What do you republicans think of W. J. Brown. No one can get democrats or populists to speak of him.

Wm. Schulmerich of this county was nominated for State Food and Dairy Commissioner by the democrats.

C. H. Allen assistant secretary of the navy, has been appointed governor of Porto Rico. He will enter upon the discharge of his duties May 1. That is also the date when the new tax law becomes operative.

If the news paragraph from Luzon published this week is true to the effect that a rich vein of gold bearing quartz has been found, the Philippine question is solved. That is the touched button. The argonants will do the rest.

Dr. Dayly of Lake county was nominated by the democrats for congressman from the 1st district. Dayly is understood to be a gold democrat though it is said he voted for Bryan in '96. He is president of the Lakeview bank and as such will handicay many of his political associates in their rantings against the gold standard.

How silly it seems that there can be any considerable number of men who are striving for the same political ends, the officers, and yet persist in maintaining two seperate party organizations. Now here are the democrats and the populists formally meeting in separate conventions, but finally adopting the same platform of principles and importuning electors of the respective parties to give sufferage to the same candidates. Such a farce is not maintaining principle but is a fostering of selfish place-hunting.

The Oregonian wants the door to Portland harbor opened, and says, "The only thing that stands in the way of our trans Pacific trade is repressive legislation. Tariffs on imports hither prevents profitable charters for ships." That sounds wonderfully like free trade literature of which we heard in 1892. We had a taste then. A treat of free trade dis organized the tin bucket brigade. Would not the same cause produce a like effect to day? Again if the tariff is written on free trade lines tea, the great export of the Orient would be on the dutiable list and there would be a heavy oaken door, across the Willamett just below Portland. There must be money for governmental expenses and it is to Portlands interest that it be not collected from one of the chief articles that is received at our port. We do not want free trade at Manila either. We want the coasting laws of the United States extended to the Philippines, so that the English, Germans and Japanese shall not be permitted to trade on equal terms with us who establish a stable government there.

STATE REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.

The republican platform of the June election in Oregon is as follows:

"The republicans of Oregon, in convention assembled, reaffirm their belief in and loyalty to the gold standard. We commend the republican congress for its recent legislation making the gold standard a part of the statutory law of the land. So long as either of our great political parties advocates the free coinage of silver, the maintenance of the gold standard is the most important political issue, affecting as it does the value of the farmer's crop and the laborer's wages. We call upon all who believe in sound money to unite with the republicans of Oregon in the important elections of this year in order that a victory may be won for the gold standard so decisive as forever to preclude the debasement of our currency by the free coinage of silver.

"We heartily indorse the policy of the administration particularly in securing the Philippine islands, and demand that they shall be retained as American territory. We have confidence that the American people without departing from their traditions, will give security to personal and property rights, justice, liberty and equality before the law to all who live beneath its flag.

"We indorse the policy of the administration in suppressing the insurrection in the Philippines, headed by Aguinaldo, We point with pride to the honorable part played by the Second Oregon regiment in this war. They met with victory in ever combat and covered their state and country with glory on every field. We condole with the families of those members of the regiment who lost their lives in the conflict and extend our congratulations to the survivors of the regiment on the brilliant and honorable record they have made.

"We regard trade with the Orient as one of the great sources of our national wealth in the future, and an open door in China as an important aid to the growth of our trade in the Orient. We commend the successful efforts of the present administration, and especially of its secretary of state to secure by treaty with the several European powers the right to the free introduction of American goods into this great empire.

"The republican party in Oregon recognizes the vital necessity of control of the organization and curtailment of the powers of trusts and combinations of capital by the state within its borders, and pledges its support in the approaching legislature to laws defining and carrying out those objects.

"We are in favor of retrenchment and reform in the expenditure of public money; we pledge the republican party to favor the enactment of all legislation looking to an economical administration of public affairs.

"We favor the pending Constitutional amendment for an increase in the number of Supreme Court Judges from three to five.

"We point with pride to the legislation adopted by the last legislature. It abolished the railroad commission. It reduced the legal rate of interest to 6 per cent. It passed an act for the submission to the people of a Constitutional amendment providing for the initiative and referendum. It enacted a registration law for the protection of the purity of the ballot. As experience demonstrates this last act to be cumbersome in some particulars, we pledge the republican legislature to make effort for its amendment, to the end that the registration of qualified voters may be facilitated.

"We are unalterably opposed to any measure looking to the leasing of the public domain, believing that such a system would have an undoubted tendency to hasten the concentration of land ownership in the hands of a few individuals and against the long-established American policy of encouraging home building.

"We favor an amendment of the Constitution of the United States so as to provide for the election of United States senators by direct vote of the people, and we instruct our senators and representatives in congress to use every effort to secure such an amendment to the Constitution.

"We are in favor of the immediate construction of a canal between the Atlantic and the Pacific at the Isthmus of Panama, and we instruct the Oregon delegation in congress to labor earnestly and continually for the enactment of such legislation as will lead to the construction and operation of the canal under governmental control.

"We urge the immediate passage of the bill now pending in congress to pension Indian War Veterans, and we pledge the support of the Oregon delegation in congress to the same.

"We heartily indorse the administration of Governor Geer and the state officials of Oregon, as economical, wise and creditable to the state."

"Resolved, That we affirm our unswerving fealty to the gold standard as the only unit of value, and instruct our delegates to the National Republican Convention to support an unequivocal statement on this line as a part of the National platform; that we heartily indorse the wise and patriotic administration of our National affairs, and we declare the policy of expansion as essential to our National growth and greatness, and we believe that the blessings which accrue to those where our flag is once established should forever remain.

"We believe that the best interests of our country will be subserved by the re-election of William McKinley as president, and the delegates to the next National Convention elected by this convention are hereby instructed to vote for his renomination."

VOICE OF THE PRESS.

The First District declared Tuesday for the best interests of the state, by the re-nomination of Congressman Thos. H. Tongue. He was "remembered by what he has done," and it is refreshing to know that this is still considered a valid recommendation, even in Oregon politics.—Newburg Graphic.

The renomination of Hon. Thos. H. Tongue for congress, from the first district, at McMinnville Tuesday, was a just and timely recognition of mint, ability and energy that official has shown himself capable of in behalf of his state—Oregon. Nothing can be said against Mr. Tongue politically or personally. He is capable and in every respect worthy and well qualified.—Gervais Star.

Representative Tongue was nominated for his third term on the first ballot at Tuesday's convention of First district republicans at McMinnville, having received 92 votes, 10 more than necessary. Resolutions were adopted declaring for the gold standard and expansion. The Journal hopes and believes that Mr. Tongue will again be elected to represent this district in congress.—Dayton Journal.

Congressman Tongue's important position on the river and harbor committee will enable him to accomplish much for Oregon in the way of appropriations for the improvement of our rivers and harbors. It has been demonstrated that he is wide awake to the interests of the entire state, and he is now in a position to do the state more good than ever.—Albany Herald.

The re-nomination of Thos. H. Tongue for congress in this district was a wise and judical step: While there were other aspirants for honor there was no contention and the stalwart men who yielded to the demands for Mr. Tongue's continuance as representative are in the harness to make his re-election a surety. Verily these are splendid days for Oregon republicanism when the party leaders are willing to hold in check their own political aspirations, and rolling up their sleeves go into the campaign to do battle for success of the grand old republican party.—Eugene Register.

At the republican congressional convention for the first district, held last Tuesday, Congressman Thos. H. Tongue was nominated for his third term by a vote of 93 to 70 on the first ballot. Claude Gatch, his strongest competitor, moved Mr. Tongue's nomination by acclamation, and George C. Brownell, also an active aspirant for congressional honors, seconded Mr. Gatch's motion in an eloquent speech. No representative from Oregon has made more of the qualities of a statesman than Thomas Tongue, and no representative from any state has received greater recognition by the administration and press of the country in so short a time.—Sheridan Sun.

In all China, the United States has but one representative from Oregon, Hon. H. B. Miller, and he is stationed 1500 miles from the coast. It is an important post but our state that is just opposite to that old oriental country and so vitally interested in fostering our trade relations should have a dozen Oregonians stationed on the coast to exercise the office of door keepers. Judge Caples is in Peru, and Gov Lord is in Argentine but of what service are they to Oregon commerce. A ship from the mouth of the Columbia goes not to either port. The state needs those men in Asiatic ports. California is no better off, nor is Washington. Each has a lone consul in China—three for the coast. This is a matter for our delegation in congress to study.

Not by a long shot does the INDEPENDENT want Porto Rico or the Philippines dealt with as has been Hawaii. The tariff between Hawaii and the continental ports of the United States has been 100 per cent of the Dingley law. Let there be a custom house established at Honolula where the duties on foreign imports shall be collected and turned into the general fund of the U. S. but admit imports from Portland and San Francisco free. The same with Philippines and with Porto Rico. But Porto Rico and the Philippines must raise their own revenue for local government. Porto Rico now has authority to do that, or will have after May 1st, 1900, and the Philippines soon will have.

The North Yamhill Record while not real good authority, thinks it very probable that Bryan or the candidate of the anti-administration party will be defeated this fall. Of course we republicans think the Record prophesies truly this time, and rather enjoy this indication of despondency.

Wheat from California and Oregon is likely this year to find an unusual market. Because of poor crops, Chila in South America is an importer. Conditions are changed. In 1852 and 1853, Chila flour was a common comodity in Portland at a price that would paralyze consumers today.

PORTO RICO.

The obstructionists in congress who tried to defeat the Porto Rican bill had no counter measure to offer. If they wanted to go on record in favor of absolute free trade with the island at this time it is generally supposed they had men in their ranks wise enough to draft such a measure and on which they certainly could have secured a respectable hearing.

But the fact is, that with the condition now confronting the Porto Ricans they could not have framed a bill that would have relieved the situation unless they made it a direct appropriation of funds out of the public treasury. Immediate relief was what Porto Rico had to have and it got it through the republicans by a return of $2,000,000 of the amount raised by duties on imports from the island. No other legislation could have relieved the situation.

Porto Rico is a disorganized government, made so as a result of the war and transfer of kinship from Spain to the United States.

The chief products of the island—sugar and tobacco—are controlled by planters who have large holdings and who fix the price of these products. Until Porto Rico formulates a government of its own by which internal revenue can be raised no free trade measure could possibly relieve their condition. With no source of revenue the only remedy seemed to be imposing a light tariff on the products of the island the revenue from which is to be reverted to the island in support of its present chaotic government and as help to its poor until a stable government is formed.

If Porto Rico had come to us with a revenue system in force that would have met all requirements of self government there would have been no hesitancy in at once giving the island absolute free trade. The bill as it now stands becomes inoperative two years hence; in fact its provisions will become null and void whenever Porto Rico gets its government properly organized and provides for sufficient revenue to conduct its own affairs.

The new law expressly provides that Porto Rico has only to provide a revenue system of her own when the new law will then be annulled. If Porto Rico does this within the next six months the tariff measure will go out of existence and the island will have free trade. The bill has had two classes of critics—those who did not understand its provisions nor the prevailing conditions in Porto Rico and the politicians who had no remedy at all but turned critic for political purposes.—Eugene Register.

The U. S. double turreted battleship Kearsarge has just been put through an experimental gun practice, and has come out as the one great battleship of the world. In the new ship the old war vessel idea of a double gun deck has been adopted only instead of the long deck with guns looking through port holes at regular intervals, there are two turrets two stories high each. In the lower compartment two 13-inch guns are mounted, and just above in the second story are two 8-inch guns. Combining the two turrets with their guns a broad side of eight peices may be delivered at the enemy which is a mass of metal never before possible. Kentucky is a ship of the same class. Lt. Strauss suggested the idea to to Admiral Sampson when he was at the head of the ordinance department before the Spanish war, and this successful trial is a triumph for these two men who were freely criticised not only by many officers in our own navy but by foreigners.

We have heard about taxation without representation, but it does not apply to Porto Rico. Indeed that little island so far has paid no taxes into the general fund. All the money collected has been spent in the island. And the law that lays a local tax also provides representation same as Oregon had prior to 1859. Indeed Porto Rico has representation without taxation.

Farmers, take your own census before the census taker comes around. Set down the number of acres in each crop, quantity grown, and its value. Put down also, number of livestock, value, and value from product from dairy, cows, poultry, etc. Let it all be in black and white when the census enumerator appears, and then you'll not have to guess, and the 1900 census will not be all guess work.

Mr. Bryan has much to say about the republicans "flopping" but he is "measuring our corn in his half-bushel," to use a provincialism. His party, or the one to which he claims allegiance, is and has been the worst boss ridden organization in the history of the country. Of course the Col. is pardonable. He was brought up under that kind of schooling.

Imperialism is costing those who pay the taxes something like $500,000,000 a year. It comes high but we haven't got to have it. Imperialism is the child of the trusts and the money devil which have secured control of the republican party.—East Oregonian. Will the E. O. kindly render an itemized bill of that account.

Senator Morgan, of Alabama, has been re-elected U. S. Senator after an active campaign waged by his anti-expansionist opponents. Does this indicate that Bryan is going to loose a Southern state or two?

Remarkable Cure of Rheumatism.

About three years ago my wife had an attack of rheumatism which confined her to her bed for over a month and rendered her unable to walk a step without assistance, her limbs being swollen to double their normal size. Mr. S. Maddox insisted on my using Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I purchased a fifty-cent bottle and used it according to the directions and the next morning she walked to breakfast without assistance in any manner, and she has not had a similar attack since.—A. The Best in the World.

We believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best in the world. A few weeks ago we suffered with a severe cold and a troublesome cough, and having read their advertisements in our own and other papers we purchased a bottle to see if it would effect us. It cured us before the bottle was more than half used. It is the best medicine out for colds and coughs.—The Herald, Andersonville, Ind. For sale by Delta Drug Store.
