THE IVORY QUEEN.
The tap, tap at midnight when the house is otherwise wrapped in silence rivets the attention of the startled hearers. It is mysterious, therefore interesting. That is why detective stories are so fascinating. There is always an element of mystery and to clear it up is the object of the story. We have purchased the serial rights and the story will be published in installments in this paper beginning soon.

All gilt-edged butter put on the market by creameries is wrapped in paper. The product of the private dairy would reach its market in much better condition if wrapped in Butter Parchment than it does when wrapped in cloth. Parchment is not only better than cloth but cheaper. Cloth sells at 6 cents per yard from which 27 sheets can be cut - 27 Parchment wrappers cost 2 1/2 cents.
