OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY

FRIDAY, APRIL 14, 1899.

The administration allows it to go out no proposition to trade the Philippine Islands for the West Indies will be entertained.

Those Tagals stand little chance when the Kansas troops go after them. Chasing Tagals in the jungles of Luzon is easy work to the boys.

It is their ignorance more than anything else that has made all the trouble for us among the Filipinos.

The Germans approach the Samoan difficulty with a circumspection that was not exhibited by Europeans before the Spanish war.

Report comes that Gen. Alger, Sec. of War will resign when he comes home from Cuba.

Editor Benj. B. Herbert of the National Printer Journalist of Chicago met with the Portland committee of arrangements last Tuesday evening.

The death by drowning of fish commissioner McGuire is a sad one yet no more so than the drowning of any highly respected citizen.

Germany has demanded that the United States shall disavow the acts of Admiral Kautz and apologize for same.

A new commission has been appointed composed of Trip, American, Elliot, English, and Von Sternberg, German, and it is expected they will start from San Francisco on the 19th.

The real contending parties are England and Germany while America is more of an arbitrator.

The principal ceremony of the day occurred in the reception room at the White house, when the exchange of ratifications took place at 3 o'clock.

General MacArthur is confining his work to scouting from Malolos as a base, while Gen. Lawton in the south is doing the principal work.

THE SAMOAN MUSS.

America has got to expand a little more. We have all along stayed north of the equator, but we will have to cross the line and preserve order in Samoa.

The effect of the action is to completely renew the peaceful relations, trade, official, diplomatic, consular and in all other ways, between this country and Spain.

After the ceremony President McKinley issued the following proclamation: "Whereas, a treaty of peace between the United States of America and her majesty the queen regent of Spain, in the name of her son, Alfonso XIII, was concluded and signed by their respective plenipotentiaries at Paris, on the 10th day of December, 1898, the original of which is in the Spanish language, and is word for word as follows: (Here the full text of the treaty is included.)

Stephen Field of the United States supreme court, died Sunday evening last at his home in Washington D.C., of kidney complications.

In 1848 he went to Europe and spent some time there traveling. In November, 1849, he sailed for San Francisco around Cape Horn, and entered upon the practice of law in the Occidental metropolis.

The condition of war which has existed between the United States and Spain since April 21, 1898, terminated Tuesday last when the last formalities in the restoration of peace were performed by the exchange of ratifications of the peace treaty.

The principal ceremony of the day occurred in the reception room at the White house, when the exchange of ratifications took place at 3 o'clock.

Shortly before 3 o'clock, French Ambassador Cambon arrived, in company with M. Thiebaut the first secretary of the embassy, the latter bearing the Spanish copy of the peace treaty.

The powers of M. Cambon and Secretary Hay were examined, his protocol concerning the day's ceremony signed, and other formalities concluded.

This cleared the way for the exchange itself, constituting the final act.
