

STARTS EAST TO-NIGHT

Born, April 10 at Reedville to Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Rasmussen a daughter.

Born, April 9 north of Hillsboro to Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gatos a son weight 12 1/2 pounds.

Coming to changes made in legal notices the Argus will go to subscription day late this week.

Chas. Elwell of Portland is visiting friends and relatives in Astoria for a few weeks.

Mr. L. A. Long of the Argus who has been local correspondent of the Oregonian about two years has resigned his position. The new correspondent not named yet so far as can be learned.

The Arlington Advocate comes this week with the name of Chas. E. Hicks at the head of the editorial column. Mr. Hicks has wedded since going to Arlington and now takes his place among the solid citizens of Gilliam county.

Mr. Frank Stewart and wife of Lone Rock, Morrow county is visiting relatives in this city. Frank has just finished a successful term as principal of the Lone Rock schools. He will return to Eastern Oregon the first of the week.

Mr. James Harwood who owns a part of the Constable 1 c was pain, fully wounded a few days ago by thrusting a barrow tooth through the fleshy part of his arm. Dr. F. J. Daley his physician dressed the wound which required several stitches.

Mr. Benton Bowman last week received a letter from his brother-in-law who is a soldier in the Philippines, in which he says they there hear of any more fighting. Occasionally it is reported that a small detachment had had a skirmish with a band of marauders, but that is all. What the soldiers now do is garrison duty.

Mr. Phelps Whitmarsh, the Philippine correspondent of the Outlook will send probably a dozen or more letters from that country. In the issue of the Outlook for April 7, he has something out of the ordinary run of correspondence letters in the form of a description of a typical morning. It is a typical morning. The Outlook Company, New York.

Tuesday evening E. B. Sappington collected quite a sum of money after the bank had closed. Evidently some one knew this for in the middle of the night Mrs. Sappington heard some one trying the windows, and in arousing her husband, who was sound asleep, she gave the intruder warning. When E. B. went to the door he saw the scamp running down the street, but before he could brand him he was out of sight and hearing.

The annual session of the Oregon conference of the United Evangelical church will be held in the Baptist church at Hillsboro on the 10th and 11th inst.

At a meeting of the committee subsequently held, Hon. B. P. Cornelius was chosen chairman and A. T. Knox secretary.

William Walter McKinney, well known to the residents of Washington county, died Wednesday afternoon at his home on second street. During his sickness Mr. McKinney assisted by devoted wife, made a heroic struggle for life. All efforts were only to put off the inevitable. He was the son of J. N. and Sarah McKinney.

He was born in Hillsboro Sept. 3, 1873 and spent his life, with the exception of one year, in this county.

During the last 5 or 6 years he did not enjoy good health, but it was during the last year that consumption forced him to suspend all work.

A few days before his death, he gave his last testament, thus leaving a christian testimony.

Being a bright, cheerful young man and enjoying the respect and confidence of all who knew him, he will be greatly missed by a large circle of friends.

He leaves a wife, two brothers and two half-sisters. The funeral will take place at the M. E. church today at 1:30 o'clock.

FOUND IN THE RIVER

The Body of Frank Price is Found who has been Missing for over a Month

He went to Drive Some Logs to a Mill Did not Return.—Found by Searching Party

The body of Frank Price who has been missing for four weeks was found last Sunday evening by a party which had gone out to hunt for the missing man. He was found in the Tualatin river with his arm clutched over a limb above Dilley near the Spring Hill farm. Price was in the employ of Mr. Carl, driving logs and when last seen, the morning of his 25th birthday, left his Gaston logging house remarking that that night, he would be back. Inquire was made and Sunday a party went out to look for him and found the logs jammed near where he said they were three days before. His dinner, uneaten, was discovered near the logs. Friends and members of the logging team, in which order he carried a policy of $1000 in favor of his sister in Minnesota, dragged the stream carefully keeping their work up for several days and each Sunday explored the course. It was one of the mornings that had their services recorded last Sunday. Price had lived in this state seven years and had a claim in the Nehalem. He was unmarried. The funeral services occurred at Gaston Tuesday afternoon under the auspices of Woodmen of the World.

For the last week we have had bad weather. The cross range has been covered with snow several mornings. Everything is on the standstill.

The political pot is boiling, and next June will tell the tale.

A few of our citizens went down to Hillsboro on the 4th to hear the great orator W. J. Bryan, but they were not very favorably impressed with his flapping rackets. I suppose a great many went through curly city as they did when Coxey spoke at Cornelius. My opinion is if he keeps on much longer he can't be elected as road supervisor. Wm McKinley will be re-elected for him, the sheep in Oregon will vote for him.

Mrs. Z. B. Haines left last Monday for Baker City, called there by telegram stating that her husband was very sick. He went up there to work some time ago.

The correspondent was surprised at the smiling face of Grandma Hanes and could not account for it until he heard of the birth of a grandson, born to the wife of B. H. Hanes on the 2d.

Also our shoemaker, Iver Jacobson has a broad grin on his face, his is a daughter born Mar. 30.

Sorry to hear that Mr. C. H. Hodes is quite sick and hope for his speedy recovery.

On the 31st of March six timber cruisers passed through Gales City enroute for Wilson river, with surveyor's compass, and apparently well equipped for a long stay. They stopped over night at N. C. Lilly's hotel.

The mail route from Forest Grove to Glenwood has changed hands. Mr. Kink has sold out to Lester. Mr. Kink was a very obliging man and strictly attended to business. We hope the new one will fill the bill as well.

No Night To Ugliness. The woman who is lively in face, form and temper will always have friends, but one who would be attractive must keep her health. If she is weak, sickly and all run down she will be nervous and irritable. If she has constipation or kidney troubles, her impure blood will cause pimples, blotches, skin eruptions, and a wretched complexion. Electric Bitters is the best medicine in the world to regulate stomach, liver and kidneys and to purify the blood. It gives strong nerves, bright eyes, smooth, velvety skin, rich complexion. It will make a good-looking, charming woman of a run-down invalid. Only 50cts at Delta Drug Store.
