

The Companion's New Calendar.
 The calendars given by The Companion in former years to all subscribers have been remarkable for their delicacy of design and richness of coloring. But the Calendar for 1899 far surpasses any of those. The publishers have endeavored to make it the finest calendar of the century, and readers of The Companion will not be disappointed in it. Those who subscribe now will receive not only the gift of the calendar but also all the issues of November and December, from the time of subscription free. The new volume will be the best The Companion has ever published. Among the contributions already engaged are "The Little Demons of war," by Hon. John D. Long; "Opportunities for Young Explorers" Sir Clements Markham. Fine illustrated announcements and sample copies will be sent to any one addressing

 REEFTON, New Zealand, Nov. 18, 1896.
 I am very pleased to state that since I took the agency of Chamberlain's medicines the sale has been very large, more especially the cough cure. In two years I have sold more of this particular remedy than of all the other makes for the previous years. As to its efficacy I have been informed by scores of people of the good results they have received from it, and know its value from the use of it in my own household. It is so pleasant to take that we have to place the bottle beyond the reach of the children.

A Sure Sign of Croup.
 Hoarseness in a child that is subject to croup is a sure indication of the approach of the disease. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the cough has appeared, it will prevent the attack. Many mothers who have croupy children always keep this remedy at hand and find it saves much trouble and worry. It can always be depended upon and is pleasant to take.

The Best Plaster.
 A piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bound on to the affected parts is superior to any plaster. When troubled with a pain in the chest or side, or a lame back, give it a trial. You are certain to be more than pleased with the prompt relief which it affords. Pain Balm is also a certain cure for rheumatism. For sale by the Delta Drug Store.
