OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY

FRIDAY, MAY 5, 1899.

The business men of Albany have raised a fund of nearly $600 to be used at the time of the band tournament at that place in June. What is Hillsboro doing towards helping our people to make a good appearance there that day?

The demand for the immediate discharge of our volunteer army notwithstanding it is in face of the enemy is no new thing. In the war of 1812-14 the same temper was shown. The state troops refused to cross the national boundary into Canada and disgrace to the nation was only neutralized by the battle of Lundy's Lane by Gen Scott. In later years this incident in our national history has not been often mentioned because it is one that all but milksops would forget.

Gov. Steunenberger of Idaho, has by proclamation declared Shoshone county, that state, in insurrection. That places the county under martial law and suspends for the time being the functions of the civil officer. Many arrests have been made and many strikers are running away. They will however be followed. They were brave on Saturday but now that they get a glimpse of the Krag-Jorgensens and the glittering bayonets, their spirit is gone.

Dr. Christie, now bishop of Vancouver, B. C., has been chosen to be archbishop of Oregon to succeed Archbishop Gross deceased. The archbishop is a native of Vermont. His family moved west and settled first in Wisconsin and afterward in Minnesota. In those states he was educated, though his theological course was completed in Montreal. He is now 46 years old. This appointment is particularly pleasing to native Americans as he will no doubt continue the policy of his predecessor that of calling to the several pastorates of his ecclesiastical territory priests familiar with the habits of thought and manners of our people. He is a western man with western traditions.

The Cologne Volks Zeitung a leading German paper of last Saturday has this significant paragraph: "Perhaps it was due to negotiations on the part of Germany in order to obtain, if possible a coaling station in the Philippines, that a number of our vessels were sent to Manila. If this presumption is correct, those who sent instructions to Admiral von Deidrichs without the knowledge of the foreign office received a bitter lesson. The foreign office has since been engaged in repairing the blunder, and has succeeded with the American government, but not yet with the people of the United States as the Coghlan incident again demonstrates." It seems strange that any business should be transacted other than what goes through the foreign office. Can it be that Empsror William has been interesting himself in a private way with the business of diplomacy? It is generally admitted in America that Coghlan, taken bo surprise perhaps, said things that he ought not to have said, yet on the other hand influential German papers with warning have been quiet as indiscreet. It is reassuring however to note such paragraphs as the one above quoted.

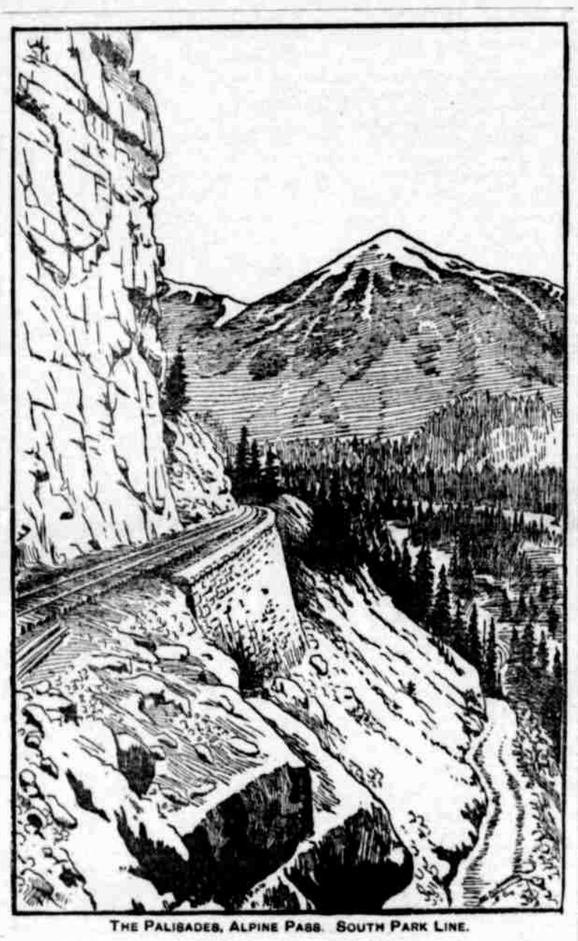
The body of the guide of the Radier party has been found. These men, four in number, were out in the woods, near the ocean, viewing a way for a railroad in the Nehalem. Mention was made last week of the death of three of the party, and now that the fourth has been found the mystery of their death is as obscure as ever. The last camp has been found but nothing to indicate the cause of death. It appears that Cloutrie took sick first and that the company started for for the settlement. About a mile and a half from camp the guide died. His body was dragged a few rods by his companions who themselves appear to have been getting sick for they carefully placed the body by a log and protected it with bark. The three men then appear to have pushed forward after eating a lunch of raw onions and cooked beef sausage. The skins of these articles were found on the ground where the men had been tramping about. After going about a mile and a half another laid down and died. The party here seemed to be in too great distress to pay attention to the dead. A mile further on a third man fell and died. The fourth, and last, Radir, pushed ahead but his superior strength had a limit and he died. No empty cans were found about the camp-fire and the theory of ptomine poison must be abandoned unless the deadly substance was in the sausage. If there was, why was more of it eaten at the place where Cloutrie died? At the coroner's inquest held on the first bodies found the stomach was much inflamed. It contained no food except raw onions. Those dense gloomy woods is a forbidding death chamber.

THE IDAHO MOB.

The time was when to be a member of a labor organization, was a certificate of skill for the work of the trade which he followed, but it is no longer so. Rather membership in the unions now allies one to the outlaws. An example of this was seen at Wardner, Idaho, last Saturday when a mob of 800 miners left their tunnels, impressed a railroad train and went to the Bunker Hill & Sullivan Mills near Wardner. In these mills they placed 3000 pounds of giant powder and exploded it. Property valued at $200,000 was destroyed. Why this violence? The manager of the mill and mine would not employ the "union miners." They employed miners without reference to their "unionism." As a matter of fact some union miners were employed, though most of the men were non-union. They were quite as skilful though as the others. There is no question on that point. The management though must be made to realize that it could not be free to employ whom it chose to work in its own mine. In the attack two men were killed. One a "union", the other a "scab." The rioters killed both men, their own by mistake.

The Governor has exhibited no great hurry in getting troops there to protect property and the sheriff is utterly unreliable. He assists the rioters rather than law abiding citizens. The only true man among the county officials is the coroner.

Troops have been ordered to the scene and those law breakers will have the satisfaction of being called to account by niggers. Some soldiers may be killed but while they are dying the whites will have a like experience for those troops are some of the regiment that went up San Juan hill. A prompt determined set of officers might have averted the disaster, but the damage is done and the county or state will have to pay. Pennsylvania has had that experience and it came hard.



THE PALISADES, ALPINE PASS. SOUTH PARK LINE.

The above is a zinc etching of scenery in Colorado similiar to what is proposed to distribute to the delegates of the National Editorial Association which is to meet here next July. It is proposed to zinc etch Oregon landscapes, industries and historical characters and then stereotype them in editions of several hundred each. These cuts will be given to the editors so they may illustrate their articles when they return home. It is hoped that a few cnts may be secured of Washington county scenery. The INDEPENDENT will be glad to give further information to those interested in this matter.

ON THE FIGHTING LINE.

The following news report is the latest from the fighting line in the Philippines and is dated Manila May 4th.

The 2d Oregon volunteers, with the rest of Colonel Summers' brigade, are advancing northward under his leadership in the direction of Masin.

The Americans under General Hale captured San Tomas today after desperate fighting on the part of the rebels. The Americans entered the town after it had been fired by the insurgeants. General Hale and his force are now pushing rapidly on San Fernando.

The advance of MacArthur's troops began early this morning, with the Kansas and Montana regiments marching along the railroad tracks, and the Utah battery, Iowa, Nebraska and South Dakota regiments on the right of the line.

A sharp battle was fought at a bridge four miles from San Tomas, where the rebels in great numbers made a fierce stand. The engage at San Tomas, while not long, was tremendously furious.

The Filipinos had two commissioners on a second visit to Otis on May 3. They asked for a truce of three months to get their congress together and take the advice of insurgeants on other islands. Otis refused to grant the truce. The commissioners at first claimed to represent Luna the commander in chief of the insurgeants, but later admitted that they came directly from Aguinaldo. The insurgeants contend that the Americans succeed to all the rights of the Spaniards, and hence Spanish prisoners are regarded same as American prisoners to be exchanged or held for ransom. Otis refuses to recognize Aguinaldo's civil government or any of its departments. No positive progress has been made toward peace tho there are some indirect gains.

One Edward Atkinson of Boston, vice-president of what he and his associates are pleased to term an anti-Imperialist league has prepared three pamphlets, seditious in matter which he is attempting to send to the army at Manila. These pamphlets advise the soldiers to demand their discharge to refuse longer to do military duty and above all not to re-inlist. The post office department has examined the seditious matter and directed that the pamphlets be excluded from the mails. Some have criticised the action of the post master general and say that the literature will be widely advertised and be much more generally read than if no attention had been paid to it. This is hardly true. Treason loves secrecy and seeks to hide in the shades of night. To oppose it the patriot needs only to bring it to the open. It is expedient to line up on this question, and all true Americans are anxious to do so. The department does well to prevent the circulation of Atkinson's treasonable literature. If it brings the matter to public attention, so much the better.

A "son of a veteran" criticises in the Oregonian as severely as he is able what the INDEPENDENT said about those Portland dames who wear white feathers. In truth there are mothers and mothers in Portland. One class would call their sons home the other would not. And there are wives in Portland. One had a letter from her husband last week who evidently had heard what Tony Noltner had been doing. He wrote "Don't on any account sign any petition asking for our recall." The soldier husband need not be alarmed for the good woman scoffed at those circulating the paper. The mothers were even stronger in their condemnation. Gen Beeby would not let the white feathers use the armory. The general is commended by the great mass of the citizens. Only Tony and his associates are suppressed. The INDEPENDENT yet has friends in Portland at least among the fathers. Really the correspondent himself ought to be something more than "a son of a veteran."

The delegates from the Oregon Press Association to the National Association which meets in Portland July 5th are Rev. C. A. Wooddy, Pacific Baptist, Portland; F. S. Harding, Telephone Register, McMinnville; R. J. Hendricks, Statesman, Salem; J. S. Stewart, Journal, Fossil; J. H. Zane, A. O. U. W. Reporter, Portland; Hon. B. F. Alley, Republican, Baker City; Ira Campbell, Guard, Eugene City; Carl O. Roe, Chieftain, Enterprise; Miss Rose D. Michell, Chronicle, The Dalles; Chas. Nickell, Times, Jacksonville. In addition to these Rev. Fisher Pacific Advocate and Albert Tozier secretary State Press Association will be in attendance as executive committee men of the National Association. D. M. C. Gault, by virtue of his office in the State Association will also mingle with the eastern visitors. So Oregon will be fairly represented as far as numbers go at any rate.

"If you want peace stop fighting." This war first prominently pronounced during the great rebellion in the 60's together with many other military laconics. Grant did a service to his country in this direction quite as valuable as the victories he won. "Unconditional surrender." "Propose to move on your works." "No armistic." These are some of the lines of action that had their origin in the civil war and they are seen running into the Manila campaign. The Filipinos ask Otis for a three month's armistice to arrange peace. Otis replies to stop fighting and you will have peace. He will not recognize any Filipino government pretended to be set up by Aguinaldo. He plainly tells the insurgeants that his relentless campaign will go forward, there is but one of two things to do, fight or lay down their arms.

Bloodless Girls

Doctors have given the Greek name Anæmia, meaning "bloodlessness" to a disease which is much more prevalent among young women than is generally believed. In its early stages the disease is not marked by any decided symptoms and often makes considerable advance before its presence is noticed. An unusual feeling of fatigue after slight exercise, breathless and pallor are the first noticeable signs.

In anæmia the blood becomes thin, the heart flabby, the skin pale and waxy. If the disease become chronic (persistent anæmia) it often results fatally. The one successful method of treating this disease is to build up the blood. The best blood builder in the world is

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People

This remedy has cured more cases of anæmia than all others combined.

Miss Cordelia Moore, of Malone, N. Y., until recently, has been a lifelong invalid from palpitation of the heart and weakness of the blood. In speaking of this experience she said:

"I was in a terrible condition. I could not eat. My face was ghastly white, and my hands were almost transparent. I was so weak it was utterly impossible for me to go up stairs.

"I met a friend who spoke of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, and advised me to try them. Before the first box was used I began to regain my appetite and felt better generally. I bought six more boxes and took them. I grew strong rapidly and gained in flesh. I became better in every way. I never felt better in my life than now, and consider myself cured. I cannot say too much regarding Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People."—From the Gazette, Malone, N. Y.

No discovery of modern times has proved such a blessing to mankind as Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. Acting directly on the blood and nerves, invigorating the body, regulating the functions, they restore the strength and health in the exhausted patient when every effort of the physician proves unavailing.

These pills are sold in boxes at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50, and may be had of all druggists, or direct by mail from Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y.
