

ANOTHER HAS GONE

Mrs. Kate Anderson died at her home last Friday morning

1899 JURYMEN SELECTED

200 Men who will be called upon to act as Jurymen for the County - A Good List.

Died Jan. 19th at her home in Hillsboro, Mrs. Kate Anderson, 54 years of age. The deceased whose maiden name was Kate Sweeney was born in Ireland in 1845. At the age of three years she came with her father to America and lived in Lowell Massachusetts till she went to womanhood, when she went to California, but soon she went to Nevada where she met Mr. Anderson whom she married in September 1876. Two years later, in 1878 she and her husband came to Oregon. Mr. Anderson bought a fine tract of land in South Tualatin where he resided continuously till two years ago when he moved to University Park, Portland. He lived there till last fall when he came back to Washington county and bought property here in Hillsboro which he was improving and making into a lovely home. Now the deceased husband has all his plans shattered, and but for his daughter who is with him life would be gloomy indeed. However Miss Anderson possesses the cheerful sunny temper of her mother and will bring light to the life of her father. Mrs. Anderson had many friends and was a favorite wherever she was known. She was a devout christian and her deeds of charity were many though her left hand did not always know when her right hand opened her purse. Father DeRo, her pastor being H. pastor Hughes of the Congregational church officiated at the funeral exercises.

DIRECT FROM MANILA

Corporal Thos. Mann writes to his friends in Hillsboro

Co.H. REVENUE COLLECTORS

Eugene Scully of Hillsboro is the Oregon Base Ball Catcher-Gee. Cronkite promoted.

T. B. Mann of Co. H, 24 Oregon Infantry writes from Manila in a cheerful strain to an attaché of the INDEPENDENT office. His company had just been detailed for work in custom house detention and though the service is one of responsibility, the boys are pleased. The work is principally one of guard duty, but it is not like walking a beat. The members of the company realize their worth which is spoken of thusly: "It is a position that many companies would like to secure, but Gen. Oils, knowing Co. H. to be the best company in the VIII army corps and one that can be relied on, has given us the job. You see," it is no longer private Mann, but Corporal. Geo. Cronkite has also been promoted to Corporal. The Hillsboro boys have been fortunate in that they have had little sickness. Mann is still company cook having Class Parilla for assistant. There was many a broad grin on the faces of the soldiers when they saw the brigade commissary issuing large bank potatoes which looked like they were raised on the Tualatin bottom. Tom writes that some of his comrades are seriously thinking about taking their discharge at Manila and staying there. The opportunities, they consider, will be great with a new class of people and a new government. The dress of the people there is varied. The charge garment for native children is a dour sack with a hole cut in the bottom for their heads and the corners clipped off for armholes. Shoes are unknown to the poorer classes, and they have nothing more to eat than the average American chicken. Rice is their main dish and that is with-out salt. Now and then a cattle ship comes in the harbor and there is always a few of the animals injured while unloading. These animals often die. Even the natives pounce upon the carcass and fight over it like jackals. Some of the sheep are so rotten that an American cannot approach in twenty feet of it but the whole Philippine population turns out to the feast. Mann finds the Spanish soldiers quite entertaining when they tell about their terrible fighting qualities, but calls their attention to the battle of Manila Bay and the surrender of the city, they have no answer to say. It will be long before they are sent home to Spain where they can boast to a finish. Tom speaks of Lt. Bryan, who was about to start home, as a hard worker and as one universally liked by his comrades. The Oregon is doing ahead in the baseball field. Eugene Scully who worked in Redmond & Sappington's stable is catcher for the Oregonians. The following is a list of letters remaining uncalled for in the postoffice at Hillsboro, Jan. 14, 1899: S. G. Gloor, 2 Mr. W. Ryan, 2 Mrs. John Williams, Miss L. B. Hayes, Miss C. E. Knight. All letters not called for by Jan. 25, will be sent to the Dead Letter Office. One cent will be charged for each letter called for. H. SCHULMEICHER, P. M.

Rev. Samuel Freehand, the new minister of the Congregational church visited chapel Monday morning and made a short address to the students. Miss Evans who has been unable to meet her classes this term on account of sickness is rapidly improving and will resume her work as usual today. The athletic union intends to refit the gymnasium soon, if sufficient aid can be secured from the faculty and students to finance the undertaking. Mr. Howard Brownell, president of the Union called a meeting of the students last evening to take action on the matter, and no doubt steps will be taken toward a general refitting and furnishing of the gymnasium. The inter-collegiate debate between Hesperus society of the consolidated university of Portland and Gamma Sigma society of P. U. which has been the all absorbing topic around school for some time came off last Friday evening in the auditorium of Marsh Memorial Hall. Although the visitors carried away first honors it was only possible for one side to win and in the minds of the judges Portland held first place and were entitled to the decision. While it is feared this contest is the first time P. U. has been worsted in the line and will only serve to make us redoubt our efforts in the future. The first regular debate between colleges of the Inter-collegiate association will take place here Feb. 23rd between U. of O. and P. U. This will be the first contest between the universities and is already arousing great interest. A meeting of the electors of school district No. 7, Hillsboro, is called for Saturday, January 28, at 1:30 p. m. for the purpose of levying a special tax for the support of the public school for the ensuing year. It is understood that the board will ask for money sufficient to pay two bonds this year, leaving only seven for next year which is the time they fall due. By special request Mr. Hughes will speak, next Sunday night at the Congregational church, on "Tom Brown at Ragby." Music by the Junior Orchestra. E. Hayter and J.H. Nelson respectively clerks of Polk and Yamhill counties were in town for a few hours on Wednesday last. Preaching at the Christian church next Sunday, forenoon and evening. Mr. Geo. H. Carlson is slowly recovering from a bad case of grippe.

OUT FROM THE ASHES

Odd Fellows dedicated their new hall Wednesday evening

FIVE YEARS TO A DAY

Since the old Hall was burned - P. G. M., L. C. Parker the dedicating Officer.

The Odd Fellows were in better form last Wednesday evening than they were five years ago same date. Jan. 18th, 1894 they were gloomily standing around the smoking ruins of their lodge home. On Wednesday evening they welcomed their brothers from other lodges and their families to the dedication of a new two story brick hall 27 by 90 feet in size erected on the same ground as that occupied by the old building. The new structure cost a few dollars less than $500 though plumbing and wiring and sidewalks will swell the figure. Excepting the Morgan-Bailey building it is the equal of any structure in town. Its insurance rating is lower than that of any other business block. P. G. M., L. C. Parker as Dept. G. M. of La Croole Lodge accompanied by A. O. Sinks, D. G. Warden, J. H. Nelson, Marshal and A. W. Treats G. Chap. dedicated the hall to the uses of Odd Fellowship. The ceremony is a beautiful one and was witnessed by a large assembly of Odd Fellows, Hillsboro Rebekah Lodge served what they termed a collation but what was in reality a banquet. The occasion is one that will long be remembered by the members of the order. The lodge here is in a prosperous condition and it has a comfortable home that, barring accidents will be a home for many years. The arrangement of the second story was made with direct reference to the needs of the lodge. At the head of the stairs is the piece and well lighted lobby. The visitor may then pass into the lodge room through an ante room or into the dining room. This latter is of good size and well arranged. The property rooms open into it. At one end of the dining room is a small kitchen fitted with a china closet, a stove, tables and a sink. The cheerful apartment is the lodge room which is well lighted from the main street end. The floor is covered with a carpet of warm colors in beautiful design which with the rich carpeting used in a well appointed Odd Fellows hall gives a most pleasing effect. Besides the reality on the corner of Main and Third streets the order owns a cemetery just beyond the city limits so that only exists in connection with the order. A Card.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Road desire in this way to return thanks for the many kindness and sympathies extended them throughout the illness and funeral obsequies of their son, Louis, Jr.

Hillsboro, Jan. 19, 1899.

Senator Haines has introduced a bill in the senate reducing the salaries of county officers in Washington county. The visitor may then pass into the lodge room through an ante room or into the dining room. This latter is of good size and well arranged. The property rooms open into it. At one end of the dining room is a small kitchen fitted with a china closet, a stove, tables and a sink. The cheerful apartment is the lodge room which is well lighted from the main street end. PACIFIC UNIVERSITY.

James Allen and Chas. McLaughlin two youths of questionable character that lived at Sylvan at the head of the Canyon were arrested by detective Ford charged with holding up, assaulting and robbing an old Belgian that lives in a shack by the watering trough in the Canyon. There is little doubt of the guilt of the accused, and several other out rages recently committed in the neighborhood are laid to them. Aikens' wife left him a few days ago and went home to her father who lives in this county out beyond Glencoe. The Penny Magazine, New York, which is the lowest priced magazine in America (20 cents a year), and which is owned by Hon. Chauncey M. Depew, the eminent American orator, wants a representative in this vicinity. It is a good opportunity for one of our ambitious young men or young women. Applications should be addressed to the Subscription department, The Penny Magazine, Temple Court, New York. E. K. Watts representing the Western Library company is in town this week. His plan for putting 1000 volumes of standard books, histories, biographies, science and miscellaneous publications within the reach of all is the most economical of any that has been presented. Our people whether they have read much or not should examine his proposition. A few days ago mention was made of an estate that had been in probate for a long time but it could hardly equal that of David McDonald, the final settlement of which is advertised this week. It has been in court 20 years during which time there have been two administrators. Mrs. J. M. Parish of Wilbur Washington is visiting with her brother Hon. Wm. N. Barrett. She will be here several weeks, while her husband, Hon. J. M. Parish, is helping to elect a senator and make laws for Washington. D. E. Bush's residence in the extreme east end of the county caught fire from a defective flue and was entirely destroyed. The tenant was able to save only a pair of his household effects. No insurance. A wagonmaker Horse on 3d street has a two and a half horse power engine and boiler for sale for less than $100. The fire which opened in the car ride home. He resigned his commission which has been accepted. After resting a few days he will start home.
