The Oregonian in its zeal for bank notes and the gold standard has removed its old correspondent, at Hillsboro, Dr. Wood, who is a republican and a staunch supporter of sound money, and has appointed Mr. Long the editor of the Argus a free silver, debased money, straw stack currency advocate.

Word comes from St. Michaels via Dawson, Alaska, that Andree who started to the North Pole in a balloon last July has been heard from. If this news shall be verified it is the first that has reached his friends since the third day after his start. The balloon that floated toward the North, carried three people and a six months store of food, which was to be further replenished by the game of the Arctic.

A hasty consideration of affairs has led some to affirm that the patriotism of America is dying out. They seem to think that the provocations that Spain has already given should have caused a declaration of war some weeks ago. They forget that the day of wooden ships and brass cannon is passed. No single individual can now fit out a ship and by a single overt act bring on war. Modern guns and floating forts of steel are not built in a day, and when war is declared it must be done by a nation for none but a great nation can afford to go to war. Spain cannot burn the candle at both ends, which she will realize in a month.

Weightier matters have driven the little island of Crete, and its troubles out of the minds of the people of this country, but an occasional stray paragraph shows that the Turk and the Christian are still in evidence over there. It appears possible now that Prince George will be established governor of the island, thus giving Greece virtual control, but the event will be a direct outcome of Russian suggestion, showing who is master of the situation in the Turkish question.

NATIONAL INTERVENTION.

If we go to war with Spain what is our grievance? What cause can we assign as a reason for the quarrel? The insurgents in Cuba have thrown off the Spanish yoke and have been fighting the mother country for three years. To what extent will we be justified in interfeering in the war?

In its prosecution, the Spainards as a war measure have attempted to starve the insurgents and to that end have called all the farmers from their farms and concentrated them into the towns so as to prevent any farm supplies being produced, or falling into the hands of the insurgents. These Spanish farmers are subjects of Spain and, outwardly at least, supporting the government. In the towns they are consumers and that too of imported foods. Soon their ability to buy was exhausted. They were starved under the name of reconcentradoes, dying by the thousand. It was the government's duty to feed these people and its neglect became criminal cruelty. For this all civilized countries in modern times have assumed the right to interfere. This is the ground of complaint made by the United States. To remove this cause of criticism the Spanish government recinded the order collecting the farmers into the towns. They are not permitted to go back to their farms and become self supporting.

But this does not satisfy our government. War in Cuba must stop. If Spain stops the war then the insurgeants will have gained their independence. Has the United States the right to demand this? England, Germany, Rusia and France assumed the right to interfere in a like rebellion last year where the insurgeants of Crete were fighting Turkey. The same nations or a part of them in 1828 sent a fleet into the Peloponesus to exercise good offices between Greece and Turkey, where a cruel war was raging. By accident the allied fleet met the Mohamedans and when the smoke cleared away there were no Mohamedans. There was no more of a Greek government then than there is now in Cuba, yet the powers set one up and maintained it till it was able to go alone. The nations therefore assume the right to interfere and stop a cruel war especially when so conducted there is no prospect of its termination by the parties immediately concerned. This is, then, the case of the United States; Stop bloodshed, prevent cruelty, establish peaceful industries, promote trade. Indeed the whole doctrine of intervention is based on the idea of establishing and maintaining peace. And it is that which is influencing the European nations to advise Spain to concede the demands of the United States and prevent war. England recognized the right of the United States to interfere between Spain and the Cuban insurgeants hence she cannot interfere between the United States and Spain to prevent the former from righting a wrong.

THAT OVERSIGHT.

It has been a difficult thing for both republicans and democrats to understand why the reform forces could have omitted to have passed the usual resolution denouncing the taking of illegal fees by state officers. One of the Washington county delegates explains the omission by saying it was an oversight. Having in mind the declaration of Col. Patterson that the resolution was debated four hours and surrendered in order to get more substantial recognition on other matters, it is not just clear how the "oversight" occurred. People of this county have wondered what the substantial recognition is. It now transpires, so 'tis said, that Kincaid who gets most of those fees wanted it so, and to get his desire subscribed $10,000 to the campaign fund. This is the "recognition."

Shawnee town, the county seat of Gallatin county in the southeastern part of Illinois, was almost completely destroyed by a flood on Sunday last. The town is built on the Ohio river bottom and protected by embankments. The Ohio is very high and a break in the levee one hundred feet in width let a volume of 20 feet of water into the town without a moment's notice. It was at the supper hour, and the 2000 population were partaking of the evening meal. The flood struck a cluster of one-story houses first, swept them from their foundations and hurled them against the better built brick business houses. These crumbled and gave up their contents to the seething waters. Between two and three hundred of the inhabitants were drowned, confined mostly to the colored population that occupied the smaller dwellings first struck. The town was connected with the outer world by a railroad, and by the river. Steamboats served a useful purpose in rescuing the drowning and transporting tents, blankets and emergency rations to the dehomed people.

While England and her colonists in America were hanging petty criminals such as burglars and the like—ridding the nation of the criminal class and preventing its propagation, Spain has been making away with its best subjects and cultivating its most violent passions till now it has a race of incompetents. In Spains history it is noted that when a great, learned, virtuous man lifted himself above the common herd, the inquisition claimed his blood. At first the Anglo Saxons and the Spanish may have been about equal but during the centuries in the survival, the races have drifted apart till now there is no equality and we shall see next week when the latins stand before this English speaking people, they will go down like a dry stubble in a fire.

The convention of last Wednesday was satisfactory. The contest that had been waged between Lord and Geer supporters in some of the precincts being dwarfed into insignificance when it was seen that Mr. Geer had carried the county by great odds. There was no contest for delegates to the district convention, Mr. Tongue being permitted to name them. The unseemly wrangles witnessed in some of the counties are not here and Washington county will cast a large vote for the candidates of the republican party. The time for holding the county nomination has not yet been agreed upon, though the central committee has the matter under advisment.

At the County Union Convention of delegates held here last week Mr. Dunbar in a speech said he wanted the republican county officials cleaned out so that the "reform forces" could get hold of the books and have some one besides republicans expert them. This is exceedingly rich in view of the fact that two of the leading promoters of "reform force" interests, Mr. Ed Schulmerich and Mr. W. H. Wehrung, have certified at different times, that they have carefully examined the books and find them correct. Neither of these gentlemen nor associates of equal standing will indulge in such cheap campaign nonsense.

Co. School Supt. Craig writes to correct the paragraph published last week in the Forest Grove correspondence where it states that he is a candidate for renomination. Mr. Craig will not ask for a renomination being satisfied with the recognition the party has already shown him. He will content himself with doing what he can towards a clean republican victory next June. Mr. Craig states that during the past three years he has been in office, after paying the expenses incident to the position, he has not received an average of twelve dollars per month to compensate for the half or two thirds of the time he has devoted to the duties of the office. Undoubtedly the next Superintendent should be paid to devote his whole time to the duties of the place and not be compelled to engage in outside employment for his support.

The contest here last Saturday in the primaries was between the supporters of Hon. T. T. Geer and Governor W. P. Lord with slight obscuring by local conditions. The struggle was legitimate, and a proper one, for a choice has to be made and all republicans can unite in supporting the successful aspirant. Mr. Geer is a gold standard republican from the beginning as his speeches and writings will testify. And while Governor Lord has not been so pronounced in his utterances on the currency question, all doubts entertained in '94 and '95 have been brushed away.

The vive voce system of voting adopted in the republican convention Wednesday was a slight departure from the usual custom but it was in the right direction. No delegate body should be permitted to vote a secret ballot. A man as an individual may properly cast a secret ballot but when he is representing the will of a constituency his votes should be open to the inspection of his clientage.

Is wheat a debased product like it was in 1895 and the 1st half of 1896? Is wool a debased product like it was in 1895-6? Are cattle a debased product as they were when Bryan was stalking over the county? Judging from the past and any product or industry be debased when a new financial policy is adopted on the lines proposed by the "reformers"?

LONDON, April 5.—A dispatch from Rome this afternoon says a telegram received at the vatican from the United States announces the failure of the pope's intervention.

WASHINGTON, April 5th.—President McKinley never invited the pope to intervene between the United States and Spain as stated in the news reports of yesterday.

NEW YORK, April 5.—European interferance in American affairs will not be tolerated by President McKinley, says the Washington correspondent of the Herald. There will be no mediation of the differences between the United States and Spain, for the administration will not accept it. Believing such acceptance might establish a precedent for future interference in questions to which the United States may be a party, and in line with the historic policy enunciated by President Monroe, opposing European meddling with affairs affecting this government, the administration has decided that if there is to be mediation it must be with Spain for the independence of Cuba, and not mediation between the United States and Spain.

Pres. McKinley has his war message written and is only waiting till Consul Gen. Lee can get American residents out of Havana which will take till Sunday. The message will go to Congress Monday unless the Spaniards in the meantime back down and concede McKinley's demand. Should they back down there will be no war, otherwise the beginning of the end will be Monday next.

Judge I. N. Sanders, of Union county, is spoken of for secretary of state on the republican ticket. Judge Sanders is said to be very popular in his county, and indeed there can be no denying the fact since he has held the office of county judge there for several terms. This is true, he will not turn out to be a free silver advocate or a populist.

U'Ren of Clackamas is a thrifty man. This conclusion is reached after hearing a resident of Clackamas, who attended court here last week, say that U'Ren had paid off $12,000 worth of mortgagee within the past fifteen months. A man who can do that with the $80 received from the legislative boodle is a thrifty man.

Bishop Barkley of Marion, has been nominated by the reform forces for joint senator in Clackamas and Marion county. Let's see. Barkley was one of those who refused to take the oath of office and among those who received from $80 to $120 from the Jonathan Bourne corruption fund.

It is noticeable that most of the republicans who voted the "bi-meta'lic" ticket two years ago attended the primaries last Saturday and put on the republican harness. They are welcome back to the fold after being away from home and eating husks so long.—McMinnville Transcript.

E. H. Flagg, well known in this county has been nominated for representative to the legislature on the republican ticket in Marion county. Mr. Flagg was a democrat when here, but when his party endorsed free silver coinage he left it.

W. S. U'Ren the boodle taker, was nominated for senator in Clackamas county by the union reform forces. He had no opposition. That will come later, to-wit: June 6.

Will some of the Union Bemetalic Cstridge Delegates explain again how Kincaid is going to distribute that $10,000 campaign fund. The people are afraid of that "oversight."

REPUBLICAN COUNTY CONVENTION

The delegates met at the court house at 11 a. m. and was called to order by Dr. W. D. Wood, Chairman of the Republican County Central Committee. Dr. Wood congratulated the convention upon the conditions of the country. He called attention to what was the issue before the convention at its last meeting two years ago. That the party has won a great victory in the mean time, that a revenue law had been put on the law books, that sound money had been maintained and, would be, if the principles of the party shall not be departed from. The first order of business was the selection of temporary officers.

Hon. C. F. Tigard of East Butte was nominated for temporary chairman by delegate Eddy, of East Cedar Creek, Delegate Wheeler, of Dairy, nominated Dr. James Withycomb of South Hillsboro, for the same position.

Delegate Travis of West Bute moved that the vote be taken by precincts and that the chairman of each delegation announce vive voce the vote of his delegation. The motion was adopted. Some of the delegations voted solid, but more of them were divided.

The vote for temporary chairman, Dr. James Withycomb and Hon. C. F. Tigard being the nominees, stood as follows:

Battles and Diseases.

This is the story of one who participated in many naval and infantry engagements during the war. From wounds received then he suffered for years, but to-day, enjoys renewed strength.

There is a distinctly peculiar halo that invests the being of an old soldier in the eyes of the present generation. The sight of him arouses a feeling of admiration for his brave deeds and heroic achievements.

Among those who bravely fought was Dr. L. J. Clark, who, when but a beardless boy, heard the tocsin of war sounded.

It fired his patriotic spirit to a fervency that knew no bounds, and to the realization of fighting in the battle.

To the call of President Lincoln for troops for the three years term of '61, young Clark promptly responded.

There was need of men in the navy, and he joined that service in the mortar fleet of Admiral Porter, which soon after began operations on the Mississippi River.

At the terrific bombardment of the Vicksburg forts, the hero of this story fell on the deck of the Juliette with a shattered arm from a charge of schrapnel.

He lay in the hospital for months, and when he had recovered sufficiently to be moved, was sent to his home at Warren, O.

Though partly incapacitated for active service, his patriotic zeal got the better of him, and when the call for more troops came, young Clark enlisted in a company formed by Capt. Joel I. Asper, at Warren.

It became Co. H. of the 7th Ohio Volunteers and was sent to the Army of the Potomac under General Grant then campaigning in Virginia against General Robert E. Lee.

In a skirmish near Richmond, he was wounded again and was sent to the hospital. He remained there for some time, but finally recovered, and went home.

Shortly after, he began the study of veterinary surgery, and, when completed, went to Chicago, where he has resided for thirty years, and is now one of the leading surgeons of that profession in the city.

His old wounds began to trouble him several years ago. He grew weak, emaciated and thoroughly debilitated. His friends began to despair of his life.

He was but a shadow of his former self, weighing only 93 pounds, a loss of nearly 50 pounds. He had the best medical attention, but it did not benefit him.

"Finally a friend gave me a box of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People," said Dr. Clark. "After taking the pills I was so much benefited that I purchased a half dozen boxes and took them.

"They were of more benefit than the ablest physicians' treatment. By their aid alone, I soon regained my strength.

"I weigh 150 pounds now, and except for injuries that can never be remedied, I am as well as ever.

"I consider Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People the best remedy I know of to build up a run-down system."

To-day Dr. Clark is a picture of health. He is 53 years old, an active member of Hatch Post, G. A. R., and resides at 4935 Ashland Ave., Chicago.

Many veterans have found Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People of inestimable value in counteracting the unhealthful effects of army life. All druggists sell these pills and highly recommend them.

Is Your Business Dull?

Then this is the time to improve it. Don't wait until "something turns up," but turn it up yourself. Remember this—the purpose of advertising is to bring business. The wise business man will advertise as much—if not more—in dull seasons as in busy seasons.

A good and time-honored way of advertising is through the HILLSBORO INDEPENDENT. Whether you want to get out something neat to send through the mails or something cheap to throw around, come and see us.

If You Were He

Yes, if you were the creditor and saw the merchant sitting idly in his shop accumulating more dust, cobwebs and out-of-style goods than cash, you would probably feel like asking, Why don't you use the advertising columns of the HILLSBORO INDEPENDENT and exchange your stock for legal tender? What say you.

Rush Work

is a problem in most job offices. Not so with the HILLSBORO INDEPENDENT Printery. We have a large force of men at work all the time and can "rush" a job for you without any trouble. When you want work done quickly give the HILLSBORO INDEPENDENT Job Office a trial.
