Republicans are asked: what has the governor of Oregon to do with the Philippines? You might as well give a Yankee answer and reply: What do the republicans of Oregon want with a governor who represents everything politically to which republicans are opposed?—Corvallis Gazette.

Don't talk too much about the republican candidate for governor being a democrat. Some of the best and most useful men in the republican party all over the country, were democrats on the same day that Mr. Furnish was last a democrat, and ceased to be such on the same day he did.—Sherman Co. Observer.

FOR REVENUE ONLY.

"We are in favor of a tariff for revenue only."—Democratic Platform. The democrats do not propose to collect a less sum than that now gathered. Then they must propose to get the same sum off of other articles. England collects on the "revenue only" theory. This is how it works out.

Export duty on coal....$	8,000,000
Duty on sugar imports.....	33,000,000
Income tax.........................	174,000,000
Inheritance tax...................	67,000,000
	282,000,000

This sum is an increase for last year. For the coming year the above taxes are retained together with $12,000,000 tax on breadstuffs. This then is the way democrats would collect revenue. There are revenue producing items. They are of general use by the people and the people have to pay the tax. By the English system, "tariff for revenue," the people get no return for this expenditure except the enjoyment of that security that a stable government furnishes. By the American system the republican idea, the masses not only have the benefit possessed by the British subject but in addition has industry fostered so that he may earn for the prompt payment of his duties. More. The American system puts on the free list the necessary food articles of the masses. Coffee, tea etc. It is off on flour and meat because we have a surplus and are exporters. And that brings us back to the English duty on wheat and flour. We will probably be shut out of the English market by that impost. We must cast about for a new market. Asia is just west of us. We must go there. Wherefore we have use for the Philippines. But the democrats would have us abandon our advantage there. They would scuttle. Can the voters endorse the scheme?

THAT ROAST.

"There is nothing like discipline. Not so many years ago, Mr. Huston gave Mr. Gault a 'roast' in a public address at the courthouse. Those who heard it said it was 'warm.' Mr. Gault now echoes every pundit uttered by the chief and the love between them is like that of brothers."—Argus.

Whatever there is in this, it happened ten years ago and ever since a few months afterward, Mr. Huston and Mr. Gault have been the best of friends, and everyone has forgotten it except the Argus editor, who now goes back into ancient history to try to make trouble between friends for partisan purposes. But that is nothing to the record of the Argus man. In the history of Washington county politics, no man was ever so viciously attacked as was Hon. B. P. Cornelius by the Argus man two years ago when he was caricatured, cartooned and accused of carrying primaries by dishonest methods. It even insinuated that there was dishonesty in the letting of the contract for the steel cells in the new jail. Its whole fight in that campaign was against Judge Cornelius. It appealed to all decent citizens regardless of party to rise up and overthrow the ring headed by Judge Cornelius. We repeat that never in the history of Washington county politics has so bitter a personal campaign been carried on as that of the Argus against Judge Cornelius. Only two short years ago, and what a change? Ever since the day of the republican primaries, the Argus editor has fawned upon Judge Cornelius, flattered him, groveled at his feet—would have his arms about him if the Judge would permit it. For months, the Argus never missed an issue in which he did not refer in some manner to the "Simon ring," to the "Ikey," as it pleased to term him, in the U. S. Senate. All that has changed. Not one word against the "Simon ring," not one word against the "Ikeys," as the Argus contemptuously called them. Why? Because the Argus is supporting an "Ikey" for state treasurer and its only hope of electing its candidate for governor is through the solid vote of the "Ikeys." In the language of the poet, "Things have changed since Willie died."

AS TO FLOPPERS.

The Argus refers to Hon. W. J. Furnish as a flopper. If Mr. Furnish is a flopper, what is John W. Sewell, whom the Argus is supporting for sheriff? What was James H. Sewell whom the Argus supported state senator? What was Hon. H. R. Kincaid who was elected secretary of state as a republican in 1894, and was nominated by the union-demo-populist combination for the same position in 1898 before his time had expired and while he was still holding the office to which he was elected as a republican? And yet the Argus supported him heartily. If Mr. Furnish is a flopper, what designation would the Argus apply to Hon. W. D. Hare, who held office for many years as a republican, to Hon. Chas. A. Towne who Mr. Bryan desired to have nominated for Vice President on the ticket with him two years ago? If Mr. Furnish is a flopper what is the Hon. Hubert Beroard who was a strong gold democrat, attended the democratic convention in Portland, helped to organize the party and send Mr. C. E. S. Wood as a delegate to Indianapolis to nominate Palmer and Buckner and then before election time was supporting W. J. Bryan? Would it not be just as well to discuss principles a little rather than call names? Mr. Furnish has been an active republican for the past six years. He has done as much for the republican party in these six years as many men do in forty years. He was good enough to be elector on the republican electorial ticket and vote for McKinley as such two years ago. He was a good enough republican to receive 248 votes in the republican state convention as against 91 for the gentleman who opposed him. He was supported in the convention by such republicans as Hon. Geo. H. Williams, Hon. C. W. Fulton, Senators Booth, Kuykendall, Marsters, Brownell and many others that might be mentioned. He is entitled to and will receive practically the solid republican vote of the state.

In reply to the statement of the Independent, or rather the suggestion that the Argus should say in its headlines, "opposed to gold monometalism, believes in the bi-metallic standard; but is in favor of a radical gold standard man for U. S. Senator," the Argus says that Hon. C. E. S. Wood supported Bryan in 1900. This is very true, but Mr. Wood said in every address he made, and particularly the one he made at Forest Grove in this county, that if he thought for a minute that Mr. Bryan if elected, would interfere with the gold standard, or would undertake to force his silver views on the country, he would not support him for one moment. The Argus knows this as well as anybody. Mr. Wood has never changed his views on the money question in any manner whatever. He is as strong a gold man today as he ever was; but still the Argus is asking the populists and the free silver democrats of Washington county to support a legislative ticket pledged to his election. It is supporting a platform that is absolutely silent on the question of the "crime of '73," that has no words of comfort for those who want a 50c dollar, that says nothing about the "free and unlimited coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1 without waiting for the aid and consent of any other nation on earth," that has nothing to say in favor of the "new declaration of independence," otherwise known as the Chicago platform, that has no words of praise for the "peerless leader, the boy orator of the Platte," the "centennial president," as the Argus called him. These things show that the Argus man can eat crow without making a very wry face, but we do not believe as the old Missourian said, "that he bankers arter it."

STATE PRESS.

J. K. Weatherford will do as well as any man the democrats could put up for congress. But a man of Tongue's energy and ability who is in office cannot be put out by a few weeks' campaigning.—Salem Journal.

Mr Furnish came to the republican party at a time when it needed votes to elect McKinley and save the country from free silver, says The Dalles Chronicle. This happened when some persons calling themselves republicans were voting for Bryan, for the exploded 16 to 1 doctrine. When business depression prevailed, and ruination threatened the country, Mr. Furnish came to the republican party on principle, showing the courage to do what was right.

When Mr. Chamberlain was following Bryan and his platforms Mr. Furnish was supporting McKinley and sound money. Republicans would do well to consider this before deciding to go against their party in June.

The republicans lose Judge Lowell and gain Thos. Harlan, of Mosier, Oregon. The men are of about equal prominence, though Harlan probably the better vote getter.

BRIGHT'S DISEASE.

The largest sum ever paid for a prescription, changed hands in San Francisco, Aug. 30, 1901. The transfer involved in coin and stock $11,500.00 and was paid by a party of business men for a specific for Bright's Disease and Diabetes, hitherto incurable diseases.

They commenced the serious investigation of the specific Nov. 15, 1900. They interviewed scores of the cured and tried it out on its merits by putting over three dozen cases on the treatment and watching them. They also got physicians to name chronic, incurable cases, and administered it with the physicians for judges. Up to Aug. 5, eighty-seven per cent of the test cases were either well or progressing favorably.

There being but thirteen per cent of failures, the parties were satisfied and closed the transaction. The proceedings of the investigating committee and the clinical reports of the test cases were published and will be mailed free on application. Address JOHN J. FULTON COMPANY, 40 Montgomery St. San Francisco, Cal.
