OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY

FRIDAY, MARCH 31 1899.

Mayor Mason of Portland died last Monday at his home after an illness of six weeks. The Mayor has been prominent in the public eye of Portland for many years, and it will not be easy to fill his place.

The Spanish Minister of Marine is talking of buying warships abroad. But what does Spain want with more warships? If she had not had so many last year she would not have been so badly whipped.

Senator Hoar writes in the currrnt Scribner of his reminiscences of Webster. Is the Senator sure he is telling us about the right man? It is not long since he got his Washington and Aguinaldo mixed up.

J. C. Hater late of the firm Doughty & Hater publishers of the Polk County Observer has bought his partners interest in the business and will continue the publication of the Observer as an exponent of republicanism. The paper is to be enlarged to a standard 7-column home print folio. Hater is a good printer and a fine newspaper manger, and will not be handicapped in any improvements he makes. His people are to be congratulated.

It transpires that the late legislature made no appropriation for transferring insane persons to the asylum. There is money lying idle in the state treasury to defray this expense yet the state must pay interest on warrants issued for this service. Thus it costs $1.12 to get $1 worth of work done. It is to be regretted that legislators could not take their minds from the committee clerks long enough to properly attend to public business.

The American army continues to follow the precedents set by Grant. Otis commenced a fight last Thursday and kept it up for five days. Indeed it has been almost a continuous battle since Feb. 4. Those Spanish taught insurgeants get no rest day or night. A year ago it was said that the raw American volunteers could not stand before the Spanish veterans. True they did not nor do not stand. They go forward driving everything before them.

THE OREGONIANS IN BATTLE.

Senator McBride has these words of praise for the second Oregon Infantry. Everything Orogon can and will fight, be it battleship or infantry. The Senator says:

"It was very sad news, especially to me, as I knew personally many of the soldiers among the killed and wounded. A considerable proportion of the soldiers of the regiment are native-born Oregonians, sons of pioneer families, who were well known in the state. The heavy losses of the Oregon regiment show that they were called upon to take the post of honor, where the fighting was the hottest, and from that point of view it is a tribute to their well-known bravery, as well as to their military proficiency. From the time they first marched through the streets in San Francisco and elicited the praise of the regular army officers for their soldierly bearing, until now, the men of the Oregon regiment have been called upon for difficult service, where soldierly discipline and trustworthy character were required. The news of these losses will bring sorrow to a great many homes in Oregon, and the families will have general sympathy throughout the state. Personally, I feel the deepest sympathy for the families of those who were killed or wounded, being acquainted with so many of them."

Commissioner Hermann, of the general land office, said:

"In consultation with the war department officials to ascertain the view entertained, from a military standpoint, as to the merit disclosed by the Oregon volunteers in the battle just reportd, I find, from the diagram of the battle-field and the movements of the troops, as technically shown by the war charts, that the efficiency especially shown by the Second Oregon companies is equal to that of anything before illustrated in regard to other troops. In view of the insurmountable obstacles which intervened, the success achieved indicates a degree of bravery, of discipline and cool determination which has few equals. While I express the deepest regret upon the sad showing in reference to the losses sustained and the wounds inflicted upon our brave men, yet I feel a profound pleasure in knowing that our state has, through its honored troops, achieved such a reputation. The battle-ship Oregon had previously made our state famous through its name upon the high seas, and now, through the blood and valor of our troops, we are becoming most creditably remembered upon the battle-field. As an Oregonian, I am especially proud of the record made by the Oregon troops."

DEEDS OF DARING.

Never had commanders soldiers as Otis directs in Luzon. With never such opportunities for skulking not a private shirks. Men steal away to the firing line and fight with strangers when they know they will be punished. Through swamps and into jungles they rush and drive a foe that never before was driven. Other armies have been years in learning how to fight over similar ground. Our men accomodate themselves to the conditions at once. One instance is recited that two men, not enough to form a squad, swam a river in the face of the enemy and secured a coveted position. This act of heroism surpasses that other incident when the the bridge was kept by those Romans in that three men were required. Is it any wonder that promotion goes to officers who command such troops.

THE SAMOAN BOMBARDMENT

The American and English war ships at Apia, Samoan islands have bombarded and burned several native villages. The natives under their new king are not maintaining an orderly government. Several British and American subjects had been killed and others wounded. This incident would not amount to much but for the fact that three powers, United States, England and Germany agreed to maintain order there but now Germany seems to espouse the cause of the rioting natives. It is not really the German nation that has done this but the German representatives in the Samoan islands, wherefore it is not thought that Germany will go to war with England and the United States. Our position in the islands would be exceedingly strong but for the writing of a private letter by Judge Carpenter to his brother in America which the latter allowed to be published. There is really nothing wrong in the letter only it was undiplomatic to say some of the things he wrote privately to a member of his family. It is a little early yet in the absence of details to foretell what complications may arise.

STATE ITEMS.

Hay is $14 a ton at Canyon city.

Bogus half-dollars that very closely imitate the genuine are being circulated in the Willamette valley.

H. Cordes has leased 75 acres near LaGrande, and will raise sugar-beet seed. Heretofore, the seed has been imported from Germany.

The Rickreall postoffice was robbed one night last week. The thief got $16 and some articles of merchandise. He over-looked about $200 that was in the safe.

The Citizens' League, of Union, has under consideration a proposition from a Chicago firm that is desirous of establishing an extensive canning establishment in Union.

There are now 11 schooners, one gasoline schooner and one steamer plying between Brandon and outside ports, and with the improvement of river and bar this number will be more than doubled.

Magnificent weather for farming operations prevails at Marion county, and preparations for plowing and seeding for spring grain are well under way. Fall-sown grain, compared with the average, taking 100 per cent as a basis, is 90 per cent.

The town of Prineville, in Crook county, has accepted Mr. Gates' proposition to supply it with an electric-light plant and water system. This will cost the city $10,000, besides the interest on the bonds, and her enterprise is commendable.

The loss of stock in Gilliam county is said to be considerable this winter. Gilliam & French lost 1000 head of cattle, most of them having been procured in the Wilamette valley last fall, when they were very poor. James Hunt, of the same county lost 800 head of sheep out of a 1200 band.

Last Tuesday afternoon the joint committee of the masonic and odd fellows fraternities of Canyon City awarded the contract for a two-story stone building. Mr. Gassman being the sole bidder, the contract was let to him for $5985. Today Mr. Gassman will furnish bonds and sign the contract, and in a few days will begin laying the foundation. The building is to be two stories high, built of stone, with a cut-stone front. The dimensions are 52x60 feet and 42 feet high.

The new state board of agriculture met Monday night and organized by electing W. H. Wehrung, Hillsboro, president; J. H. Settlemeir, Woodburn, vice-president, C. D. Gabrielson, Salem, secretary; and J. H. Albert, Salem, treasurer. The treasurer's bond was fixed at $20,000. A. J. Johnson, Scio; J. H. Settlemeier, Woodburn; W. H. Wehrung, Hillsboro; George Chandler, Baker county and Senator A. W. Reed, Gardiner, constitute the board. All except Reed who is in California, were present. It was necessary to take 11 ballots before a president was chosen, each member of the board being a candidate.

HOW TENNESEEANS SHOOT.

(Harpers Weekly)

A yarn is told in Manila, and it concerns the prison and two Tennessee volunteers.

A Filipino convict had climbed the prison wall and was running for dear life through the open. Two long-legged Tennesseeans were on guard duty. They kneeled to fire.

"I don't guess it's more than three hundred yards," said one quietly.

"I recon it's most five hundred," said the other, as if he were discussing the weather.

The prisoner was running like a deer, and rapidly approaching the undergrowth around innumerable little huts, where he would be safe.

"Call it four hundred," suggested the first Tennesseean, in a conciliatory tone.

They adjusted their sights, aimed and fired. The escaping convict fell and the two Tennesseeans went out to bring what was left of him.

"If he's hit in the head, it's my shot," said one.

"I aim low, acco'ding to a'my regulations," drawled the other.

The convict was found with one bullet through the back of his head and another through the lower end of his spine. They know how to shoot in the mountains of Tennessee.

In Portland last Tuesday evening at the meeting of the general committee making arrangements for receiving and entertaining the national editorial association, steps were taken looking to inducing President McKinley to visit Oregon and spend the 4th in Portland. It is understood that the president will be in the Yellow Stone Park in June and it is hoped he may be prevailed upon to extend his visit further west.

La Gripe Successfully Treated.

"I have just recovered from the second attack of la grippe this year," says Mr. Jas. A. Jones, publisher of the Leader, Mexia, Texas. "In the latter case I used Chamberlain's Cough remedy, and I think with considerable success, only being in bed a little over two days against ten for the former attack. The second attack I am satisfied would have been equally as bad as the first but for the use of this remedy as I had to go to bed in about six hours after being 'struck' with it, while in the first case I was able to attend to business about two days before getting 'down.'" For sale by The Delta Drug store.

How to Prevent Pneumonia.

You are perhaps aware that pneumonia always results from a cold or from an attack of la grippe. During the epidemic of la grippe a few years ago when so many cases resulted in pneumonia, it was observed that the attack was never followed by that disease when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy was used. It counteracts any tendency of a cold or la grippe to result in that dangerous disease. It is the best remedy in the world for bad colds and a grippe. Every bottle warranted. For sale by Delta Drug store.

Your Face

If you are feeling weak and worn out and do not have a healthy appearance you should try Acker's Blood Elixir. It cures all blood diseases where cheap sarsaparillas and so called purifiers fail; knowing this we will sell every bottle on a positive guarantee. Delta Drug Store.

Nervous People.

Nervous people not only suffer themselves but cause more or less misery to everyone around them. They are fretful, easily worried and therefore a worry to others.

When everything annoys you, when your pulse beats excessively, when you are startled at the least unexpected sound, your nerves are in a bad state and should be promptly attended to.

Nervousness is a question of nutrition. Food for the nerves is what you need to put you right, and the best nerve food in the world is Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People.

They give strength and tone to every nerve in the body, and make despondent, easily irritated people feel that life has renewed its charms. Here is proof:

Miss Cora Watrous, the sixteen-year-old daughter of Mr. T. C. Watrous, of 61 Clarion St., Bradford, Pa., was seized with a nervous disorder which threatened to end her life. Eminent physicians agreed the trouble was from impoverished blood, but failed to give relief. Mr. Watrous heard Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People were highly recommended for nervous disorders, and gave them a trial. Before the first box had been taken the girl's condition improved. After using six boxes her appetite returned, the pain in her head ceased, and she was stronger than ever before. "My daughter's life was saved by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People," said Mrs. Watrous. "Her condition was almost hopeless when she commenced taking them, but now she is strong and healthy. I cannot recommend these pills too highly."—Bradford (Pa.) Era.
