The straightforward, businesslike manner in which the administration has handled the Union Pacific foreclosure sale cannot but be applauded by the whole country. The reorganization committee which had expected to bid in the property for $45,000,-000, having made that offer to the Cleveland administration, was met with a firm reply that the sale would be open to the highest bidder and near the Patterson ranch, west of Methe road would be sold for all it would bring. All the talk of a deal that those mountains are filled with to swindle the government out of ore, carrying gold and silver in quanseveral million deliars was shown to titles sufficient to make them one of be idle talk.
