THROUGH UTAH AND COLORADO.
The ideal trip to the east during the heat of summer is via the Rio Grande Western and Denver & Rio Grande Railroads, the far-famed "Scenic Line of the World." The extremes of temperature are never met, and passengers are sure of having a delightfully cool ride through the heart of the Rocky Mountains, and a view by daylight of scenery which is nowhere surpassed.

If desired, a stop enroute may be made at quaint and picturesque Salt Lake City, the "City of the Saints," Glenwood Springs, Leadville, Colorado Springs, Pueblo, Denver, or any intermediate point.

There are three daily trains leaving Salt Lake City for all points east, which have close connections from the Northwest via either O. R. & N. Co., or the Southern Pacific Co. These trains are equipped with Through Sleepers (Standard and Tourist), Free Reclining Chair Cars and a perfect Dining Car Service.

Personally Conducted Excursions, in charge of competent and courteous managers, are run several times a week without change of cars to Denver, Omaha, Kansas City, St. Louis, Chicago, Buffalo, New York, Boston and all intermediate cities.

Tickets are on sale at all Railroad Ticket offices. For further information and cheapest rates, apply to J. D. MANFIELD, General Agent, 124 Third St., Portland, Oregon.

Base ball players should use The Delta Liniment, as it cures sprains and bruises, toughens the hands and keeps the fingers supple.

CATHOLIC CHURCH TO BE DEDICATED SUNDAY

Archbishop Christie, of Oregon, Archbishop Christie, who will conduct the services at the dedication of the Catholic church here, next Sunday, was born in Vermont and is a living example of what places an American boy may reach. He commenced his career in the public schools of his native town and worked on the farm in vacation. As the lad grew, his thirst for knowledge became burning. The University of Levalle, Montreal, is where both his literary degree and his course in divinity was taken, and there he decided to devote his life to the church.

While yet a youth, and before he took his college degree, he went with his father to Minnesota, where he grew to manhood and where his work was done till these qualities of personality became known and recognized, which have pushed him upward in church work. He has a heart for the work of christianity, sincere, zealous, but modest, and he loves his fellowman. These attributes caused him to be one of the most popular and influential priests in that state, and to this day he is better known by the endearing title of Father Christie than by the greater titles that attach to his present high station. In 1898 he was made Bishop of Victoria, B. C. That same year Archbishop Gross, of Oregon, died in Baltimore and there was a vacancy here which was not filled immediately. We outsiders surmised that there might be two policies that could not harmonize, but it has since been understood that the delay in filling the vacancy was not on account of so serious a matter as differing policies, but was due to a deliberate hunt for the right man. Choice fell on Bishop Christie, of Victoria. At that time the selection was thought to be a wise one. The Bishop was recognized to be an American and politically to be guided by the teaching of Christ, as set forth in that paragraph reading, "Render therefore unto Cesar the things which are Cesar's, and unto God the things that are God's."

While the Bishop regretted to leave Victoria, he obeyed the order assigning him to Oregon. The result has verified the wisdom of sending him here. What he has done is not confined to his church, but is of a broader nature that benefits the state and humanity. He has strengthened the Diocese along all the lines, planted a church here, another there, and beyond in the neighborhood remote from population centers. He has secured and put in operation on Columbia University, University Park, Portland at a cost of $100,000. There are accommodations for 200 students. The college is fully equipped for a terrible accident which happened Thursday, a couple of miles from the Fruit home. It seems the young man had gone fishing and had taken a shotgun with him, and in crawling through some thick brush, over logs, the gun was discharged, with the result as above stated.—Brownsville Times.

A French four-mast barque, from which the cargo of coal had been removed, lost its equilibrium at a Portland dock last week and tipped over on the wharf. The masts and rigging had to be cut away so that the hulk could drop back into the water. The loss by damages is assessed at $30,000 or more.

Chauncey Nye, of Jackson county, who was a member of the Oregon Territorial Legislature of 1853, writes a letter to Gov. Geer reciting the memories of that session and to say that he is still alive to keep company with Gov. Grover and Judge Boise, the trio being the only members of that session, as far as known, who are alive.

A Yamhill farmer reports that he last week sold 26 dressed hogs, aged 6 months, that averaged 225 pounds, each for 6 1/2 cents per pound. The gross proceeds for the lot was $380. He fed 125 bushels of wheat, worth no more than 50 cents per bushel, but by feeding he made it yield him $3 per bushel. We can match the figures at several points in this county.

Frank Fruit, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Fruit, of Crawfordsville, lies sold in death, with the top of his head blown to atoms, the result of a inmate and he or she calls for a Protestant clergyman, that minister is called. On these broad lines does Father Christie work, and, as he is a man in the prime of life, we can reasonably rejoice that he will be with us for many years to exercise policy which so endeared him to his Minnesota parishioners as Father Christie. The only thing to blast this hope is promotion to a station higher.

Rev. Father J. H. Black, rector of the Hillsboro church, is an Oregon boy, having come to Oregon with his father and mother in 1878. The Oregon home was fixed at McMinnville, Yamhill county. Father Black was born at Abington, Virginia, in 1865. His education was begun in the public schools of his native state and continued at McMinnville, after which he was ready for his college course, which was taken at Notre Dame University, Indiana. The time spent at the university covers his entire absence from the state since his immigration, in 1878. Immediately after graduation, in 1892, he was assigned to the chair of English Literature in Mt. Angel college, Marion county, this state. He was ordained Priest by Archbishop Gross in 1893. His first mission work was at Oswego, Clackamas county, but after only two months, he was called to the Cathedral in Portland. There he remained two years, when he was installed as rector of the Eugene church. He stayed two years there, when, on the death of Father Northman, he was called again to the Cathedral in Portland to be private secretary for Archbishop Gross, which place he held till the death of that Prelate. Having shown his ability to handle large financial matters, he was installed as secretary of the Diocese during the interim till Archbishop Christie came, and even now in large transactions, he is the special agent entrusted with conducting the negotiations.

Two years ago he was made rector of St. Francis church, in East Portland, where he now is. The Hillsboro church is extra work, which comes to him because of his good organizing and executive ability. He without doubt will have relief as soon as a successor can be found to continue what Father Black has commenced.

As a speaker, he is both forcible and eloquent. It is a pleasure to sit in his congregation and follow his logical reasoning. His ministry makes christians, and hence better men. He boldly and fearlessly rebukes sin and points to the path of virtue and to happiness as the reward of right living—a happiness whose enjoyment is commenced on earth and continued in Heaven.

Hillsboro Catholic Church.
The Hillsboro church was organized in 1899. Since then services have been held quite regularly in the Opera House. The congregation, small at first, has grown and now numbers about 300. Immediately after organizing the church, Father Black saw the necessity for a home. At first he thought to buy a church already erected. The building belonged to the Baptist church and had been standing idle for a number of years and was understood to be for sale. Negotiations for its purchase were opened, but the parties to the transfer could not get together, so all idea of purchasing was abandoned. It was decided to build new. J. W. Shute, Banker, donated the lot then vacant across the street from the Baptist church. Foundation stones were delivered in the fall of 1899. The building committee was appointed and an active campaign commenced early in 1900 to raise funds for the new structure. Work was commenced late in the season of the same year and was pushed as vigorously as was possible.

A WORTHY SUCCESSOR.

Something New Under The Sun.

All Doctors have tried to cure catarrh by the use of powders, acid gases, inhalers and drugs in paste form. Their powders dry up the mucous membranes causing them to crack open and bleed. The powerful acids used in the inhalers have entirely eaten away the same membranes that their makers have aimed to cure, while pastes and ointments cannot reach the disease. An old and experienced practitioner who has for many years made a close study and specialty of the treatment of catarrh, has at last perfected a treatment which when faithfully used, not only relieves at once, but permanently cures catarrh, by removing the cause, stopping the discharges and curing all inflammation. It is the only remedy known to science that actually reaches the afflicted parts. This wonderful remedy is known as "Snuffles," the guaranteed catarrh cure, and is sold at the extremely low price of one dollar, each package containing internal and external medicine sufficient for a full month's treatment and everything necessary to its perfect use.

"Snuffles" is the only perfect catarrh cure ever made and is now recognized as the only safe and positive cure for that annoying and disgusting disease. It cures all inflammation quickly and permanently and is also wonderfully quick to relieve hay fever or cold in the head.

CHILDREN ESPECIALLY LIABLE.

Burns, bruises and cuts are extremely painful and if neglected often result in blood poisoning. Children are especially liable to such mishaps because not so careful. As a remedy DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is unequalled. Draws out the fire, stops the pain, soon heals the wound. Beware of counterfeits. Sure cure for piles. "DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured my baby of eczema after two physicians gave her up" writes James Mock, N. Webster, Ind. "The sores were so bad she soiled from two to five dresses each day." Delta Drug Store.

Don't Live Together.
Constipation and health never go together. DeWitt's Little Early Risers promote early action of the bowels without distress. "I have been troubled with costiveness nine years," says J. O. Greene, Depauw, Ind. "I have tried many remedies but Little Early Risers give best results." Delta Drug Store.
