A BELLE BY... OF... OF... OF... CANADA CITY BY... BRET HARTE

Clissey was lying flat under her round chin before a small crowd of people...

She bounded down the stairs and into the front parlor, for their house possessed the unicorn of luxury of a double drawing room...

"How does it look?" responded Clissey as a relevant reply. The "fit" referred to Clissey's new hat, and to the young girl the coherence was perfectly plain...

"And let us stop at Markham's store. They've got some new things in from Sacramento," said Piney. "Country styles," returned Clissey, with a supercilious air...

Clissey tossed her hat disdainfully. "Much anybody cares whether he's there or not. I haven't forgotten how he showed us over the mill the other day in a pair of overalls just like a workman."

AS EPOCH OF ASSASSINATIONS.

"The nineteenth century ran red with the blood of rulers, beginning in 1801 with the killing of the Czar Paul of Russia by some of his nobles. There were over 50 assassinations of rulers and crowned heads...

A LOVING WIFE'S TRIBUTE.

At New Orleans, during the trip across the Continent last May, Mrs. McKinley, in conversation with a visitor, paid tribute to the domestic virtues of her husband...

McKINLEY'S QUIANT HUMOR.

Stories revealing the late President's quaint humor during his last week on earth are being told from day to day in Buffalo. This one comes from one of the consulting physicians...

A SPANISH TRIBUTE.

Juan d' Aljorin, born in Madrid, and once a Spanish soldier, doffed his hat and bowed his head to-day before the half-mast flag and the picture of the dead chief...

AVOID EXAGGERATION.

Men who do not intend it sometimes utter mischievous things and arouse bitter feeling in others. The truth may be spoken in the language of exaggeration and thus do great harm as a direct lie...

able to gain only by long endeavor.

We rush after things. Our moralist sees this rush, and not being trained to close analytical thought, concludes that all men are after the "Almighty Dollar..."

NEWS OF THE STATE.

About $7500 has been paid out for chittim bark at Corvallis this season. Twelve carloads represent the shipments.

There is talk of building a big apartment house in Portland, that shall be 150 feet square and seven stories high.

Malheur County has an oil excitement. A company has been organized to prospect the plains. Well boring will be commenced as soon as an auger can be shipped from California.

A woolgrowers' association for Wheeler, Crook, Wasco and Sherman Counties has been organized at Mitchell. Following are the officers: President, Dr. J. W. Dagnelly; secretary-treasurer, E. E. Allen.

The Northern Pacific opened bids last Saturday in Tacoma for the building of 20 miles of railroad, including grading, cutting, tunneling, bridging and laying track from Scappoose, Columbia Co., to Pittsburg on the Nehalem.

Stagg, who a few years ago, published in Portland, a local financial paper and who was made receiver of suspended banks notwithstanding he had served a term in prison for forgery, is again in prison in New York, charged with forgery.

Eugene has been asked for a bonus of $15000, the payment of which is conditioned upon the building of a 3 set woolen mill at that city employing 50 to 75 operatives, earning a monthly pay roll of $3500. A mass meeting of citizens was called to discuss the proposition.

Well diggers near Bandon in Coos County have struck natural gas at the depth of forty feet. The flow is not continuous but as new excavations are made fresh gas holders are opened that flow till exhausted. The diggers have quit work regarding their job as extra hazardous.

Albert & Schneider, have been awarded a contract to furnish 500 tons of oats at Seattle or Tacoma for the Philippines at $22.70 per ton. Bids for hay were invited at the same time but no Oregon firm responded. The lowest Washington bidder was $13.00 and the highest $16.70.

Frank Rogers, grain buyer for an Athens company, purchased several lots of wheat at 4 1/2 cents for club and 4 1/4 cents for blue stem. Frank Martin sold 12,000 bushels; Louis Bergin 1500 bushels; Louis Audette 10,000 bushels; Felix Moran 2500 bushels and A. R. Rice, 3800 bushels.

Messrs. Specht & Mostert, late of Dallas, Polk County, have leased the Finney building on Main street and will, as soon as their oven is built, commence baking bread. The new firm will, besides bread, carry a full line of pies and cakes of their own baking. A stock of candies will be in their show cases.

Salem has a report that large prairie buyers have sold short at 4 cents. If growers have the nerve, they will be able to pinch the dealers, for the crop of the world is reported to be below the average crop. In France, one of our consuls report that the fruit is quoted at 16 cents. It now looks like holding for better prices is a safe thing to do.

A Portland hoodlum named Melville Blanchard, has been arrested in Portland because he turned in false fire alarms. He is about 29 years old and says he is the McDonald who two months ago confessed to the London Police that he was one of the gang who robbed the Western Lumber Company, last year in Portland. He invented that story because he wanted free passage to Portland from London.

W. Heitmiller, a resident of Tillamook County for twenty years, made an assault last week on Emil Arndt, with intent to kill, being armed with a pistol. He shot his victim twice, one bullet passing through the body, which wound may result fatally. Heitmiller is a gross drunkard and abusive so that his wife could not live with him, the separation occurring about six years ago. Recently divorce proceedings were commenced and Heitmiller conceded that Arndt was to marry the widow when the divorce was granted. Heitmiller is under arrest.

When you want a pleasant physique try the new remedy, Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They are easy to take and pleasant in effect. Price, 25 cents. Samples free at Delta Drug Store.

The laws of France cut off anarchists from notoriety. Their trials are not reported in the newspapers. In case of capital punishment the execution is not described and the burial place is secret. These regulations are due to the fact that vanity is a ruling passion with anarchist assassins.
