tion of Canada City Mr. Windibrook's ministration would have been successful. But, singularly enough, the rude miner was apt to resent this familiar ity, and it is recorded that Isaac Wood. otherwise known as "Grindly Wood," once responded to a cheerful back slap from the reverend gentleman by an ostentationaly friendly hug, which nearly dislocated the pastor's ribs. Perhaps Mr. Windthrook was more popular on account of his admiring early over the prosperous money getting members of his flock and a singular sympathy with their methods, and Mr. Trixit's daring speculations were an especially delightful theme to him.

"Ab. Miss Trixit," he said as Clasy entered the little parior, "and how is your dear father? Still startling the money market with his fearless speculations? This. Brother Jones," turning to a visitor, "is the daughter of our Napoleon of fluance, Montagu Trixit. Ouly last week in that deal in the Comstock he cleared $50,000. Yes, sir," repeating it with unction, "$50,000 in about two hours and a single stroke of the pen. I believe I am not overstating, Misa Trixit." he added, appealing to Clasy with a portentous politeness that was as badly fitting as his previous "beartiness."

Cissy colored slightly. "I don't know," she said simply. She was perfectly truthful. She knew nothing of her father's business except the vague reputation of his success.

Her modesty, however, produced a singular bliarity in Mr. Windibrook and a playful push. "You don't know?" Ha, but I do. Yes, sir"—to the visitor— "I have reason to remember it. I called upon him the next day. I used, sir, the edom of an old friend, 'Trixit,' i sald, clapping my hand on his shoulder, the Lord has been good to you. I con-

She was glad to get away from Mr. Windibrook's "heartiness" and console herself with Mrs. Windibrook's constitutional depression, which was partly the result of nervous despensia and her busband's bolsterous cordinlity. The Rev. C. F. WELLS, of Villa Ridge, Ill., says: "Your trial bottle of Asthmalene received in good condition I cannot tell you how thankful I feel for the good derived from it. I was a slave, chained with putrid sore throat and Asthma for ten years. I despaired of ever being cured. I saw your advertisment for the cure of this dreadful and tormenting disease, Asthma, and thought you had overspoken yourselves, but resolved to give it a trial. To my astonishment, the trial worked like a charm. Send me a full-sized bottle."

Gentiumen: I write this testimonial from a sense of duty, having tested the wonderful effect of your Asthmalene, for the cure of Asthma. My wife has been affected with spasmedic asthma for the past 12 years. Having exhausted my own skill as well as many others, I chanced to see your sign upon your windows on 150th Street in New York, I at once obtained a bottle of Asthmalene. My wife commenced taking it about the 1st of November. I very soon noticed a radical improvement. After using one bottle ber Asthma had disappeared and sac is entirely free from all symptoms. I feel that I can consistently recommend the modicine to all who are afflicted with this distressing disease.

Yours respectfully.
