and one-half hours. A foot bridge was soon laid and a transfer made. Permanent repairs were finished in time for all afternoon trains.

Mrs. J. N. Brown will open a studio in Hillsboro on or about Sept. 15th and invites orders for pictures in oil and pupils desiring lessons in oil painting. Mrs. Brown has a number of her canvases in the show windows of our business houses that show a cultivated taste and a trained hand in their production. A pastoral scene represents a heard of cows standing in a pond of water at midday The painting is to life and one hardly realizes that he is looking not at a reality but only on a counterfit. Another square gives a glimps of mountain peaks capped with snow. The coloring is perfect. A gem is a panel representing a water glen in the woods, but the piece most attractive now is a beach scene at the ocean It is so real that one imagines he feels the cooling breath from the ocean at Long Beach. Besides art, Mrs. Brown has given much attention to music, and on the piano she gets work from her pupils that surprises them when they take their matriculating examinations at the Conservatory of Music.

When to harvest sugar beets. As the growth of the sugar beet approaches completion, the leaves begin to drop and the beet to the new grower appears to be ready to pull. The time of harvesting however is not yet: Farmers Bulletin No. 15, from the department of agricultural, Washington D. C. states that "the time for harvesting varies in different localities. In Southern California the beets planted in February are ready for harvesting in August. In general it may be said that beets planted the first week in May will be ready for harvesting about the first of October. Harvesting should be postponed to as late a date as possible provided the beets are in no danger of a second growth and are not exposed to a freezing temperature. The leaves of a ripened beet changed from a rich to a yellowish green, become drooping and applied closely to the earth, and many of them die."

But there are many whose present abode is unknown yet they are wanted. The circular concludes with these words: "If you know of any person who has at any time been a resident of Winesburg whose name does not appear in the above list please advise him or her of the reunion." Mr. C. Blazer of Hillsboro is the only Winesburger in the county so far as known yet there may be others and for the sake of the old town he would like to meet them September 1st or anyother day.

Married, August 21st, W. H. Gault and Miss Ara E. Pointer. The young folks worked a surprise on us elders, but their return is none the less welcome. Harry is a faithful fellow and on this occasion lost but a half-day from his printers case. His bride is an accomplished young woman in both music and household economy, and the alliance seems proper in every respect. May their bark ever sail on smooth seas.

Mr. John Gates eldest son of Hon. H. V. Gates has accepted a position as pharmacist in Huntley's Drug Store, Oregon City. He departed for his new residence on the train of yesterday. We are all sorry to lose Mr. Gates but congratulate the young people of Oregon City in their acquisition.

Where the stub was. Last Sunday some careless smoker passed through the lane separating the Griffin and P. M. Jackson farms and carelessly threw his half smoked cigar to the roadside. There it smouldered for a time till it set the dry grass on fire. This had commenced to burn briskly when a passing neighbor extinguished it just in time to prevent it going into Mr. Jackson's field of ripe oats. Smokers cannot exercise too much care in following their occupation.

The Dingley tariff bill lays a duty of 40 cents per bushel—80 cents per sack on onions. The Mexican onion growing ground is handicapped, hence California and the inland empire has to depend on Oregon for a supply. The price is $1.10 a sack, whereas, heretofore at this time no more than 40 cents was offered. The crop in Oregon this year is good and the quality has never been excelled.

MARKET REPORT.

Wheat is lower this week than last but not weaker. New York market closed Wednesday at $109¼ f. o. b. afloat. In Chicago the advance was 5 cents and the close .96 The feverish prices prevailing last week have not been realized this and a decline occurred but it was a gamblers slump. The rally seems healthy. Pacific coast quotations are more in sympathy with the condition of the foreign market hence the element of chance does not enter to the extent felt in Chicago. A slight falling away has occurred in Portland but the market yesterday was 82c clear of sacks and storage. The wheat wagons arrived in force yesterday. At the Climax Milling Company's warehouse 16 wagons had unloaded before 2 o'clock. But little wheat is changing hands here at present.

Josh didn't take any chances, even though every appearance indicated that he was dead. He'd keep away from his heels. No man ought to take any chances when there is a certainty to be had.

HAVE YOU USED
BUTTER PARCHMENT?

... All gilt-edged butter put on the market by creameries is wrapped in paper
... The product of the private dairy would reach its market in much better condition if wrapped in Butter Parchment than it does when wrapped in cloth.
... Parchment is not only better than cloth, but cheaper.
... Cloth sells at 6 cents per yard, from which 27 sheets can be cut— 27 Parchment wrappers cost 3¼ cents.

500 Sheets, 8x11, - 55 cts
500 Sheets, 8x13, - - 60 cts

... The standard size for 2-pound rolls is 8x11 inches; 2-pound blocks are wrapped in the 8x13 size.
... One reason why paper has not been generally used heretofore, farmers could not get it at the general store
... It is now kept at the Independent office cut to any size wanted.
