COMING EVENTS.

May 27, Conductor's excursion to The Dalles.
May 28, Eclipse of the sun.
May 30, Memorial day.
June 3, Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen's excursion to Salem.
June 4, State and county elections.
June 7, Eleventh annual convention of Washington County Sunday schools at Hillsboro.

Political honor lies lightly on some shoulders, but it is a pleasure to record the fact that such people are few in the republican party. One now in mind is he who received a large vote in the late republican nominating convention for and important place who now is working with might and main for the ticket that opposes the party which has helped him to thousands of dollars.

Without the aid of republican votes the snipes cannot elect a single men on their ticket. If there are men in the county who heretofore have voted with the republican party but now believe in anti-expansion, free silver, free trade, etc, they can afford to vote the snipe ticket, but if they still believe in protection, the gold standard, expansion keeping the flag where our soldiers with the old Springfields put it, they will vote the republican ticket straight.

The snipes have been boisterous, but the candidates had a well attended meeting in Grange hall on Wednesday behind locked and bolted doors, and now they are as silent as oysters. Not a word has leaked of what they did and whereas before the meeting, one snipe partizan wanted to bet $50 that one-half of the snipe ticket, would be elected, since then, while he may yet be willing to risk his coin, he does not talk so loud. The seven men that they are to beat are five on the legislative ticket, the sheriff and clerk. Now those seven snipes may be elected but if they are a demo-pop-free silver-flag-furler will be elected U. S. senator, next winter. That is all.

PRO-BOER DEMAGOGY.

Fusionists are attempting to make headway against the administration and the republican party by working up a pro-Boer sentiment. The INDEPENDENT has already shown how unjust such action is, that this is the only government that has taken any steps showing friendship to the Boers. Germany has not done so, nor France, nor Italy nor Russia, not even Holland the original home of the Boers. The demagogy of the snipes is eloquently shown in the article from the Woodburn Independent printed on the first page of this issue.

Not content with this general work the further attempt is making to influence the German vote of this county against Mr. Tongue. Now there is no reason in the attempt. Congressman Tongue is on record as a friend of the Boers, as much of a friend as an American citizen ought to be. In October last, possibly earlier he with a large number of senators, representatives, judges of the U. S. court etc., signed a petition which was presented to the president thru the New York World. In response and at the most opportune time the president signified to the British Government his willingness to exercise his good offices in behalf of peace. This is all Mr. Tongue could do, at least all that he ought to do, and it is all an American citizen, having in view the interests of this country and its people ought to ask him to do. The petition to the president signed by Mr. Tongue is in these words:

The undersigned representatives of American public and private life most respectfully petition you to offer the friendly service of the United States in mediation between Great Britian and the Republics of the Transvaal and the Orange Free State.

Articles 1, 2 and 3 of the plan adopted by the Peace Congress make such offers the right of any friendly power, even during the course of hostilities.

We respectfully submit that it is not only the right and duty of this nation, but also its high privilege, to strive to prevent the wiping out of two of our sister republics, the desolation of thousands of English and South African homes, the slaughter of thousands of civilized men, and the drenching of South Africa with blood and tears.

Signed &c.

DALY'S FINANCIAL PLATFORM.

Dr. Daly said to C. H. Newell of Lake county:

"Free silver is a folly and would precipitate the country into a panic."

To the Oregonian reporter, who asked his views on the money question he replied, "that the financial declaration of the democratic, populist and silver republican platform of 1898, as confirmed by the democratic platform of 1900, fully represented his views on the money question."

Again to an Oregonian reporter, "Pressed for a further discussion of the money question, Dr. Daly "smiling" a "sweet smile," patted the reporter on the shoulder and said: "a candidate for office must be careful about what he says."

"A candidate for office must be careful about what he says."

STATE PRESS.

Uncle Sam has "seen" the powers of Europe, and "gone them an armor plant better" on the naval construction game. He rather likes the play in which he was initiated by the war with Spain.—Eugene Register.

If the democrats try to make a Boer issue in Oregon they will have intelligent Germans asking why democrats seek to meddle in a war between two other nations, and refuse to back up such sentiments by their opposition to strengthening our army and navy. The democrats' ideas and actions don't hitch. The German-Americans are not fools, nor are they, as the democrats imply, Boers.—Woodburn Independent.

The assessment of Multnomah county for 1899, shows a reduction of $11,210,693 in values over 1896. Money on hand and assessed in 1893 amounted to $1,063,175 while in 1899 it decreased to $527,225. Town lots fell from $20,261,534 to $14,122,008. Improvements from $9,771,497 to $6,557,192. On April 5, 1899 a little more than one month later than this assessment, the statements of the four national banks of Portland showed deposits amounting to over five millions, and it is safe to say that the seven private banks of that city had as much more, or a total of ten millions and yet only one-half million was assessed. In other words, under our present taxation system, taxation is unequal, and almost everybody looks upon it as robbery, and all of those that do, attempt to escape it. In short, the present system of raising revenues for government offers opportunity to the rascal and tempts the honest taxpayer to become one. In fact it affords a school for scoundrels.—East Oregonian.

The republican key notes from the different states all have the same sweet sound swelling into an anthem of peace, content and happiness in the homes of the people.—Eugene Register.

Dr. B. Daly, of Lakeview, who is running against Tongue in the First district is the oily tongued individual who deluded many republicans in this county into a belief that he was opposed to free silver and thus secured his election to the state senate. He now announces himself a bimetallist, in othea words, a populist. His perfidy of four years ago will prove a boomerang. He has forfeited the respect of many personal friends and will meet certin and lasting defeat in June.—Crook County Journal.

The Argus has a lot to say about the corrupt Simon ring which for shame's sake a snipe organ ought not to mention. The democrats are directly responsible for the selection of Mr. Simon and if he is objectionable they have themselves to blame. In 1897 the INDEPENDENT pointed to the fact that democrats wickedly and corruptly refused to perform their plain duty and that if evil came of it that party would be responsible. The Argus endorsed the action of the democrats then and it probably does so now. Hence if evil has resulted that organ should now remain silent.

The East Oregonian holds that drunkards should be disfranchised believing that such a regulation would be of greater benefit to the temperance cause than all prohibition tickets that has been or will be nominated. That paper reaches its conclusion by this course of reasoning. "To attempt to control men's appetites by enacting and enforcing a man-made-law is almost a waste of effort. Men who cannot govern their appetites should probably not be allowed to participate in the government of others. If the man who abuses the use of alcoholic beverages was disfranchised, on the ground that since he cannot control himself he should not expect to participate in governing others by his right of suffrage, it would likely do more for temperance than even the adoption of prohibition, and at the same time it would leave to men who could control themselves all the rights guaranteed to them under free institutions and self-government."

WAIER.—"Sorry sir, but its all we have today, sir.

Congressman Tongue is to be one of the orators on Decoration day at Washingto D. C. There are four celebrations in the Capital city this year, Arlington, Soldiers Home, Glenwood and Congressional. Mr. Tongue will be at Glenwood cemetery. He was wanted at the Soldier's Home, but the Glenwood committee tendered the first invitation which was accepted. Two years ago he delivered the oration at the 4th of July celebration held at the foot of Washington monument. Oregon is getting her share of recognition in the oratory line, but we cannot object since it gives as favorable advertising.

The bubonic plague has obtained a place in San Francisco, and this fact justly alarms all coast towns. The plague is an oriental filth disease and contagious. The health officers of Oregon will not allow ships from San Francisco to pass Astoria without rigid inspection, and all cars from the infected city are halted at Ashland for inspection. Thus it is proposed to protect Oregon.

The North Pacific railroad company has voluntarily reduced its railroad fares to 3 cents per mile in Oregon and Washington. The cut takes effect July 1st. The old rate was 4 cents.

Howard of Alabama is a populist. He is campaigning in Oregon and is said to be a more effective speaker than W. J. Bryan.

Senator Hoar notwithstanding his anti-expansion views, has a correct conception of the strength of the United States. In a recent speech speaking of the position we occupy in the estimation of the nations he said: "The United States came out of the war of 1812 a first class power, and she has been a first class power ever since—a power that has kept off the whole of Europe from North America and the West Indian islands, except as it was there before. . . . There has not been a country since that time, great or small, that has ventured to tackle us, and there is not a country on earth, great or small, that would not have got out of any trouble with us by diplomacy rather than by war."

Consul Mason of Berlin, reports to his home government that Germany has been paralyzed at the enormous upward bound of the foreign trade of the United States. German merchants conclude that this foreign trade is due to our tariff laws wherefore they propose to remodel their tariff so as to be a copy of ours, only they propose to discriminate against us. If our Tutonic friends adopt that policy they will make a mess of it. In America we shun discriminating laws. What we seek are regulations that shall be just to our own people, and bear alike on our neighbors.

Mr. Long denies that he offered a dollar for a proof of the INDEPENDENT'S cartoon, that is, by implication he denies. He asks to be led up against the person who says he offered him the dollar. A re-investigation shows that Mr. Long asked a young man if he could get a proof. An evasive reply was his answer. "I would give a big dollar to get one." It is admitted that the offer is not a legal tender, but Mr. Long there is your man. Do unto him. Next time don't talk loosly.

Do democrats of the coast counties, whom Dr. Daly says need river and harbor improvments, think the doctor who if elected would not be on the river and harbor committee do more than Mr. Tongue who is on that committee. New members do not get on those important committees, and while Oregon has a man there good policy demands that he be kept there.

When republicans vote to fill a county office with a democrat or a populist they assist to put an opponent in the very best place he can occupy to organize to defeat republican work when you are endeavoring to elect a republican president, governor or other state officer. Be careful and think of these things when you vote.—Corvallis Gazette.

Pressed for a further discussion of the money question, Dr. Daly smiled one of his sweet smiles patted the reporter on the shoulder, and said: "A candidate for office must be careful about what he says."

Montana has as many senators as Kentucky has governors and about as friendly.

Dr. Daly, the fusion candidate for Congress was in Washington county last weed putting up his political fences and was introduced to E. B. Tongue, the son of our Congressman, who asked Daly if he was going to stump Washington county. The Senator replied "no I will not do so on account of Mr. Tongue's absence from the state" whereupon Tongue Jr. replied that he would be glad to have Mr. Daly make a few speeches in the county and that if he did not want to do so because of Mr. Tongue's absence in Washington that he would canvass the county with him jointly and that he would take Daly around in his own buggy. Mr. Daly is no speaker and he is afraid that should he attempt to make speeches that the effort would kill him, and he has made use of Tongue's absence as an excuse for his not going into the canvass and proclaiming himself from the platform so that the people of the first district might not know what kind of material the snipes are running in this district. But the bluff would not work in Washington county. It was called.
