

ASSOCIATION CLOSED

The Hospitality of Hillsboro Church is Appreciated

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED

Endorses Action of Administration in Chinese Trouble

The Annual Association of Congregational Churches closed at a late hour on Thursday evening of last week.

The speaker regretted the loss of life and the destruction of property, but aside from that he saw no reason for being cast down.

The annual meeting of the Women's Home Mission Union for Oregon was held Thursday afternoon.

The officers elected for the ensuing year are: Hon. Pres., Mrs. Frank M. Warren; Pres., Mrs. F. Egger;

Whereas, the hearts of all men, and especially of our own people, have been deeply stirred and saddened by the recent persecutions, sufferings and martyrdom of native Christian and Christian missionaries in China,

Resolved, that we as Christians and as Congregationalists assembled in association in Hillsboro, Oregon, give expression to our deep feelings of sorrow and of our warm sympathy for the thousands who have suffered, and for their relatives and friends, and for their fellow Christians.

Resolved, that we commend the activity of the administration in pressing for an settlement of the claims against Turkey for the destruction of missionary property in that country and that we hope and expect that they will press those claims to a speedy and final settlement.

Resolved, that the scribe of this association be instructed and is instructed to send a copy of the above resolutions to the Secretary of State in Washington, D. C., and to the secretaries of the American Board in Boston.

Resolved, that we commend the activity of the administration in pressing for an settlement of the claims against Turkey for the destruction of missionary property in that country and that we hope and expect that they will press those claims to a speedy and final settlement.

DAIRYING FOR PROFIT

Latest Ideas Exhibited at State Fair

SWEET MILK FOR CALVES

The Creamery Man Gathers the Cream from Farmers Doors

Some of the latest ideas in dairying were illustrated at the state fair held in September at Salem.

Do not forget Mrs. Hitchcock's lectures at the Christian church, on October 9th and 10th.

There have been several changes of principals in the graded schools of the county.

Mr. W. H. Cornell is sending his daughters to Forest Grove to the college.

Mr. C. M. Elspass of Portland, a practical creamery man, was in Hillsboro and adjoining country this week looking at the situation with reference to engaging in business.

The state fair at Salem was not only a success as an exhibition, but there were receipts enough to pay out and leave some for next year.

We are in receipt of a copy of E. T. Paull's latest and greatest march just from the press, entitled "Dawn of the Century March."

On Sunday, Rev. H. Oberg will preach in the Methodist church both morning and evening.

PIONEER PASSES AWAY

Mrs. Mary Hingley of Progress Died Sept. 17

LIVED IN COUNTY 25 YEARS

She has been Sick for the Past Eight Years

Mary Hingley, wife of Joseph Hingley, died at her residence in Progress, September 17, aged 54 years.

Deceased was born in Warwickshire, England, in 1846, and married Joseph Hingley in 1871, coming to the United States in 1873, living in Sacramento, Cal., Portland and then Progress, where she has resided for the past twenty-five years.

She had been a patient sufferer for the past eight years, and leaves a husband and six children to mourn their loss.

Victims to stomach, liver and kidney troubles as well as women, and all feel the results in loss of appetite, poisons in the blood, backache, nervousness, headache and tired, listless, run-down feeling.

It is certainly gratifying to the public to know of one concern in the land who are not afraid to be generous to the needy and suffering.

Business is much unsettled by the possible result of the presidential election. A gentleman was met this week and said, "I am somewhat perplexed to know what to do."

The Hillsboro Republican Club held a meeting in the Court House last Tuesday evening which was fairly well attended.

Mr. Ed. Woods, of Tigardville, was in town yesterday. It will be remembered that several months ago Mr. Woods team stampeded at Tigardville and threw him out, but before he got free from the tangle his left leg was badly mangled.

MISS GERTUDE MULKEY, OF MORMONT, IS VISITING HER SISTER, MRS. H. A. BAIL.

Max Crandall has a flock of black Langshang chickens of which he is justly vain.

THE LADIES OF THE CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH OF HILLSBORO WISH TO EXPRESS THEIR THANKS TO THOSE FRIENDS WHO SO KINDLY ASSISTED THEM DURING THE STATE ASSOCIATION.

COMMITTEE.

Scarlet fever is prevalent at Greenville and Verboort, indeed it is present in the majority of the families. No deaths have yet occurred, though some of the patients have been very sick.

Alonso Sigler has been confined to his room this week, being in the grip of a bad cold. However, his friends report that he is much improved and will be able to be out in a few days.

Butte Grange, Tigardville, held its annual fair last Wednesday. The attendance was very large and the display of the products of farm, garden and orchard were of superior quality.

Mr. Jacob Ris, who has for years been one of Governor Ross's closest personal friends, and one of his staunchest assistants in reforms of all kinds, has written an unusual and peculiarly interesting article for The Outlook upon Theodore Roosevelt.

Last Monday morning a number of young men from this county entered Portland Business College, A. P. Armstrong, Pres., for a course of training. Those from Hillsboro are: Lorne Palmester, Fred Sewell and George Moreland. Arthur Rasmussen goes from Beaverville. The young men from Hillsboro go to and fro on the cars. This is economical as railroad fare costs them no more than $5.00 per month.

Mr. W. W. Williams, who stored his corns in his war-house at the station, had a little accident last Saturday morning. He had built him for his onions the posts of which were two by four inch scantlings set on the two inch floor. The support was not sufficient for the scantling cut through and let the whole load of about 1,000 bushels drop down in a heap. The other side was fast going the same way but finely supports were used so that the contents that side did not have to be rescued.

Alum baking powders are low priced, as alum costs but two cents a pound, but alum is a corrosive poison and renders the baking powder dangerous to use in food.

The new way of managing a creamery is far in advance of the old way and it is hoped that the companies already operating plants in the county will change.

Fisher-Hamel. At 1 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, in the presence of about fifty invited guests, Rev. John J. Fisher and Miss Bertha Hamel were united in the holy bonds of matrimony, Rev. Wuttun, pastor of the Baptist church of this place, officiating. The wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents at Bethany, and was an occasion long to be remembered by those who were present.

After the beautiful and impressive ceremony had been pronounced and congratulations had been offered, dinner was served. And such a dinner, and such like our mothers used to make.

The bride and groom received valuable and useful presents among which were a silver tea set by Mr. and Mrs. Wisner, set of silver forks, knives and spoons by Mr. and Mrs. Diesley, and parlor lamp by Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Wisner.

Mr. and Mrs. Fisher will soon depart for Springfield, Ore., where Mr. Fisher will assume the duties assigned him by conference, as pastor of the M. E. church of that place.
