The stock of lumber in the mill yards is running low for some dimensions. Before fall the demand will be greater than the supply.

See the Edison combined show at the opera house next Wednesday night. The proprietor is a Marion county man and worthy of patronage for two reasons. He is our neighbor and he has a good show.

The time table for the Laurel mail has been changed. The mail now leaves Laurel at 9 o'clock a. m. and returns from Hillsboro at 11:30. Returning it leaves Hillsboro at 12 m. and arrives at Laurel at 3 o'clock.

School Supt. Ball has appointed H. E. Coleman of Beaverton and Mrs Josephine S. Case of Hillsboro, to be on his board of examination, which will question applicants touching their fitness to teach in the public schools of the county.

The latest machine for projecting pictures on a screen turned out by the Edison company will be exhibited in town next Wednesday. This apparatus is lighted by a calcium light which for projections is better than any other.

Mr. A. W. Saxton, is just completing his story and a half residence on his tract of land on the East side of Rock creek just above the railroad bridge. Mr. Saxton will have a very pleasant home there which he expects to occupy when his contract at the poor farm expires.

Capt. Collins has been quite busy at the court house for the past ten days cleaning and varnishing the inside wood work of the offices and halls. Next to be taken in hand is the furniture. Many of the chairs in the court room have been so long away from a glue pot that they are threatening to be rickety.

Workmen are strengthening the roof of the Congregational church this week. Evidences of weakness developed so that an examination was made when it was discovered that the foot of several rafters on one side was resting on air. The roof has been raised and a lattice truss put in so that no further settling can occur. Now it is one of the strongest roofs in town.

The jail-birds tried one of the old time tricks last Saturday evening. There are three of the gentry confined, Rambo serving a sentence, Dolan waiting trial and another tarrying till the grand jury meets. Last Saturday evening between seven and eight o'clock jailer Barrett took supper to his prisoners. Rambo is but a boy and was trusted. The others were driven in their cells and the lever thrown that locks them in. Dolan evidently thought to take advantage of the semitwilight, and instead of allowing his cell door to swing into place held his hand so that the bar fell on the inside instead of the outside. Rambo then tackeled Mr. Barrett and a struggle commenced. Dolan soon lent his assistance when Barrett was dragged in a cell and the door closed. Rambo in the meantime had possessed himself of the key to the outer door. The birds then made a break for liberty, but county clerk Imbrie who was working over time heard the calls of jailor Barrett and went to investigate. He saw the worthies streaking through the hall. He gave the alarm and then let Barrett out. Many willing feet made light work. Both runawayswere soon caught and returned to prison. Leg bail is not as good after all as paper bail with accepted sureties.

The INDEPENDENT has had only kindly words for the Gen. Ransom Relief Corps, but the time has come for something to be said. Last Friday the corps laid cloths and set on supper for friends and patrons. All that was appetizing was prepared—roast chicken, roast beef, salads, cakes, tarts, jellies, confections, iced drinks. The attendants were courteous and kind. All this was well worth fifty cents per plate yet the ladies only asked fifteen cents. The boys at Manila for whom the fund is intended will groan in spirit and talk Spanish when they come to know what they have lost by reason of the low price of that entertainment. The receipts were however satisfactory and the special war relief fund is somewhat replenished.

Say, you remember that "very old and crude" surveyors instrument described in that demo-pop-circular used in the last campaign against county surveyor Morrill. Well by a liberal expenditure of money, an instrument has been evolved superior to anything heretofore used in the county. Mr. Morrill's new compass is a solar transit from the celebrated house of Gurney & Co, and has all the latest devices for accuracy and ease of manipulation that is known to the instrument maker. Mr. Morill is justly proud of his new transit.

The advertising of Schilling's Best in this paper met with such success that a few months ago Messrs. A. Schilling & Co. started the advertising of their money-back baking powder. They are evidently well pleased with the results, for we have again received an order for advertising of their tea and baking powder, this time for increased space. There is nothing that sells so well as a good article advertised in the town where it is to be sold.

Street rumor is to the effect that the Pharmacy will move across the street to the brick store on Main street next door east of R. E. Bryan & Son. The store now occupied by The Pharmacy will be taken by Schulmerich & Son. An arch-way will be cut through the partition wall so that practically both rooms will be one. This move is made necessary on the part of Schulmerich & Son to accomodate their growing trade.

The trustees of the Odd Fellows lodge have contracted with Nauffts & Wilson, of Forest Grove to build for the lodge a hall on the corner of Main and Third streets. The structure is to be of brick 27 feet by 90, two stories high. The second floor will be used for lodge purposes and the first for a business house. The contract price is $3473.

Assessor Wilcox is writing up his assessment roll this month and is making satisfactory progress. The assessment this year will be in most excellent shape because much care is taken with land descriptions. Each tract is described with as much minuteness as though a deed of conveyance was being drawn.

A goodly company composed of E. L. McCormick wife and brother-in law and P. O. Brown and family started for Neiarts yesterday to be absent during the dog days.

There are more thistles growing in the back streets than are necessary and no better time for digging them up could be found. The hot sun will kill them quick. Each property owner should destroy them before the city authorities makes a peremptory order.

The Emergency corps of Salem has invited Congressman Tongue to deliver an address before it tomorrow, Saturday, evening. The invitation has been accepted conditionally by Mr. Tongue, the condition being that he can complete business in court already commenced.

LOST—Strayed from my place at Wilsonville, Ore., July 14, A white cow, of medium size, has regular turned up horns, about 8 years old. Had on a small cow-bell when she left home. She was accompanied by Holstien heifer one and one-half years old, mostly black with a white face. Any information leading to their recovery will be amply rewarded. Chas. Hansen, 10-12.

J. B. Weriz, a carpenter was working on A. A. Morril's barn on Tuesday last. By some mishap he lost his ballance and fell from the roof a distance of 25 feet, striking on his head. He was alone and laid on the ground unconscious for an hour or more before he was discovered. Dr. F. A. Bailey was hastily summoned. He found his patient still unconcious caused by a severe concussion of the brain. A bone of the hand was broken, the little finger dislocated and several other quite serious bruises make up the visible damages. At this time after several days the injured man is considered out of danger and making rapid recovery.

L. E. Wilkes has found a rough country in Carry county. On the 15th Neil Soren was sent to the settlement for provisions, but he lost his way and wandered about till late Saturday before he found his bearings. During the time he was out, he had no food nor did he have the protection of a tree even, notwithstanding a hard mountain rain was drenching the whole country. Some of the party complain that the hills are so steep that they are unable to keep their blankets over themselves while they sleep. Game is quite abundant, and but for the game law, the surveyors could always have fresh meat.

Last Friday evening the Epworth League of the M. E. Church entertained their friends at the old Delta on Main Street. The feature of the occasion was an impromptu address by Congressman Tongue. This was the first public appearance of Mr. Tongue since his return from Washington. Mr. Tongue spoke of the pleasure he experienced in coming home. Speaking of the present disturbed condition of the country he called attention to the fact that arms had been placed in the hands of a part of our citizens to compell Spain to do right. For that and no other purpose was this war commenced. But notwithstanding the horrors of war, and the lavish expenditure of treasure, this struggle is worth all it costs. It unites the nation as it was never before united. In the revolutionary war we had tories, in the war of 1812 there was a strong minority that opposed the administration. The Mexican war was not popular at the north and the great rebellion was the arraing one section against the other, but in this struggle the people are of one mind. The results of the war would without doubt bring us more erritory and it will be our duty to accept the responsibility. We must keep Porto Rico to remove an undesirable neighbor. Cuba will be free of course and we must retain what we get in the Pacific that we may have trade outlets. This we can have ample reason for doing since our commerce and our civilization goes hand in hand. We hold that our institutions are so good that it is proper that they be given to the islands of the sea. The speaker compared the Epworty League to Miles' army. Both are organized for one purpose, to make men be good. The difference is the soldiers with violence perhaps compells its opponents, while the League persuades with the eloquence of the religion of Jesus.

Rev. Mr. Boozer surprized some of us at least last Friday evening when he stepped off the train and introduced to his friends a charming young lady as "my wife, Mrs. Boozer," A few members of his congregation who were in the secret met the bride and groom and escorted them to their lodgings. We all welcome Mrs. B. to our town and hope that her residence here will be so pleasant that no longings for her old home will be experienced.

The young peoples' society of christian endeavor of the Tualatin Plains Presbyterian church, our county cousins came to town last Wednesday evening and found a tarrying place with their pastor, Rev. M. George. The young people brought a can of ice cream along with cake, and a literary program. But few of the city denizens were present but the entertainment of those present was perfect.

The Ladies Home Journal announces that it is in want of two editors, and will be glad of the assistance of two bright persons—men or women. One is wanted to edit the fashions department and the other to write for children. Both must be largely endowed with originality, and set forth the lines upon which they would conduct the work.

As harvest approaches the rosy estimates of the early season vanish. The straw is here but grain is shy. There were imperfect conditions at some point which the favorable elements at other times could not overcome. Reports however indicate that other counties have been more fortunate.

Correspondence confirms the fears of Mrs. Clora Hager. The gentleman drowned nerr Nachez, Miss. in June was her brother. He was in government employ, but the particulars of his death were not communicated.

Born—In Hillsboro July 24 to Rev. R. A. Atkins and wife a daughter. July 28 to A. C. Shute and wife a daughter.

W. H. Wehrung and family will go to Newport tomorrow where the weather is cooler.

WEEKLY CROP BULLATIN.

Portland, Or., July 25, 1898.

The weather has been cooler, with less sunshine than during the preceding week. On the 22d, rain to the amount of from 0.02 to 0.34 of an inch fell along the coast and in the northern portion of the Willamette Valley, in the Columbia River Valley eastward as far as Sherman county, in a portion of Union county and about Bakes City; elsewhere a few sprinkles occured. The second crop of clover is making good growth.

Harvesting of fall sown wheat is under way in most all portions of the State, the crop is very heavy. The grain is of good size and plump; so far there are no reports of any shriveled grain. Hop lice are numerous in the majority of yards.

Cherries are about gone. Peach plums are ripe and being shipped by carload lots. Peaches and apricots are being shipped by carload lots, the crop is large in Douglas, Josephine and Jackson counties. The prune trees are loaded, and hand pruning is very active. Apple and Bartlett pears are loaded. The growth of flax for fiber is no longer a experiment, a successful fact. Sugar beets are in a most satisfactory condition.

held the first commission ever, in the world's history, transmitted by telegraph, appointing him envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary with complete instructions as to the manner of acting upon every one of the peace conditions presented by the United States, including the disposition of Cuba, Porto Rico, the Philippines, the Ladrones, indemnity armistic and all other questions likely to arise in the course of the negotiations.

After M. Cambon had presented his credentials as plenipotentiary and they had been examined and his statute recognized as the envoy of Spain the first business was the presentation of the terms laid down by the United States government. Secretary Day read the terms, pausing at the end of each sentence to allow M. Thiebault, first secretary of the French embassy, to interpret it into French, as the ambassador's knowledge of English is limited. This reading by Secretary Day and interpreting by M. Thiebault took but 15 minutes. Then began the discussion point by point. The president and the ambassador addressed each other directly with the greatest freedom, each stoutly maintaining the justice of his position on the several points involved, until at last after an eloquent plea by the ambassador, it was agreed to modify the conditions in one particular.
