ANNUAL SCHOOL MEETING.

The annual meeting for School District No. 7 was held last Monday commencing at 1:30 o'clock p. m. The attendance was larger than for several years. Hon. S. B. Huston was elected director for a term of three years to succeed himself. The candidates for clerk were Peter Boscow and S. T. Weathered. Boscow was elected receiving 29 votes to 25 cast for his opponent. The Board of directors asked the sense of the meeting relative to better fire protection for the building. On motion the matter was left to the discretion of the Board.

An auditing Committee composed of W. N. Barrett, R. Crandall and John M. Wall was appointed to examine the clerk's report and file findings with Board of Directors.

A resolution was passed instructing the Board of Directors to refuse to admit any outside pupils to the school unless they had the clerk's receipt for the amount of their tuition.

The Clerk's report shows number persons of school age in Dist. 457.

BLOOMING ITEMS.

Adam Herget Jr. and his brothers, Phillip, Jacob and John leave for Cathlamet, Wash., about the 15th inst. The boys are rustlers and are doing well. They will probably not return until in December.

Herman Reece is working for Fred Schoon this year. Herman is a general young man and will do well wherever he goes.

The result of the annual school meeting held in school district No. 77 is as follows: For director, for three years Charles Rockstroff. For district school clerk, D. H. Bailey.

Adolph Neukirch is at work on the machinery of the new creamery at Gaston. He expects to get things "ship shape" soon and will remove his family to his new home within ten days. He will no doubt make the creamery a great success.

The weather for the past few days will surely result in many unsatisfactory cases of that peculiarly American type of illness known as "spring fever." Have you felt any symptoms thereof?

Herman Krahrmer will soon leave Blooming for Portland and possibly elsewhere. We hope that he may strike a good lead and get pay dirt that will pay well. It is a good sign to see young men try to make something of themselves.

MISBEHAVIOR AT CHURCH.

At the teachers' local institute held at Corvallis on the 23rd of Feb., the subject of misbehavior at church incidentally and properly "boiled up" during a discussion on the subject of "disorder in school. This it seems to me is a "growing evil" and is doing much to bring churches into disrepute and at the same time to drive good people away from them altogether.

Let me relate a case in point that I am personally known to and can vouch for. In the very early 80's I lived in a town in eastern central Illinois in which there were three churches, viz., an M. E. church, a Baptist church and a German Lutheran church.

This place which I shall call Salem for the very reason that this name is the opposite in meaning from the real one, had a gang of toughs—"hoodlums" if you please—and what a town of late years has not an affliction of this sort? How tough they were may be easily inferred when I state that some of them went to the penitentiary for malicious mischief before I left the place; but to my sorrow.

This gang of young men had practically broken up the M. E. and the Baptist churches, both of which had good pastors and both of which I attended for a time. Said young men would actually play cards and otherwise shamelessly comport themselves in the aforesaid congregations until it made the lives of the preachers and the parishioners a burden.

The German preacher whom I shall call for convenience Gutmann boarded with the mother—a widow—of one of the leading spirits of the gang alluded to, and at the supper table said spirit told his mother of some of the devilment they were guilty of at one of the other churches. Mr. G. listened to what was said by the young man and then he quietly remarked: "You would better not try such a course at my church." John, as I shall dub the young man, considered this a sort of dare and so he thought he would make an experiment at Mr. G.'s church. He and his mates went over one Sunday evening and seated themselves in the back pews of the house, and for a time kept pretty quiet. Ere long they began some "shine" and Mr. G. paused and in an undertone said something to his parishioners, several of whom looked back to where the outfit was seated. This had a quieting effect upon the boys for a time.

It was not long before they began their disturbance again and this time Mr. G. said something in a decisive way that caused several old Germans to rise up and walk back toward the boys who "steal not upon the order of their going" but went and that for good. They unanimously voted it would not go in that church.

Now the point I wish to make in the foregoing is this: Why could the Lutheran minister and his people so effectually sit down on unseemly behavior at that church while the other two, one of which I was temporarily connected with did not do so too? Will some one rise and explain?

Since I came to this state I am personally known to the fact that at least three cases of this kind have gone before the local magistrates and in two cases it cost each one $35 and in the other about $50.

Young men! Young ladies! What a travesty on the word, are you aware that you are treading on very dangerous ground when you go to church and misconduct yourselves?

Messrs. Schulerich Bros. have bought the Bailey brick now occupied by the Pharmacy. The Pharmacy is to be moved to the store room in the Bailey brick next to John Dennis on the corner of Main and So. 2nd Sts. Messrs. Schulerich will occupy their new purchase with a department of their general merchandise, probably hardware and agricultural implements.

Growers are beginning to plant onions for the crop to be harvested in September. The industry has been profitable for the past two years and especially is this true of the market now. With the addition of the Orient to former markets it is thought that over production will not prove disastrous this year.

MARY H. HUNT, CHAS. E. MILLER, W. W. JAQUITH, Com.

Miss Portia Knight who this week causes the great sensation in England and especially in London society because she has sued the Duke of Manchester for breach of promise to wed, she has a number of acquaintances. She visited here for several weeks four or five years ago. She is a daughter of Col. N. B. Knight, who came to Salem at the close of the great rebellion in 1865 or 6, with his very intimate friend Major Lord, now Gov. Lord. Col. Knight wedded the eldest daughter of Gen. John F. Miller and Portia is their daughter. She is now 24 or 25 years old, handsome and talented. She is a brunette, her hair being as black as the plumes of the raven. The Duke of Manchester is a young man about 24 years of age, but like others of the English nobility, a poor man with expensive habits. On his recent departure from New York he started to take two dogs with him, but it seems that the purchase price had not been paid. The former owner would not let the Duke take them from America till he received his money. The Duke not having the necessary $2000 about his clothes, the pups were returned to their Yankee kennel. It is not clear how Portia will be the winner unless the Duke's blond heiress wife takes of her greenbacks to bind up the lacerations of her country woman's heart.

Died March 5th at the family residence near Greenville, Henrietta wife of D. E. Kuder aged 79 years. The deceased whose maiden name was Henrietta Dawson was born in Indiana in 1822. She moved to Illinois with her parents when a child. Then to Iowa, afterward to Missouri thence in 1847 to Oregon where she has since resided. Her first husband was Wm. Dotson. To them were born two children now dead. In 1859 she married D. E. Kuder, who with their two children survive. Her daughter Mrs. Ellen Kuder Woods was with her mother during her last illness. Her son, Lewis Kuder lives in Southern Oregon and could not get home. Her aged husband is left alone on their donation land claim where they had lived for more than thirty years. She was a faithful wife and mother and the testimony of those who knew her is that she was a good woman and kind neighbor. She was a member of the Baptist church at one time but after coming to the place where she died, finding no society of that faith near she joined no church though held to her hope in Christ until the last.

Died at a family residence near Hillsboro, March 1st, Mrs. Rebecca Schofield Hay aged 52 years. She had been afflicted with asthma for several years, and during the winter of January, an attack of la grippe. She was not able to withstand the complications of both maladies. Mrs. Hay was a sister of Hon. Benjamin Schofield, now of Forest Grove. She came to Washington

Mr. Wm. Telford, of Tacoma, is visiting this week at Col. Bowen's residence.

R. S. Perkins, of Redville, was in Hillsboro on Wednesday. He is not a frequent visitor, though he comes occasionally.

F. J. Barber, Second street barber, has secured the agency for the Electric Laundry Co., of Portland. They put on the best polish of any house on the coast.

Mr. E. L. McCormick has bought the furniture store owned and conducted by E. L. Abbott on Second street. He will move his bicycle and gun store to the Grandall brick thus uniting the two lines.

A. G. Lucas and family started last Saturday for Los Angeles, California. The occasion of his emigration is the hope that the mild climate of that southern coast may bring health to Mrs. Lucas whose lungs are troubling her.

The Redville School District had a stormy meeting last Monday which lasted four hours. James Rasmussen was elected director, but the meeting adjourned without selecting the clerk. A special meeting is to be held for that purpose.

The City Council held the regular monthly meeting last Tuesday evening. The bills of the month were audited and paid. The recorder was instructed to correspond with Supt. H. V. Gates, of the Light & Water Company relative to extending the franchise which is now about to expire.

The fall wheat and the meadows are looking well. The growth is beyond the usual at this date and the color is good. No destructive insects have been reported and the prospect for a good crop has not been more promising for a long time, though of course there is yet opportunity for bad influences to show up.

Prof. S. T. Adams who has been teaching in the Blooming School the past winter, has been re-employed, and the school will resume studies under his efficient conduct, after enjoying a short vacation. Prof. Adams is during vacation, visiting several of the schools in the County. He spent a day in Hillsboro and another in Forest Grove this week.

F. I. Dunbar Sec. of State sends the INDEPENDENT a copy of his report for the year ending with Jan. 1901. The volume is a book of 648 pages bound in paper boards. The report seems to be an exhaustive statement of the financial condition of state and a complete record of the receipts and disbursements of public moneys. It is just what has been wanted and Secretary Dunbar has thanks for this remembrance.

The leading dealers in agricultural implements in Washington county are Schulerich Bros., they are manufacturers' agents for the following lines D. M. Osborne & Co., binders, mowers, rakes, tedders and harrows, Deering Harvester Co., binders, and mowers, Rock Island plows, harrows and cultivators and fish wagons, tiger hoe and shoe drills. Their prices on all these lines are away below all competitors. Come and see their stock before purchasing.

L. W. House is adding to his facilities for doing ship work. The outfit is the arrangement of carriage for his circular saw table. With this he is able to split up timber as large as eight inches in diameter. The toughest timber we get here is second growth oak. It sticks four to six feet in length. This has been difficult to work since it is too small for the saw mills and too large for a hand rip saw, but with this attachment that Mr. House has devised he can supply himself with a class of lumber that before was not to be obtained.

Home-seekers are coming to the Pacific Coast in Car lots and a few find their way to Washington County, but only a few because no systematic effort has been made to inform them that there is such a place as Tualatin Plains. There is no literature descriptive of the County or its resources to give to emigrants. Several of our real estate dealers have property lists which they are using. These are good and as much as an individual ought to be expected to supply. A few dealers are using business cards for advertising purposes. A scheme has been suggested to supply the want. It is to print 20,000 50-page booklets and see that they are put on each home-seeker's train when it leaves Omaha or St. Paul. Thus new settlers will have two or three days to read and become familiar with our names and landscapes as pictured by the camera. This probably would cost $800 or $1000, but it would turn more than 1000 people this way. We can afford more than a dollar each as a bonus for locating new citizens. We need population and we can't grow with substantial thrift till there are more people in the County. Can a movement be started toward an organized effort to advertise Washington County?

Tired and Nervous

It is easy to tell when your nerve-force and vital power are slipping away from you. When your day's work leaves you weary and exhausted; when you are so nervous, irritable and sleepless that your nights are passed in restless tossing; when you get up in the morning with no appetite for breakfast, and go around all day with a headache; you may be sure your nervous strength is being used up faster than it is being renewed.

"I was troubled a great deal with nervousness and headache. The least exertion would cause a dreadful pain in the head and when I became excited I would lose entire control of my nerves. I lived in that misery for ten years, failing to get relief until I began using Dr. Miles' Nervine. Within a week my friends were remarking how much better I looked, and soon after I found my health restored."
