On the Wapato lake that has been reclaimed there are several hundred acres of oats that are caught by the rain of this week. Other fields have been stripped and the crop is housed. Farmers are now plowing and seeding for next year's harvest, in which they do well.

Money in hogs? Well yes. Last Monday butcher Koch got in the carcas of a hog that tipped the beam at 560 pounds. The pig was but 18 months old and was grown and fattened on Mr. Jos. Hare's farm. The price paid for that piece of meat was 5½ cents per pound or $30 80 for the one porker.

The contractor is rushing work on the county jail. A side of the old jail is removing so as to allow the old cages to be taken out and set on the floor of the new structure before the walls are put up. These cages were originally put in the old building piece at a time and then rivited. Now no door is large enough to let them pass.

The return ticket will be good on any train till Oct. 11. A one dollar rate has been made for the manufacturers exhibition good to return at any time before Oct. 3. This latter ticket will be sold on and after the 22d instant.

Mrs. M. P. Brown is prepared to teach a thorough course in instrumental music—piano, organ and harmony—preparing students in regular conservatory work so they can pass examinations in any recognized school of music and graduate in a short time. Special care given to beginners, by giving daily attention to their work. The very best and newest method. Mason's technic used as a basis.

As a reward for promptly notifying the agent at the Hillsboro station that the Rock Creek bridge was on fire, the Southern Pacific Company has presented to the young lad, who came to town, and to Mr. Osmund, who watched the bridge to warn approaching trains, each a book of tickets. This is a graceful recognition of the service performed, though it was done without expectation of reward.

A few days ago there was one girl in San Francisco happy as a lark We all know Elizabeth Koch who accompanied her mother to the Bay City a few weeks ago. Elizabeth is a graduate of the Hillsboro school, grammar grade and secretly hoped she could get into the S. F. high school, but mentioning her ambition to a new city acquaintance she was informed of rigid examinations and strict requirements till the disapointed Oregon girl was discouraged. The best she could do was to spend a year in the grammar grade. On the appointed morning Miss Elizabeth went to the grammar school to take her examination. The principal examined her Hillsboro certificates, asked her a few questions in grammar, history, mental arithmetic, etc. He then asked if she had ever studied Latin. No, she answered. Had she studied German? A little. He then asked a question to be answered in German. The answer seemed to be satisfactory. She was then given a page of German to read. This was read with an accent that was pronounced good. She then had to write some German. This pleased the professor who graciously told her that her instructor was a capable one. Are all your Oregon schools as thorough in German? "The one I studied in is very exacting. I can not answer for the others." The principal turned to his desk and filled out an assignment blank and presented to our young friend, saying, this will admit you to the High school. Elizabeth does not remember just how she got to the school—whether she jumped, ran, flew or went on a cable car. They were flushed cheeks which were presented for Mamma's kiss that evening. Miss Koch can rest assured that her Oregon friends rejoice with her both that they have a school of thorough work and so charming a graduate to represent their efficiency.

A remarkable showing of the adaptability of Southern Oregon for the production of sugar beets was made in an analysis at the experiment station laboratory this week of samples of sugar beets from Medford. There were 16 of the samples, and the surface of each was exceedingly smooth and free from extraneous rootlets. Fourteen per cent sugar and 80 per cent purity is a good beet. The following figures show the average of each of the 16 Medford samples, the first number showing per cent sugar, the second per cent purity: 20-93; 20—86.6; 19 9—86; 17—87; 19 9—91; 14.7—72; 18.3—83; 17—82; 15.9—81; 16.4—80; 20—93; 15 5—71; 14 2—79; 15 7—82; 20—91. The per cent both of purity and sugar is the largest ever obtained from an analysis of beets at the station. The investigation is made even more interesting by the fact that the yield per acre ran as high as 24 tons, in most cases being above 20 tons, while the lowest yield on bottom land was 13 tons. The beets were not grown on garden patches, but on land the like of which Dr. G. W. Shaw, of the station says there are 15,000 acres in the vicinity of Medford.

George Jackson and Charlie Williams, or men giving those names, held up the O. R. & N. passenger train last Saturday evening about eight miles out from the depot. The engineer and fireman got out of their cabs after they had been fired at and so did brakeman Casan. Casan had his gun handy, and protecting himself, he commenced shooting. This seemed to rattle the robbers though neither was hit. Casan is skilled sufficient to move a train, and when the robbers had retreated far enough, he got into the cab and backed the train out of danger. After taking the small change that the engineer and fireman had, they were allowed to go. They reached the train and went on their way, reporting the hold up from the next telegraph station. The robbers were caught on Sunday and are now in prison.

The Nashville Students are to sing at the Congregational Church next Friday evening. These Jubilee singers appear before and delight the most fastidious audiances in the country. Rev. Robt. McIntyre, the famous Methodist divine of Chicago, gave the troup this commendatory letter: "The Nashville Students (Jubilee singers) gave a concert on Saturday evening, and a grand concert on Sunday. Both were eminently successful. This troup is unequaled, their behavior and talents have won them a place in the esteem of the entire community, and we hope soon to meet them again." "Swing low sweet chariot" as sung by the Jubilee singers should not be missed. They are to be in the Congregational Church this evening.

For the past few months Schilling the great tea merchant of San Francisco has been offering $1000 for supplying a missing word in a sentence describing the excellence of his tea. Over a hundred users supplied the right word, wherefore the $1000 was divided pro rata, which was $6 50 each. The advertisement in this issue gives the names and residence of the winners. Five are credited to Oregon, viz: Mrs. E Woodin, Albany; Mrs. Kate Engberg, Biglow; Mrs. A. Willett, Bridal Veil; Mrs. W. Howell, Oregon City; and Hilda Johnson, Portland.

The County Board of Equalization completed its work last Saturday and adjourned. But few changes were made. Some property that had been discovered since the enumerators had gone over the field were added. All personages that had been put on the roll were taken off. The college buildings and a part of the campus of P. A. and P. U were taken but 18 acres and some out side property was assessed. This was done for the reason it did not seem to the board that it was used for educational purposes.

Rev. Evan P. Hughes will exchange pulpits with Rev. Austin Rice, the new pastor of the Congregational Church, Forest Grove, next Sabbath morning. We are pleased to have this opportunity of hearing Mr. Rice, of whom we have already heard favorable mention. In the evening, at 7:30 o'clock, Mr. Hughes will discuss "Making Haste—a Characteristic of the American People"—Isaiah 28:16. The other services will be held in the usual order.

The Southern Pacific Company desiring to contribute to the success of the annual state fair to be held at Salem, Sept. 30th to Oct. 8th, has decided to sell tickets from all stations on its lines in Oregon at one fare for round trip. The S. P. Company yesterday took the Yaquina $6.00 excursion tickets off sale. It is estimated that the travel the past season was not more than a third of what it was in 1896. The visitors were divided to other places the past year and some did not go anywhere.

Dr. Iliff, one of the most eloquent platform orators of the Methodist church will be in Hillsboro next Monday visiting with Pastor Atkins. While he is here the church prevails upon him to deliver his celebrated lecture "Through a world of night." Therefore the public is invited to attend at the M. E. church, next Monday evening, Oct. 4th, at 8 o'clock.

The delay of the afternoon train last Wednesday was caused at the Wapato flag station. Some wood cars were loading there and in backing on the switch two flats left the track. These had to be got out of the way when the passenger train reached that point. A delay of 40 minutes resulted. This was not the result of carelessness on the part of the train men but that of wood haulers.

Dr. James Withycomb has taken representatives from his flock of sheep to the state fair now in session at Salem. As usual these sheep will wear blue ribbon when they return to their pasture. Dr. Withycomb has sold some rams this year at a fair price but the money cannot be said to be pure gain because he will have to import new animals at a much greater cost than he received for those he has sold.

WEEKLY CROP BULLETIN.

Portland, Or., Sept. 27, 1897.

WESTERN OREGON.

Weather.—Fair and warmer prevailed up to Sunday, when it became cooler with increasing cloudiness and a few scattered showers fell. Today (Monday) cool, cloudy and showery weather prevails. The mean temperature for the week averages 66°, which is 1° higher than for the preceding week. The maximum temperature averages 77° and the minimum was 55°, the highest maximum was 92° on Saturday and the lowest minimum was 48° on Thursday. The total rainfall for the week ranged from a trace to .05 of an inch.

Crops.—The weather has been favorable to all farm operations. During the past week the threshing was practically completed; it was found that little or no damage was done to the grain by the rains the fore part of the month. Wheat and oats had more than average yields, and the large acreage of spring grain has made the total product equal to the former large crop. Hops have all been picked and drying continues. The estimate of last week of one third the total crop being ruined by rain, mold and lice, is a fair approximation of the loss.

Prune drying continues. The prune crop is thoroughly satisfactory and drying is progressing. The total prune crop will be the largest in the history of the state.

Plowing and seeding continue to be active. The rain of today is very opportune for it will put all soil in excellent condition to be worked.

Potato digging continues to be very active and all reports indicate a very large potato crop. Grapes are ripe and are a large crop. The fruit crop is practically all gathered, except winter apples and winter pears. Sugar beets are making excellent growth, and the development of saccharine matter is very large. Cabbage, carrots, onions, etc., are very large crops. The grass has become green due to the early September rain and pasturage is excellent. Stock is fattening; milch cows are improving, and the supply of butter is increasing.

The year has had a few unfavorable periods, but, on the whole it has been one of the most successful and prosperous ones in the history of the state.

EASTERN ORFGON.

Weather.—Fair, warmer weather prevailed during the past week, except Wednesday evening and night over the Plateau Region, and today over the entire section, when showers occured. On Wednesday thunderstorms prevailed, today general showers. The mean temperature for the week averaged 69°, being 9° warmer than for the preceding week. The maximum temperatures averaged 84°, and the minimum 54°; the highest maximum was 90°, on Saturday; and the lowest minimum 46°, on Friday. The total rainfall varied from 0.02 to 0.36 of an inch.

Crops.—Threshing is being actively pushed in the eastern portion of Umatilla County and in Union County; elsewhere it is practically done, and farmers are busily engaged in hauling the grain to the warehouses and elevators. Some threshing yet remains to be done in Sherman County. The threshing in these sections has been delayed, owing to lack of threshing outfits and to the early September rains. Should much rain now fall, considerable damage would result. The greater portion of the grain, is, however, safely housed. Working of summer fallow, plowing and seeding have commenced.

The gathering of fruit continues, and fruit-drying continues to be active. The fruit and vegetable crops have been very large; everything planted this year has produced prolific and magnificent crops. Corn, which is a good crop only in very favorable years, this year has been an excellent crop.

The range food is improving, and stock is prepared to enter the winter season in excellent condition.

The year has been a most successful and prosperous one for the farmer, fruit-grower, stock-raiser, and for the miner.

THE MARKETS.

Yesterday the Hillsboro price of wheat was 72 cents clear of sacks and storage. But few sales are making, though 500 bushels were sold on Wednesday and 200 yesterday. The outlook now seems more gloomy for high prices than a month ago. It is coming to be, not a question of surplus or of an active demand but of a lack of ships to carry to the market. Vessels are snapped up as soon as they poke their noses over the bar. They are as speedily loaded and sent to sea again. It now looks as though some one will have to carry a part of this crop over til next year.

The supply of oats seems ample for the local demand and since the local markets control the price, it may not reach a higher figure. There is but little doing in the way of buying and selling. One small lot of black feed oats was closed out here this week at 28 cents.

HAVE YOU USED

BUTTER PARCHMENT?

... All gilt-edged butter put on the market by creameries is wrapped in paper.
... The product of the private dairy would reach its market in much better condition if wrapped in Butter Parchment than it does when wrapped in cloth.
... Parchment is not only better than cloth, but cheaper.
... Cloth sells at 6 cents per yard, from which 27 sheets can be cut— 27 Parchment wrappers cost 3¼ cents.

500 Sheets, 8x11, - 55 cts
500 Sheets, 8x13, - - 60 cts

... The standard size for 2-pound rolls is 8x11 inches; 2-pound blocks are wrapped in the 8x13 size.
... One reason why paper has not been generally used heretofore, farmers could not get it at the general store
... It is now kept at the Independent office cut to any size wanted.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result and unless the inflamation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrah, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.
